Here's a quarter, call someone who cares. Call someone who'll listen, who might give a damn to any one of your sordid affairs. Is that the lyric, exactly? Frankly my dear I don't give a damn. Clark Gable dished that witchy woman in the movies, didn't he? This is not about being overcome by a virgin and never being allowed to divorce her. Just understand, that law holds. There are other laws, let us call them, legacy laws, that elaborate on the ten words of God that are not appurtenant to fulfilling the covenant with Abraham. They are however the laws of righteous warfare.

This warfare is waged in the mind, it trains the heart, it blocks physiological response and payoff for listening to the sin in the blood, and last but not least doing these, living by them, are the keys to Eternity. These laws translate to deeds. These deeds prove the faithful. These are the laws under the new covenant.

The Broken Road of Rascal Flatts

Jesus taught in illustrations. mac does not. She also pulls no punches and if you are dropping your left in the ring its because you decided to wear a ring for deception. Deception for tactical advantage is an instrument for righteousness in God's hands and a tool for fornication in Satan's hands. What is the difference, the righteous make God's word physical reality (Hear the Christ say, "Period")

That core for fornication is the human heart trained to listen to the sin in the blood. This is the heart that refuses to listen to LOVE. mac thought long and hard about naming God, LOVE. She understood wisdom better than that. That does not mean that the attributes of our heavenly Creator, the Almighty, and His Christ we abuse.

Tears for Fears

Have you cried over what was lost with rebellion in the heavens? Your answer does not change the fulfilment of the covenant's meaning Abraham made with God. We shall digress and call out the dipshit Jehovah's Witnesses yet again. You stupid mother fuckers. This is the prelude to Do the Limbic that will make you shit all over yourselves. You fuckers smeared Abraham's sacrifice of Isaac calling it a father son sacrifice that "paralleled" God with the Christ. The Christ's sacrifice was the demonstration of the death the Christ suffered at God's hand required to bear the womb of creation. Death of one's self is the sacrifice the wicked categorically refuse. This topic has been covered.

For God's Kingdom to be fulfilled when His woman walked the earth, slaves to God were needed. They also needed wealth. Chevy should be shitting a brick by now and Dutch Royal Shell is not going to be too happy either. You do not have a contract with the being, woman, mac, that has the authority to sell that oil. All Abraham's seed and lands are hers. That is the power of the king of Israel until the Christ comes and she gives to the Christ all she has in gratitude along with every leader over every other kingdom on earth for being a part of the action. Recall these lands are defined in Joshua.

"Kiss My Bass", the Hat mac Didn't Buy

Fines for theft mac will levy against violators along with contractual corrections because Leaven and Mammon are not rewarded under God's Law. While on the subject of covered topics. Bestial relations is insemination. This animal abuse has a cruel legacy and means more than the Nile will be filled with the blood of the hamstrung. Sadly, the Missouri to Mississippi along with the Colorados are needed in this nation. The bison will sure prosper again. There is nothing quite like medium rare bison ribeye. Bone-in of course. (mac needs something to naught on.) Why did Jacob place his rod at his watering hole? So livestock knew where to find care, including sheath cleaning for breeding. Why don't you kiss, kiss this, and I don't mean on my ruby red lips.

The Welcome Mat

Even if you are not blessed with acting for salvation against your own will by measure for being Abraham's seed, other seed is always welcome. This can sure include the alien. All living people can chose to effect God's righteousness and do according to His will. Only a few, though numerous, had a patriarch that walked with God. It will not be until God's Kingdom that all seed bears righteous fruit. The consciousness of billions has been obliterated because they followed Satan as living god. The portion of Manas'seh and E'phraim are envied.

There are few remaining days of mac's incarceration. Not even for a Presidential Pardon is Biden getting a fucking thing. How would do you like mac's declaration of war to come against you? The consequences against Philistia were a deathly panic and those that did not die were stricken with tumours.

You people didn't even ask of God if you could host His ark. You decided possession was nine tenths of the law. The first tenth you didn't even consider. Law number one made the other nine possible. Understand the course you took with COVID is why God allowed you to steal His ark. You forced Him to allow you to experience the terror and tumours that go with the new COVID variant that you refused God's simple covenant over to shut down the nation and use COVID to murder God's woman. Her safe escort to Israel as commanded ends the tumour and terror variant scourge.

Post Script

Let God and His Christ show you dancing with the village, people. mac is partial to roses and dark chocolate. She still does not understand why God and the Lamb would have decided to create more life. They are perfect, always.
