

I-o-v-e-LINK

July 4, 2021

Becoming families in union with the LORD, husbands employ Godly psychic powers to save your family.

I-o-v-e-LINK first and foremost is an act of worship to God in unison with Righteousness, the Christ. It is prayer to God under the commandment honour your father and mother that your days will be long in the land God gives you. I-o-v-e-LINK includes the Christ in dialogue once God has led an individual into Christ's body, Christ's congregation. This means by definition you are a Christian. God is always addressed as ITZA, Almighty, God, true God, and Father. The Christ is never addressed in prayer.

Before He Cheats

The duty for the head of household, husband in the husband and wife union, is fasting bringing the bridegroom to the feast. It is Christ who offers your prayer of thanksgiving to God for your meals when you are in his congregation. Weekly fasting is a sabbath discipline that the household exercises to bring the Christ. The husband performs two-week interval fasting, in obedience to God during shepherding while removing fornication from the home. Rituals of heart and habits formed from premonition are eradicated over time as a husband employs discipline to care for his family. Once the Christ has joined your family as head, the weekly discipline of fasting is moved to the sixth day.

Chicken Fried

During dialogue with God throughout each day an individual is mindful of the Christ by answering God and speaking to God through the mind including the phrases, "In Jesus name I am listening" and "In Jesus name I ask." This is acknowledgement of the Christ as son of man and our own imperfection with sin in the blood separating us from God in the first place. This is not a mad-lib. This is a script for dialogue with God in righteousness for living, well.

When thinking of your family, or the individual you are dating because you are building a family unit, simply let God know, “ITZA, in Jesus name I love you.” We are human. God is not. And the Christ was. Humans have one another to fulfil our physical, emotional, and mental needs with. Growing to maturity includes fulfilling oneself in a physical relationship. If this fulfilment is with yourself, oops. If it is with, animals, vegetation, contrivances, food, self-fulfilment through work or exercise these are placeholder activities that God can improve your development with as you build your household. When you share the I love you phrase with God He keeps your family connected to you and Him. This includes the one you are dating.

Why not simply coo and say to God, “I love my ____.” You can. This is part of dialogue and discussion about your feelings as a person. Love is the state of being that perfects our mental, physical, and emotional wellbeing. We, as humans, have no way to find fulfilment loving God without physical fulfilment and realisation of reward for our obedience to Him.

When an individual is single they will most likely play extra rounds of golf, spend more time at the gym, and enjoy learning to cook bachelor rice and beans casserole. The casserole might have a canned meat in it as well. God will keep you distracted and out of fornications way. He will coax out of you your sex semaphore list and move you about to finding your love at first sight, “I am going to make that person my spouse” covenant fulfiller of commandment number seven. God does not want anyone to be single. He also will not allow an individual to have their personal boundaries violated. Your boundaries might tighten or loosen with regards how you would fulfil your spouse. If this changes in marriage it is because both you and your spouse unanimously adjusted in joy of worship. God will teach you how you find pleasure expressing physical language of sexual fulfilment with one another in Jesus name.

Wedding Song (There is Love)

I-o-v-e-LINK is how God shepherds each individual. Think of this as your existence fingerprint. “ITZA, in Jesus name, ____” insert in the blank, I want to speak to my spouse or child about... This can be urgent. Please is always nice. This is not exactly a phone call. God will keep you in dialogue on the topic and relay what is needed for your family members to and from you and use your topic to improve your entire family starting with you first. This will not always be realtime conversation.

Each family member learns through prayer to God what He shares at the right time to shepherd the entire household to Christ’s body.

Amazing Grace

Blasphemy is not possible with Christ.

Fly Me to the Moon

For sexual relations the spouses must be in a place of privacy and security for the sexual act they are enjoying. He might be in a shower and she is home in bed thousands of miles away. In realtime you are brought together to enjoy relations. Each of you are to physically participate in stimulating your own genitals for the satisfaction and pleasure of your spouse. This is masturbation. (Have condoms handy.) During arousal and orgasm it is the mental focus of pleasing and engaging your spouse that leads to your own pleasure.

When Christ is in the union with God, seed is not spilled.

God Bless America

GodLINK is for command. Are you accountable as a chief over others obedient to God with death in warfare as an option? Keep in active dialogue with God in planning and executing orders. Commanders that seek unison with the Christ have GodLINK to confidentially move their forces for installing Christ's kingdom. By definition, these are the people that win in battle.
