

Sin Offering

mac Makes Demands

December 24, 2019

We are figuratively your Israel. Every tribe and nation of the earth host our domain. Do not show partiality but gather us in through your twelve gates. Jerusalem is your heavenly Kingdom, but you will reside with your creation again. The tent of the true God is to encamp on the earth with humanity when we are perfect.

*O' heavens, for the LORD has acted;
Shout aloud, O' depths of the earth!
Shout for joy, O' mountains, O' forest with all your trees!
For the LORD has redeemed Jacob, Has glorified Himself through Israel.*

Did you not promise the rebuilding of Jerusalem and Judah?

God of Jesus, do you not also,

*Annul the omens of diviners, And make fools of the augurs;
Who turn sages back And make nonsense of their knowledge;
But confirm the work of My servant
And fulfil the prediction of My messengers.
It is I who say of Jerusalem,
'It shall be inhabited, And of the towns of Judah, "They shall be rebuilt;
And I will restore their ruined places.*

Please, let Isaiah's prophetic cry of joy ring true again. Act in behalf of your sheep the earth over. We are scattered in the far-flung places of the earth. The moral bankruptcy of religion means we look to government for assistance raising our children and law to create family harmony and morality.

Moral Decay Follows Discipline Prohibition

How can parents provide love -- discipline -- necessary when discipline is regulated to favour the tantrums of those whose frontal lobes are not formed? Sexual promiscuity, that existed only on the street when these were born, is now a condoned behaviour in the bedroom that a year before was provocative from the addition of a Ken doll.

We are figuratively your Israel. Every tribe and nation of the earth host our domain. Do not show partiality but gather us in through your twelve gates. Jerusalem is your heavenly Kingdom, and you will reside with your creation again. The tent of the true God is to encamp on the earth with humanity when we are perfect.

Rather than annihilate your creation you allowed Adam and Eve to have their procreative vigour. Humanity is now eight billion strong. All of us are ailing from imperfection and the woes Satan has placed in this earth. She has exploited every beautiful part of what makes humanity extraordinary into twisted offspring without conscience toward fornication, self-mutilation, lying, war for peace, and believing in living forever as a reward for sin.

"See" Christ's Presence

(Because, the Christ is a disappointment. mac was hoping for Jesus too.)

We know that the Christ will make his presence known when king over the earth and then wipe out the apocalyptic riders of mayhem that threaten peace and life after his kingdom. We know Satan will be abyssed for a period before release and then sin's final destruction. You owe us bowls of wrath against the wicked and replacing the shepherds that refuse to provide a government that delivers assistance for the poor and laws that uphold family and community.

When do we see proof of you reaching out to your creation reclaiming the figurative house of Jacob? Our efforts to fight Satan's lowest common denominator genre are swallowed up by the land -- false-religions elements. How can anyone be satisfied with being righteous in a world that glorifies perversion as entertainment?

Men are not protecting their families. Keeping mature rated games and television out of their homes or satellite feed they regard as against them. Personal electronic devices, that are now a necessity because when did someone last even see a pay phone, put Satanic programming at a minor's finger tips. We need help in arranging our lives and caring for our families so that we are not dependent on these feeds and can exercise controls and enforcement.

The increasing level of luxury across nations is growing the inequity and leverage cartels drugs and human have at moving into a nation and chiseling away legal government to supplant it with their criminal enterprise. This builds a culture of terror that crosses boundaries.

My Voice Is Insignificant

Right now, I am only a whisper on a global internet. Sadly, you are a couple hundred search engine listings behind false prophet number one. You fulfil your promises. Daniel and other prophets of Israel rang out a message of the fall of Jerusalem that have prophetic significance for our day due to the times John lived when writing Revelation. We are in a time of peril awaiting proof, please, I beg of you, prove that you are God Almighty who fulfils His Word, loves His sheep, and will reclaim us from the peril of being devoured by the religious shepherds Satan has installed in churches and halls all over the world.

All we can do is live up to the excrement we spill into the sewer without personal awareness of you, Fine Shepherd. It is the works we do that prove we want to serve you deeming our sin offering precious to you. Please, you have redeemed us. Let the Christ's sacrifice be glorified in acts of wholesome conduct we perform for ourselves. We need to know you to be motivated by fear of displeasing you showing love for your feelings. Where on this earth are you? At trueGod.macdukes.com? Let us please, precious to you, enjoy your divine direction in our lives. We are simply Satan's sin offering without you.

Please forgive My heart pumping sin through My veins. Without your intervention in My life, I am at the helm to Hell. Let these words please reach your eyes while you are in a state of mercy. In the name of Jesus, make me love your Word and live your Law.
