

Loin Cloth in Your Hand

December 7, 2019

he temple prostitutes -- hated by the true God -- were paid sexual actors. These were brought into the palaces of gods of Biblical times to perform erotic sexual acts and titillate and arouse the crowds into satisfying themselves or one another in sexual acts.

Self-gratification with porn is as perverse as fornication. A man could beat-off and fancy himself righteous, just like today. He was simply the wall flower in the temple with no one to dance with.

The man seeking an artificial vagina from the man that had one to offer because that was his lust could find what he wanted in the temple crowd. Women could choose to please one another with phallic objects or seek other forms of sexual gratification from one another, as in choosing how they expended their sexual energy, just like today, in the temple.

The Fig Leaf Fallacy

Porn is old. Homosexuality is as old as the true God adorning His children with clothes that also covered their anus as well reproductive genitals. He knew how people would look to justify their appetites as sinless because they did not produce offspring. Producing offspring was not the sin. It was the command. The sin is the act a person chooses with the perversion that entered our blood when the knowledge of bad with good perverted humanity.

We have the knowledge of sin. We must live without acting on it to declare ourselves the true God's servant.

Genitals Include Anus

The true God made it clear when Adam and Eve concealed only their difference identifying genital members with leaves that they missed the true exposure to change that had entered humanity. Rape is a sin. Fornication, engaging in a sexual act with one who is not your marriage partner, is a sin. Fornication is also worshiping a false god or attempting to worship the true God without knowing who He is. With government providing for homosexual marriage this made it possible for the true God to save every honest hearted man and woman who wanted to serve Him without discriminating against sexual preference. The act of fornication is the condemned act of sin.

A woman in Israel who reached and grabbed the genitals of her husband's assailant lost her hand. Why? Because it was the same as her husband reaching for the genitals of another man. Rape. Get it? A man who chose a wife chose his preference. Her taking another man's genitals into her hands was the same as her husband reaching for another man's genitals after he had declared himself a heterosexual man. Perversion. If a man wants another man's genitals, he had better marry him first. Same goes for a woman.

Legal Marriage is the Protection Against Fornication

Find your marriage mate and enjoy not fornicating in the process. Draw close to the true God in your state of celibacy. Draw close to the True god in you state of marriage. Satisfying your mate is an act of Holy worship to the true God. He wants happy marriages.

What about the breasts? If breasts were genitals a woman could not nurse without being in a sexual act with her child. Giving birth is a sexual act when through the vagina. The erotic sensitivity during sexual play is different for every woman and man. Each partner prior to marriage needs to decide how to defend their own boundaries against being driven to an orgasm prior to marriage. Some may have low sensitivity others might experience sexual fulfilment with the erotic contact of a partner on their breast. That fulfilment must be post marriage or you are guilty of fornication.
