

The Soultion

What the soul sees in twinkle twinkle and the purgatory of powerlessness.

While conversing with a neighbour, stopping for a visit during mac's garage sale, mac learned a new psalm.

There are a few people that if I passed them on the road and saw them on fire, I wouldn't stop to piss him out.

The neighbour, "Reverend Tok Pisin" regretted in jocular voice his inability to simply turn the other cheek and be a good Samaritan. He was acknowledging he was a sinner, wink-wink nod-nod. How does tour guide Barbie reply? "I know that person. All I can do is flip him off, but not like this, like this." Obvious hand gesture shifted ninety degrees from vertical to horizontal. "How did God's prophet handle king Asa that Saul sparred?" (Because mac could not resist this ordained audience.) "He had to walk in, in view of everyone in audience, and hack Asa to death. We can't do that now. The law does not allow anything like that. But can you imagine how wicked Asa was to his people that God's justice meant hacking him to death ended God's rage against Saul for sparring him?"

The Terrible Twitch

Can you imagine standing in front of tour guide Barbie and relating a favourite psalm to listen to her reply? And then in a few sentences, being reminded of how God's judgements against the wicked are accomplished and to top it off, we are powerless to end wickedness against righteousness in America?

mac continued when she saw "Reverend Tok Pisin" flinching from eye teeth to groin like the twitch muscles on an ungulate, "Of course doing those things I have no ambition to do to anyone. It is against the law. But the sentiment of not willing to piss someone out if they were on fire, I get it. Brilliant!"

"Reverend Tok Pisin" started laughing and promising mac that he would stop for morning coffee in the garden. She was an interesting person to talk to and his wife did not like him talking to her about his crazy stuff. mac added she was looking for used chess pieces so it was possible to just relax and enjoy an outdoor game, in the open. His word to describe mac was "intriguing."

More than Music

The high priest with God's ark is the obvious illustration of the Levite brotherhood ministering to Israel's tribes of warfare with God's ark in battle. Those Levites sure held strong voice singing future gospel of Christ's coming for certain.

Why is there warfare? The twinkle twinkle is the god the soul went after worshipping that puts them in the place of certainty they are worshipping God when they prostitute themselves. The demon may or may not be in a hot body. Just an opulently fat one. Might the demon dislike that the soul is fat or thin? Yep.

Is this fair to the soul? fuck no, hence, the provision of Christ's kingdom. That corruption of the soul's genetics in Christ's kingdom means they are not bound to a demon. That is exorcism. When Satan earned god of the world for everyone those born with corrupted hearts needed provision. Then the soul has a choice of mapping themselves to a demon or not. With Christ the demon or soul may go after the Twinkle Twinkle of the North Star. The gift if the North Star is circumcision of the heart.
