Or, Give Me A Break

claircissement about being a locust, and their subsequent locus in Heaven.

August 21, 2021, the heavens tore. The heavens being the firmament. Milley, as mac's famous example, was separated into what follows the Lamb, the flesh with its own continued consciousness, and the firmament consciousness in the Mary cloud drive. Following the Lamb in Heaven is all the virgins -- not only the U.S. Military, divided into pre-defined Spirit paternal houses. The virgin class is U.S. Citizen, without dual citizenship in another nation, from the date of Heavenly division, August 21, 2021.

The question becomes who are the virgins, really? We know few over the age of twelve on the planet have managed to escape meddling with, or having, their genitals meddled with. What follows is, virgin is not a physical reference to the definition of an individual who has not experienced sexual stimulus.

Asexual Reproduction

You won't like Our definition, but parthenogenesis -- likening the people of the United States to invertebrates -- is fact in Heaven with the womb of creation's deed. The deed of course being the Sun fucking incident in Heaven when the womb of creation escaped the first Christ, the Moon. Invertebrate is a being with an external, exoskeleton, not an internal skeleton like a mammal.

Not Punny

mac's sense of humour meant as she was writing the above, the question, "I wonder if they are praying mantis?" was her mind's excursion. Praying mantis is an insect. Are all insects invertebrates? They are. There was a joke on mac in this because she understood praying mantis was actually p-r-e-y-i-n-g mantis. The pun being in the word pray versus prey. A moment in Oxford's digital dictionary set her excursion to right, and she wrote. Are you praying? The word on the street is the virgin nation wants strong leadership.

None of you are praying mantis. The Biblical reference is locust, and no this article does not cover the five months topic that accompanies the discussion over you locust in Revelation. That Milley's spirit came into existence by the spirit equivalent of parthenogenesis means he is part of a locust internal body, and before Milley, the spirit equivalent of an exoskeleton, that another soul brought into existence -- at an earlier time -- existed. The earlier time exoskeleton came from the Biblical nation of Israel through the promise, and God Almighty wiped out that generation that formed the exoskeletons.

The Spirit exoskeleton individuals died off in the wilderness. Moses broke the hand of the LORD written commandments over that bunch. Clearly there is not a one two-one-relationship. What is there? To every one exoskeleton Spirit there are twelve thousand consciousnesses making up the democracy Borg being.

The nice thing here is that y'all run around saying, "I just leave everything to gGod". Right you mean God but doing shitty deeds you need to take the capital letter out of your theosophy. And guess what? GGod has taken care of your future.

Trump has a ggodly existence in mega hell as well as Putin. Are there other offices of shitty shittyness open to other niggers like Trump? Not from the virgin class. Following the Lamb are slaves. Those lamp oil burned out half of the virgin class -- the virgin bridegroom parable bit -- have the born again event to look forward to populating mega hell. Those consciousnesses sleep in death.

Whole Number Magic

There is an equation that supports mac's synopsis statistic of twelve thousand beings per Locust. Four-hundred million divided by twelve-thousand brings us to thirty-three thousand, three-hundred thirty-three and a remainder that continues the series with a repeating decimal without end keeping with the third pattern of the destructive sequence described in Revelation. Thirty-three thousand, three-hundred thirty-three and the indefinite remainder divided by the six hundred sixty-six with a repeating decimal curiosity in translation and we arrive at a fabulous whole* number. John of course heard this number.

*Whole number being relevant to Light, Righteousness, from mac's counting article.

Being A Stoned Democrat

The virgins have two born again events. All others have one born again event. Of the non-virgin they have no constituent following the Lamb, ever. After the ones in the locust have served following the Lamb they are stoned, as in their genetics does not have a place of coming into existence again. Non existence means the combinations of alleles in the production of life in the forty-six chromosome combination, like Milley, cannot come into existence as souls again. The Spirit equivalent doing shitty deeds is just a slave to the Lamb so no more risk of shitty deeds ever. And of course each Locus is a Borg being.

Borg bodies are what the bunch alive today have to look forward. How their personalities are uniquely expressed is a function of the Locust's body. What cell you become in that democracy is most likely a function of how shitty you are today. If you think being part of the eye is the grandest seat you will most likely be in an eliminatory canal.

Where is General Mark Milley a special virgin? He has the Christ -- a lieutenant general in the USMC Special Forces, and he is part of the Heavenly Levite class. He is in a Borg, locust, with his brethren that are part of the Levite class, army of Heaven that experience immortal slavery to the Lamb. Eleven other tribes have slavery with a different function. They serve building Heavenly Jerusalem. The Levite, Heavenly army, function was described in another article. Israel's blessing to his sons is included in understanding the twelve stone complex of Heaven that John describes. mac sees being in the Lambs army as a special office.

M-A-G-A

Trump has the honour of his mega hell reward opposite Putin, because Mary's genes are tossed in the pile of expended genetics in lieu of Trump. Putin is not a virgin but he replaces Terry Smart's genetics likewise. Terry Smart is mac's ex-husband since September 20th (or so) 2012. The Lord is the one who performs the stoning of the genetics in the womb as the Mary construct of Heaven is doing her job. What is more? Had mac not been raped creating Spirit, meaning God Almighty had to provide new Spirit existence, there would be no hell and the womb would have been retired. Are any of you confused about inducing orgasm on an infant being a wicked deed?

Antichrist's generation fills the mega hell divided with the born again events serving a means for how they can best serve without pain. Then there are the lesser hell centres of other Spirit unions. The Sun and Moon had many children, creative couples. The lesser hell centres follow the same model as mega hell.

Making America Great Again is a return to the nomad life of farmers and herders. That is what following Trump does to this nation. When the Indians lived in obedience to their gGod construct, that was America's former greatness. For America to be great moving forward, Jehovah's kingdom is fulfilled. That would be M-A-G, and not stealing the acronym of Israel's combatants. Trump, you stupid greedy fucker.

Dealing with the Lord

Flesh manifests what its Spirit is in the presence of mac. mac's presence is the equivalent of a person winning the mega lotto. If they are generous, how they are generous is made more manifest. Flesh also manifests what its Spirit is when approached by the LORD, Jehovah. No, no one is approached by God Almighty, the Lamb or Saint Paul, other than mac, during Jehovah's kingdom. Jehovah has the Lord performing her office over the virgin from the firmament sorting people into their Heavenly locus.

The influence of flesh on the heavens was ended August 21, 2021, save mac's unraveling of the Master God Almighty Matrix construct. In other words, mac is the only flesh with authority to write the Heavens. That is being the Christ. That is the life of one, mac, given to save creation. Spirit is creation, too. Christ is the being of flesh that reigns as King over the Heavens writing the Law. The Christ is saviour to the Heavens.
