

Sarah's Constant Love

January 30, 2020

Sarah introduced polygamy to Israel. She was anxious for the true God's promise to be fulfilled, and she, in faith, gave her flesh to her handmaiden so Abraham could have a child. Sarah was barren.

Sarah ultimately received the blessing through God's promise at a hundred years of age. The promise to Abraham was fulfilled once the Christ was born through the tribe of Judah. Once the Christ was born through Abraham's seed the seed from the Christ, Christians, would endure forever. That ended polygamy. The true God made allowance because of Sarah's sacrifice. People the earth and provide protection for a greater number of women while maintaining matrimony, polygamy was one provision. A man could have multiple legal wives or concubines and be free from fornication.

No Loopholes

If you think the true God allows loopholes, God says, think again. It is simply that His law first and foremost says, I want all My human creation to live. Period. What is sin? Death. Life is the first and foremost policy of all the true God's laws. What did He know? When sin was introduced the rippling consequence thorough His creation meant allowing polygamy and gender crossover. No fornicating. This means matrimony. Male to male, female to female, legal with the true God. One partner is the leader -- husband -- one is the obedient one -- wife. That is the relationship. Now do not go looking for lightning to strike every fornicator on this planet. We still live in an environment where people are free to choose Satan. That said, sin town, Vegas, gets to exist because no one need ever fornicate in Vegas. (God says,"Those wedding chapels kept sin town's lights on!")

Needed of Us

Until His Kingdom is fulfilled, the true God asks humanity to be tolerant of its struggles while standing up for sexual identity in Satan's world of haters. Call on God for help in finding that precious mate. Do not fornicate. Hold onto celibacy. Protect your boundaries. He can move you to where you can have a legal marriage mate. The true God is anxious to show the United States what protecting boundaries means to Him in our defences against all means of illegal entry. And baby when the true God is anxious to support government His Ark is dancing under Air Force One on the beach at North Island.

What is wrong with India and China? Why 'meddle'? Because government itself has been fucking over its own people and government is His shepherd. If you don't like the true God correcting you, you can abdicate to the United States. Just hang a white flag above a US flag at the top of your capitol flagpole. Your surrender is fine. You went too fucking far permitting fornication and banning the legal protection from God -- India. Wholesale murder to build a military, yep, you China have more porridge on the horizon. Have fun with those heavenly penalties. One thing is for certain, Satan's destruction of righteousness in law has collapsed governments.

For the Sake of the Slain

For the sake of the righteous men and women that sacrificed their lives in Satan's wars the true God is vindicating their great grandchildren for being one nation under "God."

With Abraham and Sarah they received a fleshly reward, progeny, from their faithfulness. Abraham's life was to make provision for Immanuel.
