

God Blesses President Trump

August 31, 2020

What did Jesus learn when John the Baptist Herod beheaded? That the god of the world would be born on the day the mob crucifies Jesus. Jesus learned that his first-born spirit creation with God would not repent and chose to rule over humanity.

Heads-Up

Later Judas allowed Satan to enter him. Judas betrayed Jesus on Satan's behalf. This meant God's word Jesus could only accomplish through his death with his resurrection three days after his death. Humanity was going to live a time of suffering. When Satan entered Judas, Jesus knew that was the time for his death and commanded Satan to be quicker. Judas ran off and earned his thirty pieces of silver as recorded. (Twelve was written previously for reasons mac still does not understand.)

Biding in a Sharp Ton

Biden, what the hell is wrong with you? While Jehovah torpedoes the nation with Laura you sit back and let your democrat brother march all over Washington with malcontents who seek fame hating government. You are going to protect the nation under God? Biden, Al Sharpton's neck is now under God's knee. God is not limited to the number of scoundrels seeking supremacy over God's Armed Forces that He can correct at once. Sharpton can commiserate with Jehovah.

Biden you had the opportunity to reach out to the nation and ask that arteries for supplies to hurricane evacuees not be clogged and wait on the protest in solidarity. The incumbent could not ask citizens not to protest it would have been a conflict of interest. You Biden were the one in the position to put your interests of crucifying the president aside for election and act in behalf of all Americans. Democrats and Republicans certainly agreed on bolstering markets for the economy. Biden what votes are you going to be buying when the undisputed funds for COVID are needed for Laura's victims?

A Day in Black and Blue

mac lived the death of the Watchtower mob. They certainly crawl the earth across the global data web. How nice it is not to see their litterAtua [Oops, mac's bad she meant literature.] over bus stops, public and private benches, and they are rarely seen ministering anymore. They must have figured out they were really solicitors. Because the "no soliciting" campaign in residential complexes really worked. The last ministers of a religion mac saw in public were three Latter-Day Saints women.

Why is it men get to oppose the military in America? Men earn your stripes and enter military service. Did you learn any discipline in those first two years of college? Why is it colleges have the privilege of academic accreditation above military service? Accommodating one more religion in the military, would that cost more than the contribution of those men? Would accommodating JW's be the same cost as Islam?

Why did God let "Jehovah" in the King James Bible? Because earth's king would come to reign after the four places of "Jehovah" are fulfilled. A modern reminder of what would be filling the earth and be destroyed before Christ's Kingdom arrives on earth. More on this to come.
