

The Thinnin' Plot of Nueces Thugs

October 21 and 25, 2021

The Corpus Christi Police Department sends its poster child fornicating assassins to "convince" mac there was no hate crime. (You stupid mother fuckers just upped the pot on crazy, again.) And other antichrist worshipping behaviours defined.

Right-now a Buckley guide to writing and literacy, akin to Ehrlich's dictionary for the highly literate would tickle mac. She has found some treasure at Half-Price Books and is looking forward to replacing more of her library that Mary McRae gleefully destroyed establishing more ways knowledge is applied to perversion against Christ. mac does not think of herself as highly literate. She is not allowed to write the first posting of any Herald article as much more than a diary entry. The officers of the Corpus Christi police department that stormed Dody Street (September 2nd ish) showering it with surveillance thought mac's library was a waste of space.

God, as Editor and Chief, often refuses to allow mac to make edits she is certain she should look up. He uses the sticking points of what mac has written, those that make her stretch her head aside from her work, staring at it like its an alien, whilst itching to grab a dictionary or writer's guide, to dig at certain readers and entice something other than the use of Google translate for Russian readers (especially the tweens.) mac revisits her writing as permitted by God.

The dynamic of the world stage is simple. Putin like Biden is placing the military in a place of humiliation. Why humiliate God's servants? Because God's servants are under His direction. What are Putin and Biden aiming for? Disband the military extinguishing their funding as if they serve no purpose the earth over. "We are at peace." says Biden. "I have the KGB." says Putin. "Without the military the Christ cannot challenge us." say Biden and Putin.

Trump actually imagines he will be the one who rises up against mac to destroy the government built under Christ. (Trump is an idiot. Trump is only a shitty little god. It is having antichrist in your care that makes it possible to fight Christ.) None of you united whilst you could. This is the only way your domestic police force, fighters for mammon, stand a chance.

The nation that claims antichrist as their god can fight Christ. The Taliban is as welcome to come for antichrist as Biden. This directive is a matter of national record. Care for antichrist as you do for your own soul. If you sleep in a cave so does she. If you sleep in the Whitehouse so does she. Bear in mind, Charles "Butchy" Van Artsdalen was not Mary's first murder. mac observed how she pulled it off for six months. Then, on a late elementary school night, mac sat in the backseat as Mary drove him home with his lethal dose. Mary didn't need him as a business partner in picture framing anymore.

Putin, in theory, [Practice requires the actions of your soul!] you can enter Christ's school for Righteous warfare to hold Russia in your grasp again and expand your domain. Because of refusing Christ (you are not alone Biden did the same thing) the nation you seized, against all competition, using Mary's godly power, is folding.

Putin and Biden are using God's national military forces to be fall-guys to one another. Basically turning God's servants into pussies so the world's population sees no use for them anymore. As far as strategy is concerned you two fuckers are fired.

Mary McRae was built by Satan as god for humanity because God's woman would be through her. Once God's woman was born the demons hosted within souls of Mary's generation (the baby boomers that dreamed up the Haight and Ashbury love fest and needed the medical miracle pot, at a minimum, to get through Nam (your parents and recruiter certainly didn't understand)) had Mary to connect themselves to one another building Satan's identity so Jehovah would have a kingdom. How Mary's existence works is like a cloud drive. (No God is not protecting cloud computing.)

What makes Trump (with Mefucka) so damned special is their reasoning on problems perfectly align with the way Satan reasons and argues against Christ. Trump could battle mac with Christ. He was qualified with knowledge of both; Satan, understanding antichrist, and because of mac's work Trump demanded God's power as well because he learned who God was. mac, would not take power from antichrist to save even her own life.

What does God have to give mac? All of Mary's power. What did mac with Christ establish first? Wicked gains would be erased first. What is the rule on Mary's power? it is for Team God to accomplish Righteousness.
