

Putting it Back

August 1, 7, September 21, and 25, 2022

Man works from sun to sun, but a woman's work is never done. The question is, just who are you fucking women working for? Because, the planet, the Heavens was slated for destruction, by your force against the Heavens bitch, and destroying the planet is not allowed.

mac, the Christ, works eleven productive billable hours a day in God Almighty's service. She is twenty-four-seven bride to the Lamb. Ten hours of each twenty-four-hour period mac has as discretionary time. Her discretionary time includes sleep. God Almighty informs mac's sleep. Meaning, she is working when she is sleeping, too. In short, she works an eighty hour secular week.

mac's discretionary time she may shut out the lives of others, as in, be alone, in private. What is mac doing? Keeping the planet afloat. If you want to call her Atlas, you knock yourself out. Her Entscheidungsproblem is working from the resulting grains showered off the firmament from the millstone you heart praying, amoral, women threw at the Heavens demanding you be forced to the the good work, or else. What We at Team God say is, "Or else what punks?"

Benny and the Jets

You fuckers always thought you were going to get forced to do good once you built a scheme so vile that only Ggod's force would make righteousness happen. Satan was not about to force you to do good whilst god of the world, and that rule held when mac was born and God Almighty was identified in the Heavens. Had you been forced to do that good deed by Ggod's hand the Lamb's office would have been yours for corrupting. Right, sure, a correction. Replace "for corrupting" with "to hold". But you fuckers are vile. You holding the Lamb's office even as a democracy would have meant the destruction of the Heavens. So the sentence stands with "for corrupting."

Forced to good against your extortion schemes would mean the Lamb was invalidated. Here is the thing you failed to realize, those that love righteousness, like Noah, who built an ark to save creation for the Ggod's, and then endured the reality of Ham's corruption and moved on, will take hits, as in walk through hell with a smile on their face. Adam took a hit in Eden, too. Sampson also took a hit. So did Saul before becoming coronated as Biblical Israel's first king. Jesus too endured. So did John the Baptist, and Saint Paul. People that love Righteousness will endure what is really shitty to make the righteous end the reality and they will even sacrifice their life for it.

Writing to the niggers, Obama, Winfrey, Sharpton, and Woods, guess what, God Almighty had a life boat. What there was walking the earth was the slave, [Slavery was a function of Satan's demand of Eve in Eden. That is why mac, Eve's genetics, was allowed to be born.] who was forced to eat whatever shit in what ever package it was served her so your extortion to do good, as in your being forced to do good, did not need to transpire. What mac's obedience throughout her life was was the living trust preserving the Lamb's Heavenly office. The filth you formed under the, "We are going to build something so vile there is no choice but to slay the Lamb for Us" plan, have built a legacy of flesh congeries.

You fuckers messed with the wrong Marine when you decided to play chess with God Almighty building your pyramid scheme of power to be the biggest asshole. Obama, God Almighty craps bigger than you. Winfrey, you are nothing more than a booger. Sharpton you are ear wax. And, woods you are not significant enough for mention beyond being listed with the three other niggers.

Woods was a sloppy whore peddling drugs and prostitution with a smile under the American golf label. Woods is Satan's genetics, and Satan refused to power a being as useless and easily leveraged by cheep pussy, and a snort of blow. Putin proved worthy of greater honour in his willingness to understand Proverbial wisdom. Every property with the PGA brand will be repurposed under Heavenly forces. Dump your PGA pros from the premisses Armed Forces of America and that is an order.

I'm Still Standing

mac endured poisoning from her own mother, Mary McRae, over a period of months beginning November 2021 while exposing the corruption of the Corpus Christi Police Department against national security. The police, favouring alliance building with Mexico -- that is treason, even at present -- were desperate for mac to drop dead. What is Team God doing? Wiping out Mexico as a nation with all fellow congener through Panama.

What is more mac established the Holy Warfare Campaigns including urban engagement for Pentagon training. She also won the rights to establishing Jehovah's kingdom on earth.

Rocket Man

mac's Kingdom, as Christ, was established August 21, 2021 in the Heavens with mac as King. Jehovah's kingdom, Spirit, through the firmament, are establishing on the earth within mac's Heavenly Kingdom authority period. This is the truth of, May God be found true though every man is a liar. In the case of the virgin it is in reverse. Flesh is training Spirit. This is why soldiers have advantage. They have the Christ, mac, directing how their Spirit wins in the Heavens listening to Jehovah and with Heavenly gains their corresponding souls conquer on the earth. The civilians working in the Department of Defense have Mary McRae as their priestess, poltergeist soul, and that wanton is doing plenty to give the Christ every advantage in warfare. Lloyd Austin, you had better find a way to care for that murderer.

It is by means of Jehovah's kingdom that the niggers, in the Biblical sense, are being put in the place of forced to fulfil their promises they forced their own Spirit to make to God Almighty. This is done across humans exploiting the desire of one person to gain over another. Obama made the promise to Spirit that he would rid the nation of homelessness. Trump will be instrumental with Sharpton unleashing mayhem in this nation accomplishing what Obama would not honour. It is by mac's Holy warfare, America's first impending fifty year civil war, that homelessness is eliminated and North America is unified. In the second stretch of warfare women are eliminated from Ggod's Land.

Jehovah's kingdom establishment is a one hundred and twenty year milestone and the population of the earth will be approximately half a billion in total when his kingdom is fulfilled. There is a transition period when it is demonstrated to Spirit that Jehovah has been found True and Satan's reign, as king, in the Abyss, firmament, is established. The Lord takes a harem in the firmament during this time.
