

Northern Swirly. Goodbye to Biden

February 23, 2021

Febbruary 21, 2021 midnight, Mary McRae, obedient to Jehovah, proved who her children were making three attempts on mac's life in the night. Unless the Christ resurrected you, everyone alive today born before 1981 is dead. This is the generation that dies off before Christ's kingdom is enthroned on earth. Fasting in obedience to God to save your own life by means of the Christ is the provision Moses could not give Israel. mac does. Joe Biden is the idol for Jehovah. The office of President of the United States is powerless. Stay tuned for more on the consequences of the Philistines incarcerating God's ark. Sneak peak in Samuel.

Thanks to Disney, "I come in peace." is a fucking joke. Thank's Buzz'd on light beer for that. But there among U.S. strongholds mac was clearly declaring her favourite superpower and offering to the whole fucking world, peace. About a year, (did you count the days?) mac posted her World Peace Consultant for the True God title that God demonstrated speaking to everyone of you in range. Yet, you fuckers sent your corporate emissaries to fuck her. Confuckcious say, "You have her confused with Oriental medicine witch who send couple out under Northern Lights for fucking prosperity in 'marriage'". Ralph Lauren and Levi do you like you porridge? Stop making stretch pants for males.

Recall Joshua was told, you offer peace and if refused you make war. Right. Read Joshua. Note the LORD meeting with Joshua, the team half who experienced death, could present himself to Joshua as his vanguard against Jericho. They carried the ark into battle too. Recall the terror against those at war against God's people?

U.S. you absolutely refused to build God a golden ark. You let Spielberg build that and then let people marvel at cloning's future. It is not so marvellous when its COVID is it? No COVID is not one of Daniel's four beasts. This disease only a covenant with God would mend. Then you wrote your own script and learned that the second of four super-powers of God's ark is, priests give up their own gods to mac. You fuckers were thrilled that the ark was human. Not precious like metal. Surely you could kill a human. Oops. You refused to see that her covenant with God is what saved her life.

You build symbols and prove false to the power you want them to possess. Power to possessions means possessions have a righteous purpose. That means these utensils belong to God. It means you can only use them as He permits. Don't get carried away with thinking that mac's power as a faithful prophet is tied up with the ark business. Her ark properties are discreet functions of her existence. She had to learn what these were herself. It is why total raping scumbags fucked her and she learned to hold her liquor. The honest-enough male, though a coward, knew he had to marry her first and he wouldn't even pay her a complement before turning to the booby-petite-blue-eyed blond at the bar anxious to give "it" up for access to his wallet.

While there is a light by mac's office front door it is wasteful to run it when no occupants are using it. The key is an invitation from God. And the doormat does read "WELCOME." Write her with the Gregorian calendar day and her local time of your in-person appointment and she will keep office hours for your benefit. Israel is her next move.

The fourth power is how God cares for the one caring for His ark. mac took it upon herself to see she was responsible for providing for her own needs and she refused to put others in the place of being treated by God the way she was being treated. Another law of God that holds, you don't entice a person to steal. Never seize on the weakness of others. Face them head on where they stand giving them the greatest chance of defending themselves.

North America and extended United Kingdom you now are receiving from God the added experience for how you have blocked His ark from providing for her own needs. The only means you people gave God to care for His ark with is starvation. Obviously God's woman is NOT your king.
