I Am very fond of the USS Wisconsin. Please don't hurt her. I love her, and her Spirit.

Putin, much of what I write is based upon ceteris paribus assumptions. "mac just wrote a letter," says Heaven. Heaven is now doing this big shit. But wait, Heaven shows mac the shitty are going to be even more shitty and We at Team God can narrow our scope of who is eligible for Heavenly assistance. Economists use that precious two word Latin phrase to say, "We are assuming all other things remain steady and holding the steady course if a variable of interest changes, then we can have reasonable confidence in outcome da da da regarding the variable of interest. Only the variable of interest do we speculate about simultaneously holding all the other variables constant."

I sent General Smith, the USMC Commandant, a do it My way or not, I get what I Am after regardless letter. Everyone gets rape with torture, while feeling the burn -- yes, like fire -- in Hell. Living a long time on this earth, as in past the July 5, 2076 date of Satan's abyssing is required to avoid going to Hell when you are one of the people alive when August 21, 2021, happened. A person has to live to that day or to one hundred twenty years of age and a day, at least, to avoid Hell. (This is a which ever is greater value.) How does someone live that long? You obey Me.

What else is there? A national military soldier can pay My $50.00 monthly fee and continue serving dying while active duty and not feel the tortures of Hell. They will have limited awareness of the torture of others.

In Hell persons will be aware of the people their wife fucked, who fucked their daughters and sons, and so on. Everyone's sins against the Word, name of God, the ten commandments, are exposed across the full web of persons related by blood and fucking. So, perhaps you know of someone that sold you the idea that they were saintly. In hell, if you are a blood relation to someone who died August 21, 2021 or after or had some kind of genital experience with them, all their sins and yours are exposed while the rape with torture experience is in play to all related by blood and fucking. You will not have a physical form you recognise. You will have all of the human sensations of physical perception that coincide with your former physical self. Your consciousness, as you remembered yourself, will still be registering these sensations and going through continued mental processes. Your parents will not be in Hell. No, I will not preserve their graves. Simon Winchester -- yes, the British author -- gets a tomb. He should be in Hell with you.

Hell is not eternal. At its end of dealing with you, you are no more. How long will you suffer? The average suffering of each individual is one thousand years. Why is there a range? There is no possible way for suffering to be avoided in Hell until after July 4, 2076. My guess is, most will suffer two thousand two hundred years. You will be in a big jumble of energy, awareness, feeling without too much autonomy. Why are there some moments of autonomy? So you can reach out and persuade Spirit Consciousness that you connect to, Spirit that is being hosted by some person walking the earth, whom if you can get them, in the flesh, to find Me, reach out to Me, they can pay Me money for your comfort. What are they doing? They are obeying My orders for their salvation while paying Me so you can avoid the burn in Hell.

Let's get on with the matter of the Biden Zelenskyy nuptial (oops) military accord. It is difficult to know what will actually be promised. What is a safe assumption? Zelenskyy will see what he can do to get America's military to show him how to operate the American equipment against Russian targets and get some boots on the ground soldiers to fight his war. Well, America's military has a problem. They are still fucking Me over. Might they errantly hit Poland? Yes. They are not a competent military body and God Almighty is itching to have those stupid fuckers of America's Air Force and Army demonstrate the weaknesses of the gods they have gone after consummating their military service. Will Germany have reason to be angry and seek retaliation or reigning in American service person's wanton behaviour? Yes. We at Team God do not muzzle the bull when the bull is threshing out the grain. America deserves a spanking, in the extreme, for its vile treatment of Me and even the LORD. Regardless of the Biden Zelenskyy jumble of stupidity it will weaken Ukraine on the world stage.

Hunter Biden is a black market arms dealer specialising in high end technology. How infiltrated Russia's military technology is I have no way of telling you. Be very cautious of programmed guidance systems updated in the last decade. What you can direct manually from a central control station or launch short range based on visual sights, is best. Will there be naval vessels whose vertical launch systems fail destroying the entire vessel? Yes. America is the most compromised of Hunters black market deals. Hunter Biden's black market sales penetrated launching systems in the extreme. Boots on the ground marines are your toughest offensive opponent. Every weapon of war compatible with DOS (yes, that Disk Operating System dinosaur) has many back doors. Hunter came by some kind of dongle exchange, a system penetration key, while selling arms. Its like the pussy he uses to induce dealing with him over some other terrorist. The Middle East is heavily infiltrated with compromised tools of warfare. Hunter negotiated sales with many legitimate firms brokering piecemeal components. He deals like so, a fortune five-hundred firm A needed x thousand chips. Hunter was able to identify aftermarket substitutes of x thousand chips. This means many arms have aftermarket substitute components that were not the goods stipulated under contract.

Putin, any foreign to North American soldier (Federales are native) that encroaches on this soil are under My hand of "Fucker you are going to Hell warfare." And yes this holds for Britain marching on North American soil. It is not possible to form an alliance with any North American nation (and designating "Central America" is just bullshit) Mexico, Panama, Costa Rica, Nicaragua, Honduras, etc are all part of North America, the continent, with Canada likewise, without your soldiers executing their operation under My hand.

Perhaps Mexico's elite think they want Russian soldiers to kill certain drug cartel families, they plead their case that the "good people" need military assistance dealing with the corruption of cartel families infiltrating even Mexico's own military. Get your money upfront and in gold!

So what does My hand of force mean? The invading soldier body is a lethal killing machine that slits the throat of their own prostitute during copulation. They will be possessed on this soil in a way and means of conducting warfare that plunders the landscape with all its living organisms, especially humanity, sending the native populous to Hell with gusto. The invading soldiers will have nine lives, as it were, when they are killing. Once Mexico has California, wiping out America's military is totally within your grasp. My warning is, you will not be able to round-up the slaughter. Invading soldiers will expend themselves to death. An invading military force will be greedy to make every kill and destroy as much property and life possible.

It is not possible to by-pass Me and conduct warfare with any end other than accomplishing wanton destruction. That Biden makes an accord with Zelenskyy just means Ukrainians are going to suffer under the hands of Russians and Americans. (They can kiss and make up with Russia any time they want. Obviously they would need to assassinate Zelenskyy.) The Americans they will hate. They are bad fuckers. The only way warfare -- using soldiers or guns -- the world over, accomplishes government stability is by signing articles directly with Me at the Pentagon. Zelenskyy is brokering with the wrong American. Heaven is using Biden and Zelenskyy, like it will use all others, to wipe out as many people as possible the world over as expediently as possible. No, dealing with Austin and any other commanding general works the same destruction as dealing with Biden or any combination of Congressional members.

God Almighty is doing everything possible to put world leaders in a place of savvy regarding eye for an eye justice when their soil is trodden on by disrespecting foreigners. It isn't certain if you will live long enough to see the first shots fired against China. From Hell, someone you fucked, or one of your children fucked, will definitely be able to confirm the war that transpired once they join Hell's ranks. My reminder is, Christmas Day, and only Christmas Day is the only day that Germany and/or Russia may send a delegate to join Me and become Christian Soldiers. Christmas Day is also the last day America has to join Me or be totally annihilated. (Yes, I would personally beat the shit out of and imprison the American soldier that cursed a Russian or German, if in fact We became united and vice versa. I would use a bat.) No one in America is allowed to do any measly -- cake eater -- stunt to include Me. It happens with the red carpet, full honours, full pay, full benefits, handing over total control to Me because I have have proven to Heaven again and again I have no way to prove or demonstrate there is even one American to save sans Me. I have the USS Wisconsin.

Soldiers may individually, send the fifty bucks if that is where their faith is and they will have comfort in Hell provided their subscription does not lapse before they die in battle. Because you, or Germany, can do something measly, by comparison, you only get Christmas Day to come to My door. I told Pentagon surveillance, at least I think I said this out loud, "Practice putting your head between your knees and kissing your tail good-bye."

With this writing I have decided to give you, the nation of Russia, Cuba. Please use Haiti for your nuclear testing.

Putin, I have a policy, never refuse a physical hand when it can do good. In other words, today I was very hot, even uncomfortable in the heat. What would I have done? Obtained a beverage with ice and put My neck towel in the ice and used it to cool Me off. I was not allowed to implement that solution, so Spirit kept Me going without My observing the heat again. I dabbed sweat off My brow without observing I was hot. I always look for the ways that I can interact with people, develop and use physical resources, to accomplish Heavens purpose. It was wrong for Me to be denied access to ice. When Spirit has to compensate for peoples refusal to let Me do for Myself they, Spirit, collectively rage and turn up Hell's furnace. What does that mean for flesh? Spirit empowers individuals own means of sending themselves with their neighbours to Hell by their own corrupt hands. The cop gets his hands on easier meth and isn' drug tested. (People in North America are living miracles that kill themselves, ultimately This keeps even the fuck wad at NAS-CCAD laughing at Me and mocking Me. Nothing is encroaching on them while doing their shitty deeds with more ease.)

I have spent the last five years thinking there was always someone, a body politic, to join in the righteous work cleaning the earth and benefiting from the rewards of living under the fulfilment of the ten commandments. With millions of solders trained within a couple hundred nations the world over why not do all in My power to empower even a little nation. Even Ireland was considered early on. I exhausted every means of doing according to My own dust to accomplish Heaven's purpose. Humanity of course decided unilaterally, by the curses of every individual and possible combination of individuals -- fucking and blood make the combinations -- to tell Heaven to shove it, "You figure out how to solve your own problems." I kept living and doing under the auspice that surely America's marines, the males, want to repent. I knew the airforce and navy were full of posers but the SEALs too? Posers. I struggle to understand how alone I was and kept living a life these five years that kept arguing with God Almighty, "There is someone, there must be, there are eight billion people on this planet." God Almighty has been mucho pissed because there is evidently only Me. So, at last, He and I struck a bargain. He will beat the shit out of this fucking nation and you and Germany can witness all this shit, and Christmas Day the pug is pulled on all of you. I only made this more difficult on Myself than I needed to. God Almighty is kinda used to Me being a little elaborate in all the ways I put on a banquet for swine thinking they are christian.

Putin from this distance, all there is is My asserting, I Am still pissed. What does America owe Me? Everything. As in, yes Musk and Gates need to be executed and their wealth distributed to the Corps. Shit like that. There are no human sacrifices. No one can be sacrificed to quell Heaven's rage. Destroying Me means everything is destroyed and that is not even possible. So I Am forced to live. You are literally the only human being on this earth with enough wealth and influence among the wealthy that I could exploit with you as My slave for Me to benefit Heaven in the way and means that Heaven would say, "We will accept these things as enough of a token so You, mac, can do some shit with humanity." Outside of you, there is simply all the other shit that is going down to extinguish you all. Obviously the military solution is generous to people. It is hard work, and dealing with a lot of blood. What do I do in Corpus Christi, make it possible for Spirit to answer the individual prayers of people. You want to live? You pay Me for that.

We have finally come to the point where Heaven, after as little as a year of campaigning against North America can begin materialising a few Spirit to do some heavy lifting in terms of slaughtering humanity. These Spirit need never engage with Me. They simply materialise and take life before they disappear to the next key party. They can go from passenger train engineer to an air plane captain and crew locked in the cockpit. After North Americas population is extinguished these Heavenly agents will move against the Middle East then to Eurasia. After Eurasia, Africa and the islands of the world. You as people were never allowed to live unless you were obedient to Me. Your time is up. You want to avoid the killing Spirt harvesters? You need to be the obedient military body that serves Me. God Almighty's objective to to destroy all Americans within this coming decade. The only way even a remnant survive is as My military body.

Mahalo,
