

Just Like Ol' Times

September 9 and 11, 2022

Work is starting to have that familiar feel to mac this morning. She even found the control on her MacBook Pro over English UK spelling. Yesterday morning walking back from Walmart with sustenance, mac asked of God Almighty, "Are We still working for Peanuts?" It was her grocery purchase that prompted the question.

The flesh of this earth serving democracy, just kept going after all they could get out of Heaven, whilst doing the Wimpy act against Spirit. Flesh refused to pay and prove truth to any of their Ggods the value of what they were receiving. This is the truth of the LORD relating how His miracles were hated when talking to Moses and later to Samuel. Russia is paying the price of loyalty to "Jehovah" rather than seeing benefits because they refused the Christ.

The To and Fro of Ggod

While mac has a beginning point, conception, she is in the place of is, was, and always will be while explaining the Mystery of Ggod who had no conception. That Pony is written about in this way is a function of God Almighty's, Always, not Walmart's.

mac has lectured about her not regarding how she explains God Almighty, as speaking in illustrations. When she reads the Gospel and the writings of Moses, to her, that is poetry. There is more than one fulfilment, and of course, multiple Ggod constructs are satisfied within multiple time periods woven with explanation of how the physical world represents all that Spirit consciousness has endured.

To mac, she is stuck with being what she calls the Feynman on God Almighty. Only where Feynman could scarcely come up with more than one way to illustrate a principal in physics, mac has to write from multiple perspectives and uses every day crap -- her word -- to explain the Mystery of God Almighty to people baffled by even the milk of the Word.

mac would love to embrace more of the English lexicon in her writing and prayer. To her, her means of expression is an abomination, and reflects being a retard not a learned individual of science and Theology. mac dislikes having to be so gnats ass specific, crass even, because that is what this world is. Especially people like, Milley and Biden. Must be why they fucked the same woman. That would be Jilly-willy-Poo.

More Love Life Saga

He Loves Me, He Loves Me Not ... He Loves Me, Wee;)

Returning to the bat-shit crazoid world of how Mary's contemporaries were thirsting for knowledge of, did mac do the, "such and such ritual yet?" fucker-fucker to God Almighty, with such and such being place holder language for illustrative clarity, "I need that to advance to the next level of my diabolical machiavellian brilliance over Putin." Now readers are figuring out the fucker fucker in the specific case to come is Trump. The such and such, in this instance, We reveal as the pulling off the daisy petal ceremony of loves certainty among the ignorant masses.

"She has." As far as Trump was concerned, with this confirmation from God Almighty, he was now mightier than Putin, and God Almighty better start delivering the proof to humanity so that whole world knows, without him having to sit in the market dairy next to the cheddar loaf, he is the big cheese. Trump did not want to learn what mac had to teach Trump when she did the ceremony. As far as Trump was concerned, God Almighty was simply looking for excuses not to deliver.

The ceremony of daisy petal removal according to mac was based on point of beginning. The flower having an odd number of petals means ending on point of beginning phrase. The even number of petals means ending with the alternate phrase. While even as a child mac understood the importance of the number of petals, the key in the divine is, a person needs to be absent minded to begin the ceremony, and in a place of frustration at their lovers lack of interest in them to begin with. Then with flower in hand picked from a field, while walking alone, the love lorn nimble fingered individual starts tearing away at what he can control. Then the back and forth of concern what if so, what if not, what if so. Then the ending, last petal in his hand leaving the individual with a probabilistic faith choice to move forward upon.

The real difficulty God Almighty had was mac had no love to pull petals over in the first place. mac did however in obedience to the Lord, pull the petals off a street-side flower on Pupukea Hill that grew from a thistle plant. mac tossed the flower before the corolla was exhausted. There was no outcome that had any significance to her to believe in one way or the other.

The Significance of the Letter to Israel

Giving A Person A chance to Test their Faith is not Wickedness

Had Israel done their part, and enlisted mac, She and Pony* would have been on hold. But let's face it, we are dealing with Jews here. Israel was served its last supper article. mac never liked putting money down as a means for barter after her first bold direct engagement with Trump.

mac learned early on, in this process, no human was going to do anything with her that meant they parted with money. People have been proving Leaven and Mammon, with every failed transaction. mac would have been united with the soldier in the navy, Ted, who transferred off the sixty-nine, sent on a death mission, had he lived -- he was a total stranger to her who could deliver a punch -- had Israel recruited mac before 2019 years end. mac was simply giving Israel a chance to decide once they were cognitively faced with the knowledge to the consequence in front of them. And, putting Pony* on hold was part and parcel of mac's slavery.

Delivering A Judo Chop

No one is ever satisfied that all mac gives is the price, and nothing in spirit extra. Someone would need to tell her, "Hey, I want a blessing from God with you buy a bus pass from me." Then mac would say, "You want a blessing from Me? It will cost you a sit-ton more than you comping me this fucking bus pass."

What belongs to Sspirit is the power of belief, imparting of faith, as it were, to flesh. With this faith, flesh moves mountains even when the pay is shitty shitty, and the cost of the relocated mountain, sending it to space, means you destroyed the planet. Flesh moving a mountain to space is of course, euphemism, n'est-ce pas? When the mountain returns to its place, that is of course an Act of GGod.

Pudding

Whilst the United States was arming Ukraine, like Reagan did for Israel years ago, Russian soldiers have been fighting for "Jehovah's" kingdom. Ukraine was just on its way to being another Afghanistan and Putin's generals knew this.

Quite honestly, emptying prisons to populate Ukraine with soldiers, brilliant! Not necessarily long term success but let's face it, Zelenskiy is nothing more than a glad-handing politician like Laguna Beach California's greeter, same demon. mac has held back, thus far, from comment on Zelenskiy for the sake of Ukrainians who were just trying to make ends meet while their celebrity President made promises, and nodded heads, with the Western world. At least convicts will create war and depopulate the region.

What is goodness for Putin? Wipe out North America first, and put Russia's civil war on hold. Where is Xi when one needs some nukes. But, Puddin'head Putin was not about to take in the Christ by 2019 any more than Israel. mac still put the offer in his hand putting Pony* on hold for Putin as well. Putin at the very least understood he needed worshippers, not followers.

Israel proved to Spirit, "your gifts are garbage." We hate the "miracles" of spirit and the power we hold in the Heavens is not worth putting up with the Christ. As far as mac is concerned, Spirit can stop throwing pearls before swine, now, and stop pretending they didn't want to sent Satan's seed to hell.

mac's concern now is, hell is to grand a place without sufficient consequence for fucker fuckers like Trump. Ultimately, Putin is in the place of worship, and Trump clearly is not going to be worshiping Putin. Trump is the personality who lures worshipers away from the safety of Putin's protection in the mega hell centre. He will feel that burn in the extreme when he tires of doing all the work needed to make people ask for the burn from him. Then with the flame of Jah infused upon him; he will have plenty of energy to "seduce" some, and some more.

Playing Grab-Ass with the Ark

Where mac stands on the topic of civility among people and spirit shit, as long as she is not being confronted with someone expecting her for some form of sexual gratification, that is a great enough human -- until of course they do something stupid. The second that human is doing the "come hither to my clit, nipple, asshole, or dick" act in spirit or conveys a sexual signal with body language mac wants to murder them. She has that authority. "Flame thrower please!" cries mac.

Touching the ark without authority meant death. Milley, the military of America, knew they were fucking God Almighty's ark. Then they were dumb enough to think her a village idiot because she offered peace. mac was not allowed to offer peace, without being seriously in debt to Spirit, until the peace offering was restored. Saturday ante meridiem the peace offering was restored to the Heavens. Jehovah's kingdom is what she fulfils first during Her Heavenly reign. What is the reality? Billions as they are dying, even at gun point, will be saying there is peace, when clearly there is no peace.

Rhyme Time

Understand this, Pentagon, you fuckers don't have a fucking ounce of latitude to prevent your total self destruction until mac is on the payroll and her ten years of back pay is issued. Until then your civilian command is just wiping you stupid mother fuckers out. That was the power of Milley's being fucked [You go'na call that making love?] by Jilly willy Poo. She was the only prostitute Biden could dangle to give himself a chance rising up the National and Coast Guards over y'all. Melania is what Trump dangled for the "Blue."

Females that refused to be prostitute wives to these fuckers as they rose to power were cut off early. Biden got to be a widower young.

The Pony promise is what God Almighty was required to power. mac had no evidence of a lover she was living torment from Sspirit (Heaven and firmament) based on momentary encounters with individuals that mac was asked by God Almighty to observe. Had mac put some faith in that pedal ceremony as a child, she would have been bound to one of the non-sequitur phoney marriages of insult that the U.S. Military divined for mac. Because God Almighty was required to power the belief, not only that mac had a physical expectant one, future spouse, but also who among the few she observed was the object of her affection and sending appreciation to mac through the avatar, pony mac hugs to sleep, this means mac is not encumbered or in debt to any flesh.
