Why there is a battle among demons. The supreme power of worshipping God Most High.

I hope they rip their bodies apart from intestine to throat. A fatal stroke, too easy. I hope every second Amanda Knuteson lives with her intimate demonic relation is rape that sends her running mad into the Gallatin river to drowned herself in a February thaw.

mac to Team God of heaven.

"Thank you Hr. That's a Psalm." Came the Lamb's assurance in reply.

"No wonder why I had to stop reading them. I didn't have a clue what was being said and why." The heavenly team just dropped another penny into mac's thought box.

Why a covenant that you can not make a prayer of heart matters the Paddler understands. In the last month mac kept complaining, "I didn't even have the all powerful, 'I'm rubber you're glue whatever you say to me bounces off and sticks to you', that all children defend themselves with."

Females were not put in a place of circumcision. It is barbarism. In Israel a female wife was protected for being one flesh with her male, circumcised husband. As a one flesh union his covenant stood. Then the first Christ came as Jesus. The issue of circumcision was one of those proofs no one had the Lamb in Rome. If they had they would have understood what purpose it served in fulfilment of the Christ.

What obvious picture does the one flesh union demonstrate when related to two spirit beings? While one holds the heavens in balance the other walks as a human connected to their own spirit consciousness, in the case of Christ, in union with God in perfection with light righteousness while Christ, perfect, ministered to humanity. Were others of Christ's day as Jesus walking the earth in union with Ggod? Yes.

What did Christ demonstrate in caring for the demon troubled? That when God's woman walked the earth Satan the dragon with her demons would be keeping company existing in individuals incapable of making a prayer of heart. These spirit are victims of how their host abuses Ggod's power to be more or less a shitty little god going after the heavens. Think of spirit beings as being two places at once. One of the heavens retained on Ggod's power preserved like Christ was. The other trapped with a nigger like Trump.

Like all of God's evidence we see, that would be the here is your sign, there are clues woven in His Holy Bible. As scribes someone got the hot idea to index the Bible and wasn't that great dust for Protestantism to choke the world on. All that proof and look how you can bounce back and forth. This proves the Bible is from God say all non-pagans. What did the pagans know? They too had power.

As long as those ten commandments were followed, humans following them even using parts of the Law, that would be the not gross stuff like sacrificing animals and of course who was a demon possessed person, did reasonably well - up to a point in time. Lithium and thorazine to the rescue. Until of course every nigger needed lithium by then we all needed penicillin by the truck loads for STDs. But hey, that hepatitis is sure under control now.

Back to those all important dust particles of Revelation that books that are not worth the paper they are printed on have filled seminary school libraries with. For instance, the Apol'lyon Abad'don mystery. One of Greek and one of Hebrew naming convention. Clearly this is naming one entity. Ah, but what is one entity? One flesh you idiot. One entity of heaven sitting in Ggods' cradle, Greek [They loved them thar astrological origin god explanations] certainly the demons are not in people sayest the geeks. The other entity roaming the earth like that fucking lizard. Satan and the demons were cast down to earth. God held their consciousness nestled in the stars and planets. The battle was going to be over information. More on Trump's fuck fest turned personal fiasco to come.

"Surely you have a dizzying intellect." "Just wait till I get going." (Thanks Paddlers for sitting through Princess Bride.) "Navy Dress", one of the nine wives, he has his godliness from Apol'lyon. (Isn't that special.) He be conflicted say I. Because demon number two be one strolling the earth in a purgatory of not being able to exercise any authority over that stupid fuckers behaviour and demon two is not Abad'don his mate. (Aww.)

Who hast Abad'don ask you? The Russian who is going to kick some serious ass because one thing is for certain he is no faggot! Headship is the gift that matters and you only get that with obedience to Christ. The Hebrews were very close to the demons. Why? Some human needed to provide some housing for those spirit that said, "We don't like our rebellion." "Fine, there is provision." sayest God and Christ. Offspring of Abraham are valuable. America? not so much. The demons know whose land this is. Those that serve under oath giving of their life for a soldiers pay in duty to God and country have the greatest likelihood of hosting a demon that wants Christ's kingdom. mac being the gritty gal she is; is just bonus.

How about that a cubit, a mans measure that is an angels. Clearly a Revelation reference to the measure of a man and angel being the same thing. So does a woman, nigger class, and a demon. mac predicts "Jesse" will do well.

Why must thou pick on Donald Trump ask millions of followers? Because this is the nigger that gave up the heavens. He was the only contender with knowledge enough to bind Satan and her demons waging battle with mac with the Lamb.

Trump in his greed did not wait for God's lessons to understand that he was creating a black hole against creation by destroying mac who was protecting the Lamb (with Saint Paul); Earth was just bonus.
