Along the east bound I-10, amid Laura's wreckage, a red caboose stands. This is God's promise He will not let Jehovah destroy the United States of America one nation under God. God Shepherds His faithful into the body of the Christ aka Christ's Kingdom.

mac had a dream. mac stands behind a man whose legs are on wheels, and he opens a door into a three cot-like-bed bunk room with a panorama window looking onto heavy foliage. The man wheels into the room. Two men are in the room on their bunks. One man sleeps against and on the panorama window wall stretched out with his back to the door. The other man is self-contented on his floor bunk perpendicular to the window wall. His back is against the other two bunks. Whether this man is sitting slumped or laying foetal is not clear.

The wheeling man rolls quickly to his perpendicular-to-the-window floor bunk pushing with his arms. The man then snaps out of his wheels that are legs and situates himself on his bunk with retarded gestures to get attention. The gestures looked like the wave dance move on steroids. mac watches him. He sits on his stumps facing the contented man. The wheeling man with retarded gestures is naked and reaches for his man-hood. It is the flesh of a man in the shape of a short-nosed fighter jet. The nose is only half as long again as the under-wing fuselages. The man sleeping against the window snaps his neck toward the masturbating man with a look of disgust and opens his mouth wide before returning his head to its original position of repose.

There must be fifteen seconds of fame here.

Education on dreams is in Christi Corpus. Along the east bound I-10 amid Laura's wreckage a red caboose stands. This is God's promise He will not let "Jehovah" destroy the United States of America one nation under God. God shepherds His faithful into the Body of the Christ aka Christ's Kingdom.
