

Talk to Me

July 17, 2019

I know that you need to be paid to work. It is not easy to report to others. There are people who profit from exploitation and injustice.

From the true God to His sheep in peril

I know how many beverages you drink to wind down. How many times you have missed a DUI that you earned but escaped, I know. Get to know Me and that need for a liquid or crystalline coping mechanism we can eliminate. We can also help you and your spouse enjoy each other's time more each evening? Doesn't that sound like slightly more fun?

You Are Special to Me

I know you put another piercing on your belly button. The rhinestone is sparkly. What I do not understand is why you needed another piercing? Why didn't you come to Me in prayer first? Do not you know how beautiful I think you are without the body art? I know you need to distinguish yourself. That need to feel special and distinct is a part of being human. I want you to spend time with Me in prayer. I can promise you; you will feel special and loved for who you are, and you will learn how to like yourself more.

Those "Lovers" I Hate

I am not sure I like that butterfly tattoo on your right cheek. Who demanded that from you? Was it the idea of that despicable "lover" who simply exhausted your pay-checks without ever honouring you with the decency of marriage? Was it that one who simply extracted your precious resources and defrauded your virginity while never satisfied with either themselves or you? I hate that "lover". The one who loves you would never demand that you indelibly scar your skin or swallow their genital fluids without matrimony first. If you love that butterfly, then okay. Keep it. But please, let us spend time together before you make another indelible investment.

Are You Cheated?

I can help you raise your precious children left to your care. Did you give everything you had in service to the government? When your spouse dies with honour in the line of duty, you should be coming to Me for the the blessings and intimacy that I can give you. I am here for you. You have much challenge ahead educating your children and putting food on the table in the meantime. I Am here for all my children. You are only alone if you do not speak to Me in prayer.

Church is a Fraud

What about that divorce you filed with the county and then the life of fornication you are living because you could never pay a church the outrageous extortion they claim they need to divorce you in My eyes? Garbage. Marriage is considered only a civil, legal, institution; because people have not experienced how I bring a man and woman together. My shepherd is the government that establishes the laws you are to obey. That religious institution does not create nor dissolve legal matrimony unless the government you are subject to has demanded it.

Murderer in Your Heart

When you rolled the SUV to murder your wife and mother in-law because you did not care enough for your own life and decided you would surely survive, I will ask back during My day of judgment much from you. Your wife, she is mercifully free from you. You were an adulterer and she was innocent. She is free to marry, adulterer, you murdered her in your heart then took an attempt on her life. You owe your ex-mother in-law a car. (That was to Terry Alan Smart.)

I Love You

I love you My human creation. Every life is precious to Me. That unborn baby and that aged widow woman are precious to me. I want to hear from all my creation. If you are pregnant, please as a Father I beseech you, come to me in prayer. Are you looking for a mate? Are you about to fornicate? Does a hit off a new drug appeal to you? All of you are precious to Me. Come to Me so that I can take you into My fold. You will find refreshment for yourselves.

I know; what you eat, where you sleep, who you spend time with, the music you listen to, the movies you watch and who you hang out with. I do not read minds without your permission. I do read your heart. Come talk to me so that we can be friends. I want you to enjoy a healthy beautiful life and bring you into My Kingdom so We can be friends forever.

(God's footnote: mac's perspective is if any of you had been listening to Me, you would never have been indulging in any of these activities. And she is right. What did mac not understand? That I could be blown off. So, she wrote an article that turned Me into a beggar. Now that she understands you liked your mire, and blew Me off, We can blow you all up and sort you out later.)
