graphical approach to understanding the Ggods Must Be Crazy. Also, why Revelation is the way it is.

Before there was any kind of a beginning, there was Ggod. Let this be represented by grey space. Light was created first. God now had the existence He wanted. Ggod held onto that womb. It is not represented in the graphic.

Wisdom

Lady Wisdom became the Christ. Foremost light was Wisdom. In wisdom, Light gave his life and was resurrected by God to bear the womb of creation. This is love. Jesus walked the earth the son of man personifying wisdom. God resurrected the Christ, masculine. God is also masculine. The womb of creation God retained when Jesus walked the earth. The womb of creation Saint Paul was given to jail spirit consciousness. This came with being feminine.

Christ holds the heavens with Saint Paul. Ggod is a bachelor.

The spontaneity of Satan's existence was prepared for. Evil deeds, those against the Christ, have no future.

Witch

God created with lady wisdom. This righteous duo populated the earth with humanity, male and female. This creation is represented by the rectangular bands in the graphic. Woman is the invention of Ggod with darkness, Satan. Man is the invention of Ggod with light, Christ.

Notice the camouflage earth tones of those that give their life in sacrifice. Notice the red of blood with sin. All four rectangles are humanity.

Wardrobe

Wearing camouflage mimicking the uniforms of government military servants is wickedness when you are not under oath of military service and duty. We suggest to you posers the brick red as camouflage, especially when in the woods. You are less likely to be shot.

Wickedness

Wickedness Ggod hated, hates, and will always hate. Righteousness Ggod loved, loves, and will always love. Humanity is God's creation that demonstrates even a shitty little god, think Gates, screams for justice in the middle of his own hypocrisy. A human, even with a corrupted heart, recognizes wickedness in others. Even when that human is a god himself that profited from Satan.

Window

Christ does not open a window after He closes a door. god opens windows for the wicked to pass through, running to badness, when the Christ shut the door.

mac spent her life refusing to open gods' windows. This is how one wins the Christ. Ggod wins in the end because mac loves God.
