

The Miracle of the Tok

July 10, 2021

Human space graphical representation of doing the right thing. Ggod's interaction with humanity on the Venn. How belief systems evolve our physical environment since Satan became god of the world.

Being Somebody

Have you ever tried to call yourself an architect? If you are not a member of A.I.A. guess what? That title you may not use. Not only that, but if, you are doing the work of an architect without membership you can be sued out of professional practice. Does that anger God? Hell no. Respect those professional associations. This is why false prophets get the death sentence. If you are doing the work of an architect you are called and architect. If you do not qualify for professional association you do not get to be an architect. This is why the niggardly person is the nigger. The person who acts shitty is shitty. Stop acting shitty and you are not a shitty person.

Being Dust

Humans have awareness. Luther, as in Martin (not MLK) went after Apol'lyon and Abad'don. Protestantism is the faith hell unleashed on humanity. Catholicism was holding its demon ground with Satan as god of the world. What did Catholicism have? Some damn good dust with its willingness to hold onto Holy things and define Godliness. This did not serve Satan.

The human was paying attention to all the physical needs of being human and attempting to end wickedness. Were people starving? We need to feed them says the church. Did people need love? Marriage will be Holy maintained the church. God supported symbols of Holiness for all the preserving of righteous reasons humanity could reason. The problem? Satan was god of the world. Humanity had lost the Christ. Now humanity has the Christ.

Being Born Again

What did religion hold out for in its belief system? We need a saviour. What did the worst of the Protestants, the Jehovah's Witnesses, want humanity to believe? You will never see the Christ. You stupid mother fuckers. This alienation from the Christ is why Jehovah's Witnesses have no ability to acknowledge the legitimacy of what mac is doing. There is no room for these people in Christ's kingdom. These are people with corrupted hearts not retained in God's memory for resurrection. They can try their chances at being born again.

Being Wrong

What mac needed to learn is how the promise of life from God holds with individuals born with corrupted hearts. She honestly understood all humanity would learn righteousness because no one would see utility in following Satan. Death was an easy way out for the wicked. To her the only fitting end for the wicked was they had no choice but to learn righteousness because the consequence of wickedness was too severe and death was not an option.

Being Eternal

Those born of Spirit from Satan's famous womb escape fucking God have eternity. They also have hell. Yes, Dog Paddle will be clarified in the weeks to come. Sin is why humans have death.

Human belief maps to genetics. A corrupted heart owned a demon at conception. The mapped demon went with the gametes of their parents. What is demonstrated now that God has His throne and Christ is mac's "demon" is how an individual listens to Ggod. A person will fall into the puke orange, refuse God's shepherding, or be purple, and accept God's shepherding, to the Christ.

Being Repentant

All humanity has a choice to tap into their mind for direction with God and push out their premonition, sensation of what to believe, and learn from God what they need to do to make Christ's kingdom their first priority. Then of course, all the other things are added to that individuals life. mac is the individual God needed to reach humanity. For humanity to have the Christ, mac needed to choose the righteous fight. She was free to choose god or God as her master. She hated god. You niggers must love your demons for all the gifts of wealth you enjoy. What mac learned was god was cruel at best and drove her to suicide attempts at worst.

mac would do anything to get away from god. Throw out every possession afraid she had united herself with a demon. (She did not know she owned Earth.) Even die to be away from god. That is being Ggods slave and learning how wicked evil is. All mac can fathom writing this paragraph is that every reader is laughing their ass off at the torment mac has lived from Ggod. "Who the fuck was she to get God?" asks Oprah. Eve's reborn genetics you horrid nigger. You want life? Repent! You stupid mother fuckers assumed God hated the ugly girl.

Being Saved

Abraham had already made provision for his seed to follow Christ. Once Christ was resurrected to the heavens it all rode on mac going forward whether it would be God's or god's kingdom she and her seed belong to. Guess what, Trump? You are not mac's seed. mac was free to choose her Ggod. Ya'll are. What did you stupid niggers fail to pay attention to? God loved mac. He was not loosing her to god. God controls all correspondence her way. He always will. This means mac's seed (most have yet to be born) rejoice that God is leading them to the Christ.

And you, Obama, thought extortion was going to bring Christ's kingdom in your name. You ugly nigger. (Hear Christ affirm, "These words are apples of gold in silver carvings.")

Being Balanced

When God created humanity the genetics that came into existence if sin occurred had to be fair to all creation. The faith system supported by God from the Tree of Knowledge in the garden of Eden is why evolution exists. It is also why Satan's seed have a seat in hell. Righteousness for righteousness sake is not in them. That is what mac mistook every human being of being capable of learning. God's creation from his womb that repent have life. Those that don't have death. The wise are figuring out that God's fallen creation flocked to Abraham's seed. Satan's?

What did mac accomplish? Getting the Christ to humanity. mac didn't have a place prepared by God. The Christ had that once resurrected. What did mac do? Cried out in the wilderness offering peace to announce Christ's kingdom. What does she hate? Spirit crap in the material world. What does her belief system map to? Making Christ's kingdom a reality. (Hear God say, "Boom Baby.") This article is the sum total of credit you niggers are getting for working your hearts and guts out to map mac to one of you shitty little gods. Trump you wanted to know mac's currency. It's currency you eejit. You are sorry you didn't deposit that check now, aren't you?
