The soldier wants and expects the flesh in matrimony. Once He committed to Me mid July 2020 within the LORD that ended the Tinker Bell marriage and the LORD created the "till death do you part" Holy union between He and Me. I will elaborate.*

With exhaustion, Mr. President, I relate to you more of this bat shit crazy crap that I cannot prove. I can only testify, and anger over, "I cannot prove" any of this, leaves Me in frustration to the point of, yes, crying out to the LORD and all Heaven for My own death.

I wrote previously about a soldier, seal stationed at the world famous Coronado amphibious base, who I observed while crossing behind him at the gate intersection as he and his team were walking before dawns first light to the beach side training facility south of the Del. (This was most likely early April of 2020, I had started walking to Imperial Beach by that time to get off the Island most days. I was a bag of bones by that time, and bowel movements had ended.) He is the one who figured out how to marry that pixy Tinker Bell that General Milley invented Me into. I, in the flesh, lived the prayers of heart deeds necessary to keep national security possible off that pixy when General Milley needed the pixy to solve problems. Of course General Milley was not the only one to tip the pixy. (Think tip, like cow tipping.)

That marriage should have preserved your wealth. You are right. Did I understand the pixy was a fact of My existence? No. What is the problem? The soldier demanded matrimony to Me, Myself, the flesh. The LORD honoured it. Evidently that is what ends the Tinker Bell, pixy, union of protection you where relying on to protect your wealth. (I think the gods wanted to be sure, you got fucked, in the end. Because of course the gods have been the messengers in all of this.)

Why didn't you demand proof of what protected your wealth? Even Tamar took tokens from Judah after "playing" the whore, surety of payment. Then of course she birthed a Jesus lineage son through Judah to replace his -- Judah's -- wicked first born, her first husband, the second born was just as bad, and the third born Judah refused to give her. That was illegal. Not only that, but to protect herself from accusation she kept his signet ring and ran off without payment keeping the tokens to prove he was the one that fucked (no matrimony) and impregnated her. She went away and raised her child, so there had to be some gift from Sprit saving her because Judah wasn't going to. An obviousness here is that there was an in the LORD union with that sexual congress.

Can I prove to you that he, My seal, flesh, would marry Me? No. He is wherever in the Pacific fleet he is sent as part of his team. I Am in Corpus Christi, Texas. I don't know if he looked at Me. He experiences vision in its full, and from that he wants the flesh, not the Tinker Bell union, even still. How do I know? That is what Spirit tells Me. Who in their right mind would believe that? Regardless, I DO NOT FORNIFICATE! He divined to have the human for him Tinker Bell represents. When I say believe, who would dare do, risking, without evidence. I kept seeking righteousness based on what Sprit told Me not loopholes or ways to perform wickedness. This is why you can not bind Heavenly power without a written contract from Me!

Given the wrinkles, stretch marks, sagging belly skin, My hair shorn to millimetres from My scalp, no worldly possessions in My name, or salary, a rational person would think he would change his mind about the fifty-two year old flesh that has been resistible to so many. After all, who anymore marries without fucking first? The real question is who is allowed to because of the abuses witchcraft builds against flesh? Guess what, ANY soldier can, NOW. Soldiers being forced into fornication, with witchcraft, is over. What they do as a result of Barbary is a function of their rage and hatred. No, civilians have no protection. (And that was a period.)

Getting back to My spouse, in the LORD, loyalty to Me is based on his relationship with Spirit, his god construct, through the LORD. (The LORD being the mediator for flesh to Spirit.) His desiring the pixy and divining the marriage union was through his god construct, then of course he had his own expectations to satisfy his fleshly desires. I was there on Coronado for him to reject Me. I do not even know if He observed Me thence confirming He wanted the flesh. It was dark that morning, perhaps low light added to allure, if he indeed saw Me. My point is, he would not break off his affection and ambition. He is the soldier who is the genetics of the Sprit consciousness hosed by "Navy Nurse" when I golfed with him May of 2019.

You, like the other famous contenders of this world, sure had a long run luxuriating in lucre. I kept extending to you a means to protect your wealth. But you kept believing a pixy union was protecting your physical property preventing you from experiencing the consequences your many sins have earned you?

Mr. Putin, Mary, when you are exposed to her in the firmament, will eat you alive. That is not entirely figurative. Start changing your strategy. That suggestion is the only blessing I have to extend with this correspondence. The other obviousness is, I Am still single. My marriage to another under law, if the LORD permitted that to be so, still offers something to someone. But I remind you, I Am a slave, to the LORD. What happens next, like always, will be for My protection and benefit. What on this earth ever proves Spirit is a part of anything?

It is getting late in the evening. I am starting to repeat Myself with regards to how I hold the post of authority binding Heaven as I do. As King, Sprit are the only beings making their case to Me. I have proven that I will toil for nothing. So Spirit can afford My hourly rate. Flesh needs to pay $100,000.00 an hour to "Operation Jesus H. Christ". From that even a Pentagon bimbo can figure out how to fund My office on better than $20.00 a day I fight with mumsy to draw from My own estate. CCPD still supports her at large in the community. No, that too does not bode well for you. The question becomes, what is that bitch [In fairness My secretary might be trans, so bitch might be the wrong slang.] going to do when that first check sits in her hand? The bitch of course sits a stool at the given address.

Capitalising on what you cannot hold in your hand is only possible if you bet your life. All others demand collateral. For Myself, the only proof I would ever have of him is My seal being able to answer for himself, to My face. Beyond that, My life is just enduring the abuses of Spirit, and holding My post as Pentagon High Priest in destitution. You stupid mother fuckers, all of you. And I mean flesh. (You are stupid mother fuckers, because among other things, you keep Me in destitution.)

If what it sounds like is there are countries that will pay for military support, you are right. That goes through Me, "Operation Jesus H Christ", or the defended country is wiped out. Now, you know -- the Pentagon does not have the means to defend a single boarder, boundary, or principality the world over. No, not even their own. For Congress to do bupkis defending this soil from physical attack My back pay is due- blah blah blah. So...who ever wants to occupy this soil, take it, it is defenceless and Heaven wants to destroy the populous.

After a nights sleep, a mornings walk that included feeding two mosquitoes -- tis the deet season -- India belongs to Xi and his assigns until kingdoms fulfilment as slaves. Kashmir is still to be left alone. That is an order. As far as Tibet is concerned, no, there is not protection for them other than the high ground. You do not attack the high ground you lay siege works around it and force them to leave the hills for food. (We can all say duh on that one.) The aggressive assault of high ground is of course burn them out and then proceed though the crevices. Be mindful of the vipers in the rock crags.
