

For Whom the Ring Tolls

he cost of admission to end fornication. How to assess ones needs and ask God for their convenient fulfiller in matrimony if single.

How does a masculine male know whether or not he would enjoy female genitals in sexual fulfilment of his being, if in his life he never encountered a feminine female? A thought experiment. mac walks about horrified at how people dress.

Dress is an expression of masculine or feminine. mac is extremely feminine. Christ will attest to this. That feminine nature of hers God counts on to rile her up in anger over some fucker. This generally earns His open mouth hand in jaw expression of admiration for her genuine nature and joy that she is getting the point. mac is just pissed. mac was raised by her mother and grandmother to be masculine.

Advertising genitals with dress is the mark of a nigger.

What about colour? glamour? panache? presentation of physique? or rugged expression of endurance, pressed, and ready to leap over tall buildings without wearing tights and a cape? Who the fuck made a super hero a nigger? Right, he is dead. He lived to glimpse better than the reality of his Wonder Woman hit the world stage. "Stan Lee" didn't like the looming Saint Paul.

Are you a male who wonders, how would I even know if a female would be a satisfying marital partner? If the form of female presented nude is arousing, there is your clue that female could do it for you. What is the problem? Where does that nude image become porn as opposed to thought provocative art? At what age should an individual be experiencing nudity? If you think of your married parents sexuality as gross, here is your clue, you have not reached sexual maturity. Needless to say for the immature, looking at a nude in a fine art museum isn't going to help you understand anything more than the Playboy articles.

Face it, mac writes hotter reality than Playboy ever dreamed of. And God is healing humanity with her hot head.

Returning to your parents sexuality. Understanding sexual expression as a need in matrimony is righteousness. Provided you think every unmarried person, other than yourself, having that joy saying that is gross, great. Stay away from porn. If your parents are gross because they are married, you belong with Satan.

God knows what you were exposed to and when. He also knows, when what you saw when, influenced your actions. mac looks at the famous David and tears it to pieces with criticism. The challenge with images is that idolatry goes with the territory. The artist had a prayer of heart drawing, photographing, or sculpting the object for the observer to notice, you guessed it, nipples, clit, and dick. The object added their own prayers of heart providing the template for idolatry in the first place.

Is it best to avoid the nudes? Yep. Can you? Not likely. These even in text book plates need to be discussed with God in prayer to protect yourself from having the idolatry of another forced on you to form your sexuality. Recall how National Geographic became a hit?

Is it possible to see even a candid presentation of only a persons face and say, "This is mine?"
Yep.
