

How Bibbidi-Bobbidi-Boo Works

August 23, 2021

How ritual prayer and Satanism is powered. The Cliff notes.

There are twins at war within you, was God explaining how two sons, spirit, would in their rebellion build nations on the earth. What has God observed since His woman was born? That every law the United States has legislated from minor principality to the Federal Government was intended to destroy righteousness.

The hypocrisy of the Justice Department favouring, nay championing, the cause of dead branch Davidian's of Waco against the F.B.I., is stark contrast to their disinterest in exercising at least acknowledgement of Ms. Dukes life. HELLINK is in honour of the Justice Department's refusal to perform minimal duties. What is mac's psalm, "These fuckers are not dying fast enough. If you think about the food stores just on the shelf at Walmart, all of Corpus Christi being wiped out in one month would leave us food stores to keep me alive decades. Not to mention what can be broken down in the surrounding neighbourhood to reduce disease from decay and neglect alone."

Those Biblical Inquires of the LORD

Recall Rebekah had twins. Same birthday applies. One twin is not realistically older than the other. Unless of course they are fraternal. More marvels of birth that rival the magic of the escaping egg from the ovary. What is the other marvel? God does not hide truth. An individual is required to dig past their gut feed of the demon premonition pipeline to understand God. Abraham sure as shit did and he was one difficult fucking lead.

Nebuchadnezzar's "demon" is powerful and unifies human belief systems. Recall that head of gold and Daniel's realizing that in no way would he want the prophecy he was interpreting to be against righteousness? Nebuchadnezzar also was humbled. It was his worthless son who lost his kingdom. When inquiring of the LORD, like Rebekah, persons were learning God's life and privileged to live a day in it. It burdened Rebekah. Jacob's covenant stood to provide a means for spirit beings to demonstrate they wanted God's protection. Recall Jacob's fear of Esau (his twin) and the covenant he made with God? What we do as humans provides demonstrating the outcome of beliefs of God's spirit creation. (This is Bibbidi-Boddidi-Boo.) Yes, God hates democracy. They do not accomplish righteousness. Who accomplishes Righteousness? God.

You Can Get A Little Quenching

It is possible for persons with corrupted hearts to make a covenant with God and be led by God to the Christ as mac was. It is not possible to enter the Christ's congregation until mac's back pay has been paid. The only covenant that will provide you with Shepherding by God is, "I will not fornicate." (Don't worry reading this did not a covenant with God make.) Will this lead you to the Christ? It is not enough. It is a placeholder measure of protection for those claiming they want righteousness. Not fornicating is the Shepherding that goes with God. The benefits of the Christ are not experienced until you are lead into his congregation. Does not fornicating amount to something? not for those desperate for fornication. Television, documentaries in particular, form opinions of places and peoples in lands far-far away. If it were not for Mr. Steves, how many middle class Americans would want to visit anything other than Rome?

Anything But A Roman

Years ago PBS ran a broadcast of a Ken Burns style documentary of a Slavic community in post Soviet Europe. The documentary featured a pagan ritual of fornication across married couples and the way a married couple were priming their sex dates for their free night of orgy bliss under the moon without their spouse. Did this frame a negative opinion of Slavic peoples in mac's mind? She hates the idea of being married to one. She gets the hypocrisy of American Protestants. But at least they are willing to say adultery is bad.

How about Jacob's seed? You know they are all characterised as child sodomising, sheep violating, wife beaters. She wouldn't consider a Mediterranean spouse, even though on the whole the males crackle with sexual charisma, because of the sexual perversion and physical abuse the weaker spouse is subjected to.

Taking Down Walls

How do prejudices like this get taken down? You should have made an effort to get to her door you lazy fucker. What did you hate? You had to announce your intention. Being a fucking coward? not a strength. This is just the mark of a woman, or feminine male. Not all feminine males are women. If a male does not initiate the romantic interest he is not masculine. Is there another possibility? He is just not that interested in the object. Take a hint pathetic, desperate, ugly one, the male is just not into you, leave him alone.

What does mac know? Gut instinctual declarations are cheap and the intentions of niggers are cheaper still. Pony up fuckers or die. Today mac's sleep was interrupted in the small hours of morning while reposed in her eighty-eight degree room by a dream starring Donald and Melania. Later, over morning coffee, mac remarked to ITZA, "They are a pair of bookends' aren't they?" "They sure are." mac visualised these bookends holding up a collection of tattered magazines on feet of wall shelf and asked, "Which one leans along the Hustler and which the Penthouse?" That went with the first smile of the morning. "She is just jealous of my middle name." accompanied mac's smirk on the duo.

The Piss Your Flames Out Debate

For the genetic being that goes after Satan, being a shitty little god, your consciousness is just part of a fucking borg of all the consciousnesses the demon merged with for centuries. No, you do not know your harem mates, so to speak. You also do not know how willing your demon will be at accepting the Christ. Think back to mac's earlier psalm over "Tok Pisin." She would rather feel the burn than take anything from Satan. You will be taking a hell of a gamble refusing God. Do you honestly think mac regards Donald and Melania's identities as being worthy of unique remembrance? mac won't be marking their graves.

Scared Straight? Not Likely

mac's favourite reminder, you don't need to like her. That is feminine, in the extreme, by definition. She won't call this the scared straight program. Obviously seeing mangled bodies from tortured metal for impaired driving does not prevent an individual from taking their first hit, being invincible or fine, and hitting the pavement (or sending someone else there). mac would like Christ and the saints back to earth sooner rather than later so they can enjoy some of this work load.

Chase What Matters

mac also likes passing the bank card to the Christ so he can sweat over nickels and dimes. She does not mind handing him the keys to the dock with smelter either. Bringing about righteousness is fought in the dimensional world seen, you see mac's e-scroll. (You even have a picture for cross hairs or darts.) And fought by what is unseen because Christ's kingdom is on earth and Christ (with Saint Paul) are spirit; for the time being.

What did mac do? Got though to the demon. The souls mac encountered simply wanted death, on the whole.
