God's Sexidence

Dipping the Finger In the Blood and On the Horn

January 3, 2022

Do we remember Barbie, as Ken, Streisand spilling wine on bed sheets in Yental? Some mental case movies one only watches once. Like Catch 22, Gladiator, Idiocracy, and Papillon once was just too fucking much, and time we will never get back.

What did antichrist know that was used to teach mac how many ways she is married (fucked might be the better word in honour of Trump)? How God Almighty's vasectomy ejaculation went down and what happened as a result. Satan swallowed the seed and sent the magic. What was the womb of creation? Satan's love at first sight match (Imagine that! for that Baal) Wasn't that fabulous of the lamb to bear that for the first born? Look into the heavens, we are talking about Spirit manifest in the physical.

What did God do to insure His word of Righteousness happened? Instantaneously divorced His lamb, and married Himself to all that seed as Satan swallowed. All that seed is stored in mac. This means with that blood flood God's joy was turned to hardened dead keratin toward the one He loved, His bride, ewe, Righteousness. Priests dipped their finger in the blood and on the horn in remembrance of the murder that ended in divorce.

God and mac are bound by law to that harem. mac knew she was God's future wife what she did not know was that His law married Him to all that seed to save life so Righteousness could be obtained by all His lamb's eggs. Mary McRae is the embodiment of the evil that half formed all of you. Greed to murder mac is a problem. Christ's kingdom, mac's kingdom, is what saves all of you. The virgins need of course the early, minor, fulfilment of her kingship over America. Otherwise the virgin egg genetics is gone.

If you think mac made a deal with the devil, Putin, on this one Milley, grow some brass little one. Why not just move mac to the Coronado amphibious base in the short term. Otherwise mac moving to Russia works. The little dogs are not meant to steal the food of their master. (little Milley is the household cat formerly named Wesley that is addicted to antichrist's abuses. mac is working to save that little dude too. Milley has bit mac many times. She has trained him to do some kitty skills in obedience so there is hope for little Milley.) Little dog and little while waiting are the same language clue over the robes and massive crowd. No virgin has humility enough to see how they even need food. You laughed at the humility of d-o-g in the tag article. Ah, a tough castle eunuch is in order.

Because of how mac approaches fulfilling God Almighty's word she went through experiencing the abuses of many bad "spouses". Ted, God Almighty set out to find for mac. He was fabulous. You murdered him. (mac saw "Timmy" before she met "Timmy-Timmy," who named himself Ted, in vision. Last nighty mac learned she will be united with "Timmy" in the far far future and Ted and "Timmy" are one-in the same. God allowed mac to believe she was married to a living dead person. You gaming fuckers should be very scared right now. God needed a living person to pull off your horror against mac, enter pony.)

God Almighty had mac take a slave. That is pony. God Almighty is in a harem that would make Solomon blush (and you would too Milley) that is the significance of the manna. It is seed, a spore, plentiful on America's savanna that fed Biblical Israel whilst in the desert. It was carried in the atmosphere. Manna went in the ark because the seed of life is what mac holds. The Law is in the ark because of the matrimony bit. You are not allowed to murder mac to avoid learning how shitty you are in God Almighty's classroom. That would be the rod (of discipline) in the ark too.

God Almighty loves that mac saw death as the easy solution to evil and was willing to bear being wounded many times to become king in the seven weeks to save you half formed, bad act without life eggs. What else? God and His lamb would have needed to be prepared for the greedy big bang with human experiment to make creation perfect when evil exists and needs to be in a room by itself. We know Satan was first born and witnessed creation. God and His lamb made the provision in Wisdom to care for their first born regardless of the direction He took. All the physical originated from one source. Consciousness came into existence until Satan saw what he wanted for him, swore by it this time. Then the big bang. That would be the shot that created hearing the shot heard around the world too.

God Almighty's word is made true and it works as so. Evil, the shitty person, keeps upping the ante on wickedness against God's repeated requests to do the right thing. The one willing to bear for righteous motives, that is God Almighty's faithful, backing God's pot, the not shitty person, just the one coated in shit by the shitty, is elevated in the poker match until the pot simply can't get any bigger to pay the righteous servant of God Almighty. That was explained in Dog Paddle. mac's kindly explanation was; do the true God's will with endurance, then He vindicates His servants in fabulous ways. Of course mac thought of the sufferings of the prophets and Jesus Christ as she wrote.

God Almighty is holding down the celibacy fort [This is what God's Sabbath is.] for the duo as all of you have been fucking mac over in person or with antichrist. Do you want to tell God Almighty He needs to get laid and is on the rag all the time? (I'm waiting...) This harem marriage is why all of you individually think you are antichrist's special child. You egotistical-sick-fucking garbage. I hate you Jesus suckers.

Antichrist took off for more vengeful deeds backed by the Corpus Christi Police Department at about 0900, January 4, 2022. mac cleaned Dody Street and prepared for the coming siege against her of more wickedness.
