Vladimir Putin
Russian President
c/o Russian Consulate
1333 West Loop South, Suite 1300
Houston, Texas 77027

Well, you upped the pot on crazy. Good for you. Germany is now yours.

Putin, if you would like to avoid this fate of Germany being yours it costs money. The nice thing is any body of people can come together growing My fortune in cash one million fold. At present I have three hundred twelve dollars in My wallet, net to Me required is three hundred eleven million nine hundred ninety nine thousand six hundred eighty eight dollars (US) by close of banking day central time September 11, 2024 or by September 12 through all the destructive deeds pent up by humanity against Heaven, you Putin get Germany. I count the present three hundred twelve dollars in My possession corban.

The last reminder of this notice is, no military body prevails unless I Am sharing the travails of My fellow soldiers. As you know full well, America is not united with Me. Their military performance is blasphemy. Like Russians, all soldiers are useful unto Heaven when they harvest for Hell. Yes, America needs to be scorched by war. Without hijacking Me into the battle, no one -- and I mean no entity at all -- unites North America or even grows their own national boundary. At present, uniting North America means reducing the population to one, moi.

Oh P.S., because you know I love you, towers are crumbling from their foundations sinking in the saturated soil. Where the tower is built on granite, the destruction is through frost thaw cycles of crushing force. The problem cities have is once the force of the neighbouring towers floats into a new position other foundations crumble from the pressure. Think of God playing with dominoes on this one. (Fuck you Trump.)
