

Great Artemus ;)

October 18, 2021

he God contract that Trump lost. Are you itching to learn what he did to loose such a powerful existence in Christ's kingdom?

"Remember When the Ephesians Did that Shit?"

Saint Paul

The concept of a God contract is old. What is the problem? Formerly it was a god contract. The Pope got that sucker. Then of course, when that modern day "infallible" one was faced with truth he was so goddamned polluted from his own dogma that he did not have the ability to realize the gold he was reading before his very eyes. Battling antichrist was the key. Obviously Trump went after battling Righteousness, embracing antichrist, instead of destroying antichrist.

The Wharton, School?

God put mac where she needed to be for Trump to destroy Mary McRae personally and he had legal grounds to do so. He was too cheap a fucker to rent a cheap hotel-room and toss a few groceries mac's way to make it happen. Obviously, again, he wasn't allowed to rape her this time. (Incentives matter.)

Obedience is Better than Sacrifice

Hubris reigned over those thinking every error of mac's childhood under slavery to antichrist formed her character. Imagine a person who would do against their own will and abilities to survive slavery that they had no way of understanding in the first place. On the vein (you can think mineral deposit) of against one's own will, realize that mac is about the most wilful, direct dealing, open faced, specific, and forceful individual to ever walk the earth. She was also the most completely obedient slave ever to walk the earth. What a powerful God to serve as she ministers over vanquishing the enemies to Righteousness.

Governor Greg Abbott made a very expensive decision choosing to obey Trump as his god. Trump is still a shitty little god. mac is God of Christ's kingdom and she understands walking among the Ephesians.

Keeping the Prophet Alive

What was Trump's dilemma? He was constantly being prodded by God, "What can I do now to keep mac alive?" What did Trump often reply, "Give her a quarter to call someone who cares." What was mac's dilemma? Finding two-bits of change on the street. She only had Amanda Knuteson to email; what a Judas. Recall the beseeching of Paul regarding God's gift of prophecy for Christians?