Coming to A Galaxy Near You

These are gluten-free manly cookies from mama mac's kitchen. This dough will resemble a core sample 2" dia. x 16" long after all ingredients are combined and pressed onto parchment paper and rolled to resemble a core sample. Wrap the core sample in plastic wrap to prevent drying out in the fridge. The dough is good for a week in the fridge and needs to sit 2 hours before cooking.

To Cook

Slice off 1/3" thick disks and space on a greased cookie sheet or cook on parchment paper in a 325 F oven for 12-15 minutes. The middle of the oven is good. The top of the oven is hotter and the bottom of the oven tends to burn the bottom of the cookies before the top gets golden from caramelisation of the sugar.

This article originally titled the cookies as "Ted's". mac was baking them to fill his cookie jar. Prayers of heart, like a hope chest, she could never make. Never making a prayer of heart means, having to learn they exist first. (mac's thought, you horrid, using, self-righteous, perverted, disgusting mother fuckers, aka humanity. Why the fuck should these people be saved? The Christ says the same thing. This is the meaning of, it would be easier for Sodom and Egypt.) Every prayer of heart made against mac, God had to honour. Christ made prayers of heart in mac's behalf. These are the prayers that insured mac would hate wickedness and love wisdom first and foremost. This noted date, mac began edits for Live Fornication Free. This paragraph's addition is part of the editing. This publication's Shepherding will not be free.
