

Your Stroke. Make it An Eagle

January 10, 2021

God's guarantee explained in the curiosity of the trunks. An Eagle is still in the offing.

Imagine watching a smouldering mesquite and wondering why the wonderful industrial creosote stench fails to overwhelm your olfactory senses. Then to top it off your eyes were not swelling shut. Of course, the cedar shrub next to it that would have sent you into anaphylaxis the second the dust hit your lungs was mercifully unaffected by this flame. The leaves were not curling-up falling-singed hitting the sand and pebbles and that rattler didn't give a rip. Regardless of that snake and the scorching heat of the desert, you decide to saddle up a little closer to that burning bush.

The Curiosity of the Trunks

God has attempted to draw mac in with such curiosities but she just cries out, "No way." "The second I let that phenomenon pass away from my peripheral vision and stare at it, you can just tease me with, 'Made you look.'" mac was in Arlington at the time and it was a cool enough afternoon for at least a T-shirt, "heaven" forbid wear a collared shirt. A reasonably fit man, with that cracking Mediterranean sex appeal, about mac's build, was lingering over his cell, wearing navy-running shorts, and sneakers. mac didn't bother to look twice.

As she passed him, in her periphery vision, God made it look like the man reached and dropped his trunks and then God asked her why she wouldn't make a double take on that. She pitched one of those fits that said, 'I don't know what fucking lesson this is about, but I'm not biting.' God pushed. Then she said, "Are you crapping me? The second I look, what I am going to see, is he is still wearing his shorts and I was just made some kind of gawking fool who wanted a peep show moment at genitals. Some other cunt can fall for that, no way, those vision stunts are measly."

"You want me to look?" continues mac, God has that head-shaking grin holding back a laugh with His hand on His jaw, "You make him drop those damn trunks to the pavement." Yep, that was the fit. It was over in about two minutes. Then Starbucks must have followed because those moments come with some tensions that need soothing and a coffee from friendly faces, even during the scourge of, don't acknowledge another human being within two yards, still offered some comfort, even if it was decaffeinated.

That Snake

Moses recorded the burning bush phenomenon. He didn't discuss the snake but that rod turned to a snake somehow and scared the shit out of Moses so obviously there was a snake near barefoot Moses and God had him drop that rod to shoo it off his toes. God had to ask Moses to pick up His rod. mac would have been running half way down the mountain yelling to God, "You pick it up." God would have had her hike back up the mountain later to get that rod and then continued His demonstration of miracles.

God's anger was kindled at Moses because Moses failed to believe that God was actually acting. mac was mad at God because she knew He was acting and man wasn't paying a lick of attention. mac's question always returns to her default inquiry, what the hell? "Why doesn't anyone else pay attention to You?" (Hear God say, that is exactly the fucking problem.)

Moses was just told by God, that he would be taught by Him what to say when words were needed. The first thing Moses did is fob the lessons onto someone else. When we refuse God's teaching, He is not happy. This translates to our forcing Him into turning us over to our own weak understandings. There is no wisdom for us to fall back on.

God is left with no way to protect us. Because we stole that thunder from Him by refusing to learn. For God's protection it means we understand that when He says, man is perfect, it means He knows a man will keep listening to Him to make His word true. Ah, to be God's prophet. The alternative is being a prophet to any number of gods. Are you thinking of the importance of the Hebrew history lessons now?

The Cortex

Teaching from God is deep and layered. While six layers of cells may not seem like much, our responding to understanding the cues God sends us means, we don't fuck up a national anthem. Taught by Him means the mapping in our brains is healed and we become circumcised from our voluntary movements being controlled by anything other than the purity of perfection and righteous judgement that is from God. Yeah, that is a man, of God, perfect. (Feel and hear God savor His truth.)

Trump Told the Truth

The thing the press failed to note was that Trump kept his word to the marchers. He, in spirit, abusing God's proprietary network, led the protestors from his quarters. Trump was honestly sending those that were listening to his plea to take America back from God. The only problem is that Biden and Obama did not take the hit for backing that action. Because you see they were on that network too. On day two when his abode was stormed by the iota dominated class of alien all Trump could do was diffuse the crowd and send them on to armed guards, ready for the assault.

The Four Hundred Year Storm Cycle

Freeing the slaves of Egypt after four-hundred thirty secular years of bondage was the first recorded four-hundred year cycle with its time to maturity parameter. God prophesied the slavery and freedom to Abram. With God's acts on Egypt, first, He was freeing His spirit creation. Second, we witnessed how hard the Israelites worked to free themselves from slavery to make His words true. We the people demonstrating faith in what we can't see when we do things we can see at God's request.

The Israelites built their evacuation route through the Red Sea to give God a means of delivering them with one hell of a blow job. Recall that wind from the east parting the Red Sea?

How does this parting happen? Simple, a chemical reaction. That heat and fumes were a caution. So the nation of people and chattels were staged up-wind. Pharaoh would have been in a toxic cloud. Mine and store particulate on the eastern shore and dump aggregate in the channel for that acid base reaction along the evacuation route wide enough to move two million and then provide a place to burry Pharaoh at the precise moment of deliverance. And do not fail to consider the rapidly rising vapor that would have fallen at precisely the right time. (Hear God say, Boom Baby!)

"T-i-i-i-i-me is On My Side. Yes it is"

To mine and stage the miracle for evacuation from slavery required a shit-ton of time. Fortunately, the Egyptians had perverted so many components of creation enslaving God's spirit creation that God only needed to remove their gods gradually for the Egyptians to be setting off the chain reactions of self-destruction once the Israelites had faithfully bled out their genetically perverted livestock in the waters of the Nile and then dumped their bodies as God asked.

Moses kept watching and listening to the men explain how far along in planning and building the evacuation route they were and with every labour the Israelites made to escape their place of slavery God could do more to evacuate the spirit slaves (demons) from the Egyptians (the bitrubamaton of the classical world.) God's agreement was, go sacrifice to me in the wilderness, return home. But a plan B was in order.

Plan B was built as a protection. If returning the Israelites to their homes would have been death, they were going to be evacuees in a place of safety from the Egyptians and Philistines moving in on their homeland from the southeast. Then Pharaoh's warriors would need to be stopped. A wall of water is not held back long when an earth damn is devastated by thundering warriors quaking the earth and yelling battle cries to scare all Israel. No reason for the Israelites to fear. A few weeks before they had finished listening to Pharaoh cry his wits out for murdering his legacy when his last god Christ exorcized from him.

If you ask, God will show you how He parts the Red Sea. (mac envisioned a great wall being built with a dragon's mouth and tail at its ends.) That sure provided a Zen world boundary. Japan, you are God's executor for taking back the holy lands to your gods that the Americans stole with their conquest of Pearl Harbour and the sacred east meets west boundary. Take it back. God is backing you.

Biden, Trump, Obama, and Clinton your administrations ended the bronze democratic rule established by Romans. You watch, as the strong hands behind the former iron curtain God raises to glory even over Israel while His enemies reclaim all of their ancestral lands. Trademarks and patents have no market value when the government that enforces them went the way of the dinosaur.

God has Given A Guarantee

The Warrant

God warrants His will was fulfilled with the birth of His woman. For Christ's and then God's Kingdom after the annihilation of sin to be born does not require even one living human being when Christ's kingdom arrives. It does require the consent of every legal stake-holding government. The United Nations, and European Union, as an example, are not stakeholders.

The arrival of Christ's kingdom means those alive during the seven weeks that choose to pursue Satan as god and stand in the way of the righteous doing God's will, will die at the hand of God's righteous.

Reading, downloading, submitting to, following instructions from, and copying all or part of macdukes.com and its subdomains content is consent by the using legal entity for God's shepherding at His chosen day and purpose. God's language includes vision, warning, signal, and feeling words these may include physiological visions. God proves the power of His ark, woman, by honouring their work together. This honour is how He protects her and includes His expression of language in the sober prayer center of the mind of the reader. There is no limit to the number of individuals who can host God.

God, backs, protects, safeguards, and promotes, all those that faithfully seek His shepherding. God teaches who He is to all His creation and directly interferes with individuals swallowing (hosting) demons. God directs individuals to the work of His prophet as serves His purpose.

Yin and Yang

The yin and yang of using divination means humans must have a means of getting rid of demons. God's rule of sixty-nine has a four hundred year life cycle. When the zeta is present the iota moves in and rapes and pillages. Iota is the demonic killer. Most obviously the serial killer, typically murdering children after rape. Another demonic killer is viral mutations manufactured in the blood and intestines of humans hosting spirit beings. A righteous person's immune system is trained by God, and saves them from these viral killers.

Your Brain on God

Hosting a demon occurs in the cerebral cortex. Hence the importance of God's circumcision covenant for males only. The demon influences and feeds the sin in the blood and receives prayers from the hosts heart connected through God's spirit consciousness network. Humans hosting a demon are aliens. Demon hosting individuals, aliens, are classified by God as the bitrubamatons (BI-trub-ama-TON) kingdom. This kingdom moniker, owes itself to its modern filthy-rich-Protestant namesakes Biden, Trump, Obama, and Clinton. These zeta demon hosts owe their godly strength to the backs of the iota owners. Communication between human host and demon, and communication to fellow demon swallows, is conducted across God's proprietary spirit consciousness network.

The Aside

An aside to the guarantee, sinning against God is using the demon network. This has been more violated by these four namesake American leaders than any other individuals in human history. These four men receive the honour because Kennedy is not worth a mention for her profane endeavours spear-heading murdering mac Dukes using God's proprietary spirit consciousness network. These four males concealed themselves as one flesh under Biden during numerous conferences with God and mac as They entreated these males to stop worshiping demons for their power, raping the Christ, and destroying the nation under God. You see, there are honest men in the United States military that God is protecting because these men are fighting to learn from God and follow Him. While these men do not have a perfect understanding of God, He does not forsake the covenant of their dog tags and the sacrifice these men make of their lives for the nation that rose to power using gods under God.

Viral Killers

The perversions of bitrubamatons includes manufacture and transmission of viral killers influenced between recipients by the demon in their cerebral cortex. God experiences what His creation experiences. A human is experiencing the sexual communication center of a spirit being that God developed for spirit beings to communicate with the physical heavenly body God created for them. A human is profaning God and creation by uniting themselves with these gods. Satan is the demon kingdom classification name and males and females unite themselves with Satanism to become their own god against God making them an alien and bitrubamatons.

The Assumption

mac Dukes assumes every reader is seeking righteousness and honestly seeks to be led by God. Her knowledge is the counter offensive from God against those that use the profane numerology and moral dust of Protestantism and worse worship the Christ as God. mac Dukes' writing includes God's Word against the protestants of the U.K. (extended) and United States who stole God's work to threaten and bully imperialism with commercial gluttony (corporate globalism) and extend a welcome mat for every demonic spirit under the sun. The four-hundred year cycle has met its maturity. A demon cried out to God to bring righteousness.

The Global Hail

Only one demon of a bitrubamaton needs to cry out against the perversion of humanity under God's law for God to send His prophet. Ten righteous aliens would have needed to exist for God to spare the Christ's ride against all these sinners, aliens. A Righteous alien is one who when hailed by God chose to do God's will and be led by Him as Abram. Only one righteous alien existed when God called every alien in existence to be led by Him. He started hailing them November 19, 1970. An individual's rage against the Christ is what makes them destroy their own legacy when their god has been removed from them. This rage is why Pharaoh famously murdered his own first born flesh and blood. Mac Dukes is executor of God's provision to prevent an individual from destroying their own legacy.

Make it An Eagle

Not much more beauty exists than watching the moonrise over the river while the flag on the green glints from the last breath of twilight aromatic with jasmine. The wild grasses rustle from a favourable breath of air and one blow with impeccable timing; an extra ten yards of carry is picked in Mac's tee shot. Oh, that is a lip-smacking Cheshire cat grin of satisfaction as the ball drops. It's a par five so counting a birdie is not a good idea. Even if it lands on Mac's shoulder. The fairway is a pleasant walk, even on the eighteenth hole, after a favourable first blow.

Under e-s-c-a-p-e certification a nation's civilians God saves from extermination. Under forty-two in your domain a nation's military God saves from extermination. Hosting saves both. Individuals can save their own households with God's shepherding. It is at God's discretion whether or not an individual's legacy is allowed to outlive them when the Christ exorcizes their god(s). The Zen knowledge base unleashed technology that is impoverishing billions while a few profit from knowledge they did not work to understand. They also used technology that violated the Christ. God does not count the violations against Him. He counts the violations against others.

With God's shepherding the changes you need to make to your personal habits for survival you easily achieve. Unfortunately, the Protestant world and much of the Catholic community chose a demonic god for salvation all their own. At this time, God's projection is that only 20% of the workforce population and 25% of all other population groups in the U.K. (extended) and United States will survive the present scourge of Solomon's consequences. No, this is not a Bayesian statistic. Recall, it is God who installs governments and leaders. You will find that in Daniel. Even with two hundred more yards ahead, a good fairway blow, and a chip in is Eagle. God has His presidents.
