

Dick Penetrates A Bible, 1k+ Times

August 5, 2019

Why don't we use Yahweh? The tetragrammaton is not the only character set to represent a divine title in the bible. There is My LORDS, Lord GOD, and some bibles use Adonai. But wait, there are more.

The true God provided a name blank for Himself that Moses recorded as YHVH. The Tetragrammaton, YHVH, is also written YHWH. The "V" has a "W" pronunciation, we think. (Hear God say, "I hate that "W.") Next there is a need for vowels. How the Hebrews spoke the name YHVH in Bible times is unknown. After the first century faithful Christians died; the annunciation was lost. Yahveh is the commonly accepted way to write and pronounce YHVH in multiple languages. Bibles very often use "the LORD" where "ORD" is a smaller font than the "L."

Why don't we use Yahveh? The Tetragrammaton is not the only character set to represent a divine title in the Bible. There are My LORDS, Lord GOD, and some Bibles use Adonai. But wait, there are more. There is good reason to speculate about why. Since the death of Christ's first century congregation, we have been in the religious dark ages. People have been slipping further away from even the good morals traditionally achieved with fear of the church. (Not a good reason to be moral, but at least there was morality. The best fear is fear of displeasing God.) There has been no agent for the true God on this earth since the death of those early Christians until His ark won her contract.

The Purpose of mac Dukes

Bible prophecy is that the true God will call His sheep and Shepherd them leading them to the Christ who will be King over the earth once the abyss holds Satan. To date not one religion has put in people's hands a means to reach out to the true God, and made it clear the true God, not an intermediary of the church, is their Shepherd. Now, in our day, these are exciting times.

The true God is collecting His sheep that are scattered about throughout all religions of this earth. The Herald of the Fine Shepherd represents His call. Our work as individuals is to pray to the true God and read His word daily developing a relationship with Him so that our lives reflect His glory.

Prayer is a cerebral activity. He created us to broadcast that mental signal to Him. He needs to hear from us to count us as His. It is necessary for us to pray. Who do we pray to? God.

"Jehovah" maps to Satan, and prayer using the name "Jehovah" is the proof. Do not be blinded with the name "Jehovah." It is not the proper name of the true God. It is at best derogatory holy sounding slang meaning, penis. The dreadful lizard obsessed with fornication accomplished two things with this name. She impregnated the Holy Bible with the name Jehovah to call the true God a "dick" with the intention, 'hey, you can all worship god, the fornicator.' (Hear God say, "Satan's reign as god of the world is why antichrist came, first. A big Ba-al that you all created, Jehovah, is the proof.")

The True God Listens and Shares with His Creation

The true God listens to prayers of His Creation. In truth how many other creatures can pray we do not know. But rest assured, the true God speaks whale. Remember, Jonah was swallowed and spit up on Nineveh's shores. Oh, and bear too -- that is a reference to the jeering children in Israel. Be assured, hearing our prayers is the privilege that goes to Him alone. That is a primary form of worship on our part. How we behave is what induces Him to listen to us, more or less. Dump fornicating and lying and wow, that's big airtime for God to listen to us. A silent prayer in "Jesus name" is confidential communication.

Stop Praying to Jehovah

Using the name "Jehovah" alienates you from the true God. He will not endure the use of that name. To date, for the sake of the innocent, those duped into believing that "Jehovah" is drawing them closer to their Creator, the true God has tolerated its use. The name "Jehovah" is yet another component of that dreadful lizard's world of religion. Use "Yahveh" if the true God or God of Jesus sound like too much of a title to you. The true God wants it made clear, "Jehovah" is a product of the lizard, Satan.

LORD isn't Wrong Either

The important component of a prayer to the true God is knowing who He is when we call on Him. A title is not wrong even if you choose to use "the LORD". To call on the true God, focus your mind on Him. He is the being that gave His flesh for humanity and resurrected her as a King in heaven. The true God knows the extensive slander told from pulpits, stages, TV broadcasts, and books. The truth of His Ark's words is in the powerful closeness you will have coming to know the true God. (Feel God's power of Love.)
