

Eighth King

January 2, 2020

D*on't fret. You are not the eighth king of Revelation fame. Don't go beating up your brother across the ocean thinking world supremacy is yours. You great shepherds of the earth with mighty naval forces and armies will be the instruments for world peace and destroying the harlot, religion, is your moment of fame.*

Gog and magog is that infamous eighth king.

We will be taking a break from Satan to give humanity a chance at fair judgment. In the dust of that precious womb the faithful and wicked will grow alongside one another. Remember the wheat and darnel illustration of the Christ? The harvest of the faithful can only be known to all when the wicked reveal who they are at the end of Satan's last stand kingdom. That is when the one hundred forty-four thousand are known.

Peace, the Calm Before the Kingdom

World peace, what would that look like? Every drug lord, human trafficker, agent of pornography, terrorist, and profiteer of sin, God annihilates. God's judgment includes their offspring. There is a shift in consumer preferences. The sheep and goats will be obvious. Those who seek perversions will still have them. Those that seek righteousness will find better companions for themselves.

The promise to the righteous; never out of food stores, fuel for their homes, blankets for their beds, and the love of true companions. They will also be fulfilled with either a loving spouse or the magnificent companionship of the true God to help care for them while they are faithfully alone. (Sadly, some raising half orphans.) These have honest work and will never need unsecured debt to provide for their needs.

The goats, sadly neighbour to the sheep, will never be satisfied. They feed the consumer economy, false religion, unsecured debt, struggle with addictions, never know the meaning of fidelity, and feed every form of gambling and gaming that the weak minded need as a diversion for their adulterated lives in service to Satan.

What Makes a Righteous Person?

The righteous are those that repent. Every conceived human will repent. They want to repent because God is teaching them how to live. The repentant are willing to work to save themselves from every form of slavery. The true God will direct them.

The wicked are adulterated by Satan to the point that they have no means of seeing a need to repent. They justify and defend all their forms of fornication and perversion, and they are a loud voice standing in the way of the shepherds that are seeking to rid the earth of Satan's forces. They will be looking to divert money to all endeavours that keep Satan's perverse economy of sin alive and well. These as well as Satan's economy God destroys.

There will be a power play between that Southern Cross and North Star. The Southern Cross loses in the end. Read Daniel and Revelation again. The true God and the Christ are giving visions and interpretations through an angel to John and Daniel. Two magnificent discrete beings. One is God, Fine Shepherd, and future King. One is High Priest, redeemer of Creation forever, and King.

Those judged as wicked now might be capable of repentance from sin in the absence of Satan. Those that repent now and survive into Christ's Kingdom God resurrects sinless in His Kingdom at His appointed time. Those that died before God installs Christ's Kingdom on earth God resurrects into Christ's Kingdom without memory of their former self, and live to see Satan return. Individuals make their stand for righteousness or learn righteousness during Satan's last stand. This is the final week of the seventy weeks. Living in Christ's Kingdom heals a person from sin's memories.

When We Can Expect to Live Forever?

It is possible to live through our period of seven weeks and live into Christ's Kingdom. Sin still marks the blood of everyone in Christ's Kingdom. It is our loyalty to living a life in harmony with the Body of the Christ, true Christians, faithful to the true God's will that God uses to determine our longevity, health, and youth, in Christ's Kingdom.

You can save your family. You can watch that fear inspiring day when God has Satan jailed. It is not possible however to live forever now. Sin must die. Then, and only then, will the true

God's Word for His creation be fulfilled. (God says, "Isn't that the Truth.") God's Sabbath ends and His perfect Law is also fulfilled.
