Re: The State of the Union from your Commander and Chief

General Berger,

I Am Making America Great. Greatness is a matter of perspective. North America is being returned to fallow ground by the LORD as His miracle to preserve Abraham's seed. Think of North America as Sodom and Gomorrah. Bookmark your Bible reading there, marking the major events forward from this fuck-hole (My perspective -- if you think the civilians of this filth are worthy the life of even one marine out of boot camp, you are touched.) being totally destroyed. Making America Great is the State of the Union. My ways and means are encapsulated herein with relevant sidebars for clarity.

Militarily the Space Force strategic segregation is the tool intended to defend this soil from all invaders invalidating the need for soldiers. This is the strategic information Milley assuaged Pelosi's fears over national security with while touching pee-pees. The Space Force of course cannot do against the LORD'S Hand of destruction. Jehovah's, the LORD'S, kingdom is happening.

Every force of Heaven will move through the earth's core, and across earth's firmaments pushing outward disrupting even the moon. The Israelites of Biblical fame, those freed from slavery after the four hundred years prophesied to Abraham by the LORD, were righteous enough to act to free themselves. This is the significance of the LORD, through Moses, battling with Pharaoh. What was required first? The LORD demonstrating his power against Sodom and Gomorrah. Understanding Bible reading -- the Hebrew classic and Gospel -- means events overlap to accomplish the LORD'S will as revealed in Revelation.

Information that feeds the gut of humanity from Heaven is now on lock down. This means souls must make a cognitive effort to find Me so they can discern the Truth that powers preserving them alive. Who makes that happen? The Lord.

The LORD hold's Heaven with God Almighty. Who is God Almighty? The Star, Immanuel, that delivers, and who was conceived with Jesus birth. My birth is when the Star, Immanuel, was formed. Recall, God Almighty -- with balanced scales -- who loves Righteousness first and foremost, because Righteousness will make sure streets are paved with gold, if that is in-deed the Law, regardless of having to pave them while serving in the depths of a sewer, or from the clouds.

Returning to the LORD'S employment of fire and brimstone against this landscape; the LORD will poison North American rivers by volcanic fumaroles -- fumaroles exposing the nakedness of the earth's core to flesh -- He is employing to burn this land after poisoning it. The impacts of anthrax on domestic herds will be remembered as the thin plots of temple prostitute entertainment. The very miracle of the water cycle, as a result of the fumarole release, will pollute even city sewers with lethal concentrations of flammable compounds that spontaneously combust.

From Three Forks to the Gulf, the Great Missouri, and Mississippi Rivers will have no discernible bounds. The mud flows from this waterway will burry interstate overpasses that I will be required to dig up, eventually.

Those crying out "Oh, God" during calamity, of course experience the miracle necessary for them to influence others to abandon their former lifestyle. "Why work when it all burns anyway?" "Why pay taxes when it just means some liar gets free housing while I am required to work for money, and housing?" These will be the rhetorical devices of souls seeking a closer relationship with their Lord. The Lord will be making their personal miracles of survival happen.

The futility of honest earnings will devour the middle class. Squatting will be the new normal, and just like there is no ability to defend the United States boarder fence, there will be no means for government to eliminate squatting on vast lands either public or private. Didn't Ted Turner have vision investing his fortune in ranching; building all that open-space in Montana? Gates is a Johnny Come Lately. What military will defend Gate's farm? A partially privatised police force perhaps that is keeping the peace?

The oil deposits of the earth will be so heavily laden with impurities by core fissures caused by the LORD, Brent crude will be remembered as the gold standard of yesteryear. American refineries, around the world, will be burning to the ground from within; overwhelmed by corrosives.

Sir, when I Am united with Israel -- yes, that modern day United Nations' debacle --it will be possible for Europe, and Africa to retain, and build, respectively, civilisation during earth's population depletion. There is not force from the LORD against you to honour Me, because honouring Me does not preserve North America. North America is being destroyed by the LORD. What you can do by honouring Me is preserve the Corps.

Massive rain, snow, freeze, winds, and precipitates in the LORD'S hand, will make Pompeii look like the result of His blinking His eye in disgust. California, the LORD is rendering uninhabitable with the Eastern Seaboard, as it is now geographically configured. The joke near the Salton Sea was, "This property will be valuable oceanfront with the right earthquake." The Heavenly convictions that move people both to, and to-and-fro, across this landscape are based on the cellular [Think biology, not technology.] understanding of these transient souls, migrating like bison herds once did. Please sir, how do we convince Lloyd Austin to stop mocking the LORD?

What I did not understand, that you did, is that I was sleeping in the square of Sodom and Gomorrah because the United States Military refused to be even as righteous as Lot to preserve even his own household by housing the LORD'S Angel, messenger, Me. The Space Force is not a national security measure. Being the LORD'S Military is your office with army, navy, and air-force. My living road side at Adela and Adela qualifies as a town square, N'est-ce pas?

Just because Trump is a barn burner does not mean you need to be burned up in the barn. Trump demanded the destruction of Make America Great, because no fucking way was I going to benefit off him. (No, his cum was not magic. At least Trump understands he has never done Me any good.)

Freeze and thaw cycles coupled with vibration energies sounding back like sonar against foundation pilings will lean towers in New York rendering them uninhabitable. The torsion from forces above ground, and vibration energies below, will resonate towers to the ground in some cases. Energy dampening was the ingenuity of Japan.

Housing developments on mat slabs will float away from their utility connections. This will render even stick frame neighbourhoods uninhabitable. Will the California legislature make provision for more temporary, tent, housing solutions? Welcome to being the population that dies off in the desert wilderness migrating in the shadows of Sinai, kinda. (That is an example of Biblical overlap.)

The waring protective instincts of Americans, as they exhaust every insurance, and tax resource available to them, finding their simple life the LORD preserved them for -- and the Lord miracles for them -- results in feudal waring between neighbourhoods. The decades to depletion is simply a function of how large the landscape of North America is and how numerous the populous.

As Americans migrate and squat, those looking to be slaves to them from afar -- for a corner of squatted fields to grow food for even themselves -- will have residency as aliens. Sir, refusing to even do something to save your own souls as Jacob's twelve tribes of offspring did, means you chose suicide, not salvation. Telling the LORD, "I am going to do something so shitty, it kills you, LORD." is the stupidity built into the system. In other words, all your wickedness was anticipated with Immanuel's conception. No, it is not possible to be evil enough to kill the LORD. Do you want to live? At present you are cannibalising the Corp.

America's civil war is the result of the LORD'S destroying North America with the ways and means described. Not every means the LORD has was expressly stated. There will be additional events of significance that I describe in advance. Passenger plane travel the LORD will be ending. Prop planes with lower flight decks that use ocean platform landing facilities for transcontinental Pacific and Atlantic flights is fine. I already wrote that Everest was the limit. Air turbulence will eliminate many pilots from the industry, and ground present commercial jets as scrap metal.

Recall when water rights were held by the best guns? What about adding need for electricity? How many guns will be needed to maintain a power grid? Electricity was the utility that was a hard sell in this nation. People figure out that refrigeration is not that big a necessity for survival when it costs them money. And how about people pulling up to gas stations, then pumping out the fuel from the tanks directly? What about stealing fuel trailers on-route to the distribution chain? Chihuahua Mexico will be as much a promised land as the Great Plains. Even the Mojave Dessert is paradise for a few months a year.

When the Federales are shooting Americans to eliminate them as "guests" in their cities, because they refuse to leave beaches, timeshares, hotels, churches, and squares, only with the Ark of the LORD, Me, are you in the place of being able to move in warfare against the land south of the Rio Grand. Please, sir, how do we get Austin to stop mocking the LORD. The Space Force is useless, because fire power will not be against soldiers, but the impoverished, slaves, moving to this shore for food thence freedom. These self made refugees are not about to receive money from their former country for housing, nor is any foreign nation going to fund the Pentagon. You want revenue? Let's do Israel. We can strategically plan this.

When Biden declassified My service to the nation, that ended the hosting of the LORD by the President of the United States. I Host the Lamb, and I Am the keeper of the LORD'S Mercy Seat. Do you want Austin to keep fucking with Me, or learn about Mercy? What it means to have Heavenly authority is I contract, and bind Heavenly power to accomplish the will of Spirit for flesh. Once again, Spirt is greater than flesh, man is greater than woman, and human is greater than beast. It is beneath the notice of My office to negotiate with niggers, in the Biblical sense. Speaking with General Milley is of course the privilege of My office.

Mary McRae bound Heaven as well. She lost her contract rights on or about May 14, 2012. She was contracting off of My slavery to her. It was the morning of the roll-over wreck that ended My slavery to her, and ended her contracting power. How is dealing with Me different than her bull-shit? You are required to deal with Me, and that means in the flesh. Why, is because Heaven was forced into My being honoured as flesh.

Divining, and this includes the infamous witchcraft, is a non reversible process. It is like a material that requires being broken down by a giant millstone to be molecularly anything smaller. I do not wave My power away. I demand face time, and deeds of flesh, that demonstrate obedience. Mary's loosing her contract rights means there is no way to bind Heaven without the Ark, Me. The fulfilment of My Words is how the LORD proves His prophet. That you are not able to destroy Me, from My perspective, is how you know I Am the Christ. What else is there to prove this until the destruction of North America is well under way? My perspective is that once I Am the Christ is proven to you, the Military has a fighting chance. (What is My assumption? You want salvation. How do even you have salvation, you honour Me.) Being Christ, Immanuel's fleshly constituent, means I have the authority to impose the death penalty. Whether you see My enforcing the death penalty as My working from the sewer or clouds is irrelevant to Me. I Am driven by being the best sewer or cloud servant the LORD needs. The streets can not be paved with gold with all of the gold bricks this nation supports.

Until I have united the Middle East, there is no future for Europe or Africa, and all troop activity is simply futility. What is awesome? We can move as a team to unite the Middle East. What sucks for the Secretary of Defense? I Am honoured as High Priest by his own hand for our team to come together. I favour the 8. I grew fond of her while in San Diego. What is the one thing you people hate? Acknowledging Spirit by dealing with flesh. What did you prove? How much you hated the gifts Sprit gave you souls; furthermore, Spirit that cared for its flesh like a father, now has flesh to stone.

Biden, Trump, Obama, Bush, Clinton, and a plethora of other Americans are being publicly stoned by Spirit. Stoning is of course a metaphoric reference unless they are buried under landslides. That would be a fitting end to Oprah, Sharpton, Woods, and the Harry and Meghan duo, come to think of it. A neat end to Biden, and Trump is of course meteor debris crushing their motorcades. See, the LORD has a way to destroy even those two fuckers that is stoning, sans a negative reflection on the Marine Corps.

This letter and My previous Trump, and Putin correspondence will be posted publicly when My other two pair of jeans fit. As in, when I loose a little more of this despicable weight gain from the summer. All things considered sir, yes, I still love you enough to cry, "Long Live Berger." How you fill that life sir, regrettably, requires the cooperation of a really big nigger. I Am of course assuming you want to preserve your flesh, fill your life, with the Mercy of the LORD. My regards, kinda, to General Milley. I Am still furious over the Pelosi affair.

I need to make abundantly clear, evidently, you -- and I mean every active duty person I have encountered -- wants to perish into the Spirit stoning Borg of Trump and McRae (mumsy). None of you desires being resurrected to life when I Am marching for kingship. I understand the compulsion to hate Me. Including Me formally in the Corps means avoiding the Borg and waiting for resurrection. The bonus is, you can still choose to serve Satan when you are resurrected. You are not obligated to serve Me. The resurrection period is when Jesus, with Saint Paul are walking the earth. Otherwise what you have in the Borg is enough knowledge to know that you lived a life that befit being in their Borg. Obviously, Bannon has worked out some kind of eternal deal with Trump.

Everything that bounces off Me from the divine proves I Am after the devotion to the LORD that preserves flesh. With flesh preserved according to Mosaic Law -- the Law that even Satan agreed to -- Heaven itself is built into grandeur. That is what We at Team God call the circle of life.

I Am in the place of delivering the messages I do in obedience, with no faith in the message Myself. In other words, I bore witness to making the declaration that I Am the Christ, because I Am forced -- My word -- into doing that, because I Am the one that won that Lamb hosting contract. What proof have I seen from God of My own claim? Only that I Am still so fucking despised, I Am not even privilege to occupation befitting My abilities. Also, that repeated poisoning has not killed Me. My being starved to a bag of bones has not killed Me. You can still lie, and have a job. I Am the Truth, I Am life, and I bear witness to flesh the claims of Spirit. What I Am furious about, is that I Am forced out of even doing menial work to earn a living over being, yep, the Christ.

The life I live is one of humiliation. Even as vile and ungracious as Gurgevich's behaviour and manner of speaking is, he is still a more tolerable personality, and willing to contribute more than Terry Allen Smart. This letter is rambling. I Am demanding My fucking backpay! You have a job because I have been a slave to the Marine Corps. The Pentagon neglecting Me means the LORD will bring much against same. Same being the Pentagon's people.

My genetics prevents Me from doing anything other than what preserves the LORD the way God Almighty formed Him when Righteousness, Light, sacrificed His being so the Creative Duad could form from Allness, and Light. God Almighty; the one with twins at war within Him, whose Firstborn of Him was Light. I formed the LORD'S identity that preserves the Law so that even the firstborn of the Creative Duad keeps his -- her now -- birthright. What I preserve for Me is the fulfilment of the Law that perfects Abraham's covenant with the LORD. The fulfilment through Me is because of how I process My environment enduring as a slave. What Trump and other niggers, including you, had done to the LORD was an abomination.

So, now that you understand freedom to serve Satan is on the table, if indeed, you decide resurrection is the reward for you, perhaps Austin's sheer hatred of you will induce him to sign articles with My office because he now sees it as his way to cannibalise you. Clearly Austin hates the idea you could be saved by Me for eternity. Since you have thus far been a bastard about divining some spouse for Me to feed as a way to get My power in the twinkle land of hand waving and bat shit craziness, that has kept you employed thus far, I doubt to even prevent the annihilation of the Corps, you would have courage to employ the Christ, Me. (I Am angry over jailing Mary. Can you tell?) How the LORD will annihilate the entire United States Military abroad must surely be obvious to you. That is what He intends to do. His destruction of the His military is because Austin refuses to make room for Me. Austin needs to be convinced he is doing the next shitty thing against the LORD to incorporate Me.

What is absolutely the most ridiculous bullshit I have ever testified to? No, you may not send some date, spouse, to My door to marry Me for My power. I already endured the arranged marriage the LORD forced Me into due to Trump's witchcraft to keep the United State's Military afloat. I married Trump's lazy, worthless, dirty, ugly, Terry Allen Smart the high priest for Trump's qngmic cult. Sir, you have been attempting to force on Me what has already been served Me. Mark Eliot Gurgevich is Trump's cult gate-keeper. I Am the new owner of MAGA because I saved his gatekeeper's life. Trump can campaign on MAGA's coat-tails now.

Who sends their spouse candidate for My power? Putin. He has until February 14, 2023. Putin had more than one candidate because He understands the truth of Ggods doppelgängers.

Why Putin is so fucking furious, is that he is stuck in a stalemate. My doppelgänger spouse I Am united with in the LORD for Putin's camp is a Russian seaman. His being a spouse is through the Spirit genetic expression as souls, and the cerebral association with humanity, which can be likened to a doppelgänger. This marriage was by Heaven's design. The intent on Putin's side was that I would fail to fulfil the marriage and end up in fornication. Then Putin would have taken My power. I Am fornication free. Only one soul knows he is My husband. How the LORD unites Us, is in His hands after the 14th.

If Putin wants to end the stalemate, he knows he has until February 14, 2023 to produce his soldier that hosts the Sprit consciousness of "Navy Nurse" at My door on Dody Street to take My hand in marriage. Since about October 16, 2016 I have been a wife through the LORD to a soldier. The soldier knows who he is to the LORD. And that, he has Me. It was Me that did not know that since 2016 I was considered married under Divine Law until a few years ago. I still did not fornicate. That ignorance was due to My being marooned, spiritually. That I was marooned was evidenced by My beleaguered state.

I fight for knowledge, and do not trust belief without evidence. Obedience is why I act, not belief. When I have evidence, then My belief is given proof one way or another. Does that not sound like the scientific process? I had a rule, one must become My lawful spouse before genitals would be employed. God Almighty allowed the union that the Lord created by spirit because it dealt with Putin's witchcraft. The LORD honoured the Lord's matchmaking of October 16, 2016.

And you, stupid mother fucker, still do not want Mercy. That must be some abortion stool warmer you are addicted to, to addle your judgement this badly that you prefer the Borg to resurrection. What makes sense to Me, is that even if you don't believe, it is possible to at least make room for Me, and just like Gurgevich, appreciate that from personal adversity, I Am indeed a Godsend so you can continue life better than before My reaching out to you during your distress. Why refuse a Samaritan, Jew? This is My hand.

I asked of Gurgevich, should he be incapacitated and require paramedics, what do I tell the hospital" Do I say, 'Do some minimal non extraordinary efforts to resuscitate him or keep him alive?' Gurgevich was emphatic, "Fuck no! They need to do everything medically possible. I do not want to die." I assured him I would not be a death doula. How much of Mark's save me at all cost is a function of the VA paying for his medical; I would not venture a guess. He is recovering from open heart surgery in My home. He is homeless by his own obstinate design. This is not about repairing your corrupted heart. This is about making room for the LORD so soldiers can conquer and have life because they do not fornicate. So, to date, Austin and all of America has made clear, only gods that promote fornication are welcome in the military? You stupid mother fuckers, you and Austin.

Refusing My hand means you are desperate to burn the Corps. The upshot of this is, I Am the High Priest of the Pentagon from Heaven, and no flesh can fuck over My power. Again, Heaven needs My power. The 23rd is when the LORD escalates the destruction of North America against all of its industries, and resources as discussed in this letter.
