

holy war the Oxymoron

November 15, 2021

Religion is not holy. The power of the ten commandments. mac's declaration of war. We call it Christ's kingdom. It's really mac's kingdom because god lost it all.

Would God or god be the deity? This is the same question Shakespeare asked with, "To be or not to be, that is the question." Trump had one job to do for Satan, prove Satan was the better god. Who did Trump need to prove he was god to? mac.

God was angry at mac back in late June of 2020. He finally approached her with severe countenance, not to be confused with fear of the LORD, [That is a different awareness in one's entire being.] "Don't sugar coat me." God scolded mac. mac cried out at a hotel bathroom vanity while trying to care for her deteriorated body wearing hysterical tears and choking in mucoid secretions, "What am I supposed to do? Why would anyone want to worship a God as mean as you." mac needed to learn how to deliver God's message against humanity. The time to offer peace was over.

God replied back to mac, "Sweet Pea" and mac's tears gave way to understanding she was writing discipline, love, out of God's supreme being. She was turning Him into a Milquetoast. mac always knew God as an exogenous being to her.

God needed to teach mac Christ was whose gut instinct ("demon") that moved her away from what antichrist, her mother, had polluted during her slavery. Then that other individuals offer hear their own voice, thoughts, when their god is speaking to them.

Trump, in teaching mac he was god, starved her and made her homeless. mac knew the covenant she made with God was keeping her alive because it was all He had to give. She found reasons to praise God and offer peace while being starved to death by Trump.

mac refused to worship god. Trump lost everything to God, mac.

What had God Almighty done? Let it ride. mac decided whether god or God was the deity.

A fisherman brand is Dirty Hooker. Funny sleaze bag. Try this on for size. mac is a deep hooker. This is with the description of God setting the hook deep in the monsters mouth and drawing him out. You will find that in your Holy Bibles. There are times when letting the enemy in close is simply how power is maximised. If you have one grenade and need to eliminate the enemy hug him while ripping the cord. Grizzly? Gruesome? Ghoulish?

There needs to be a moment of silence here for the soldiers who executed their duty in just this fashion. The one for whom the silence is given is who receives recognition with honor and posthumous awards.

The engineer in mac looks at the worst case scenario, [There is a fancy word for that fer sure.] when considering actionable outcomes. Then she does everything she can to avoid that worst case calamity, interaction, or outcome fully prepared to enter the worst case outcome knowing God Almighty has her back. If she experiences the worst case outcome it is because God Almighty is destroying the enemy. Otherwise the enemy(s) are simply mac's king Asa's to deal with.

After mac fought some qngmic monsters of the greater Austin Texas area she actually understood she needed witness protection. The F.B.I. had been tracking her since her 2017 letter (included for readers to enjoy) to Jay Monahan of the PGA copying the LPGA and the USGA. They tracked her, watching for her dead body to surface. June of 2019 was the soonest God could move mac to safety. She actually thought at one time she would be committed to a mental institution for her communication with God and that would save her life.

Re: Stop bullying in golf.

Dear Jay Monahan

I want bullying in golf stopped! I am appealing to you, who foster the industry; improve the industry. Golf club members; hunt, ridicule, mock, belittle, scoff, and harass women golfers in Texas. Texas laws are liberal (lacking) in terms of protection from gangs, bullies, and thugs who threaten without proof of physical contact. In the last year I have been bullied by three men. Once at a coed, included a minor, clinic then on the the grounds of my own club over a period of two months.

The first man I coerced an apology from after making a deal with the city attorney. In the weeks of dealing with the general manager who refused to do anything I sought to sue municipalities in Texas that own golf courses for promulgating a golf culture that hates women. If I received an apology, I would not sue. The apology was delivered in writing within a day of my deal.

The last incident involved two men that hunted me at my own club this past winter. They are a bully and a toady. (In Texas if one or both of them rape me, I can sue - whoopee). In this case the resolution I want is for those men to never be allowed to be together at my club socially or play on the same hole at the same time. If they play at tee times separating them by four or more holes, fine. My resolution is; break up the gang. The two together pose a threat. They shouldn't live the reward of golfing together after getting off scot-free bullying me.

I have written documentation of all of the events listed and am willing to appear in court to defend my veracity. I have two propositions for ending bullying in golf. General managers need to be trained in dispute resolution between members for early solutions to end hostilities. Finally, I want ALL golf club members, nationally, (myself included) to be required to attend six hours of group clinic a year learning how to speak to one another men and women, homo and hetero sexual, and to speak to children. Include in the class, pace of play, cart etiquette, and how to share the love of the game as well as local course rules. Group clinics are great for team building.

Perhaps suggesting dispute resolution for general managers seems ridiculous. In my case the solution both times was for me to go away. Wow! The bully is the customer you want? When golf becomes populated with the lowest common denominator of society or men who are above being corrected for doing wrong, what is the longevity of the industry?

Had only one of the ten commandments been followed no disastrous calamities against Earth would have occurred. The PGA making a televised announcement of America's fair play as a democracy does not save your asses. Democracy proved its case for god.

This epistle, holy War the Oxymoron, to y'all is mac's declaration of war. mac, God, is now at war with the enemy. God's balanced scales are in play. The oil and wine are not harmed. This is Holy Warfare. God is waging it.
