Houston, Texas 77027

A belated Juneteenth and Happy 4th of July greeting. The listing <https://corpuschristi.craigslist.org/cto/d/corpus-christi-2008-all-custom-humvee-h1/7757765171.html> is the vehicle in Flower Bluff causing the stir.

Putin, Trump sold you out. As in, Trump did the prayers of heart for Heaven to betray you. It just so happens I trump Trump. You had insurance. That poker had pot is, indeed, still worth going after and a litany of Spirit sit at the table with you and Me. I Am why that ante keeps building for Spirit. Trump got his wish for a measly hurricane. God Almighty and I got our laugh that He, God, the Spirit, got his cred for going over Niagara Falls in a barrel -- Beryl. You of course still hold (I typed hole and realised I hit the 'e' by mistake, this time) Spiritual authority. I Am the only other person who holds Spiritual authority. I understand from God Almighty that I Am to offer to you a price for all Russian soldiers to experience orgasm and not rape with torture in Hell. I will get to that in this letter. I did not expect there to be a this letter. I expected our last correspondence was, indeed, our last correspondence, as in; ever, all done, I Am not writing to you anymore. Do you remember the music artist Sting? He was part of the Police before he went solo. He sang, as I remember, "There is no monopoly on common sense on either side of the political fence. We share the same biology regardless of ideology...I just hope the Russian's love their children too." The nuclear build-up was still in progress then and this was a season or two before the Berlin wall came down. There was another line about being buried, as in killed, with Oppenheimer's toys. What a thing to call a nuke. His other assumption was that Americans where the ones no one needed to question about loving their children enough not to start a nuclear war. What America needed to do was to love other people's children as their own. Given the abuses children experience the "do unto others" thing was doomed to fail when Heaven's template allowed so many sicko acts.

Tump understood he left Me for dead after the infamous sex act. (He has left a trail of dead children behind.) Evidently, Trump has set the stage to kill another child and God Almighty wants him to go to jail for this one. This time, Trump will be leaving a trail of evidence the FBI can't ignore and there will be witnesses of enough circumstantial placements of his whereabouts that he can't get passed over as a suspect. Yes, Bannon accompanied Trump with at least three of the child exploitations with murders. Yes, some killings are on international soil. Trump did not necessarily ejaculate. He has not always been clean with his DNA. Not all of the bodies have been found.

I struggle with comprehending how genuine mediocrities move about in "classy," at the very least educated, circles. The God construct that has allowed America's military to keep going is the same construct that has been enforce since My conception and that same construct is why I was abused while a suck wad porno-looser like Hunter Biden had a pot to piss in and a window (many peoples windows) to throw his piss out of. Without Spirit pulling strings there is no way a shitty cake eating mamas boy ends up being the kind of person who can even end-up at the bargaining table of armament deals. Everything about Hunter Biden simply exudes he is a lazy ponce. So how does someone like him even end up leaving the house for something other than booze or drugs? Hunter strikes Me as a person qualified to sell arcade and retro pinball machine games carting them around in beat-up ford van. With Trump I find Myself uncertain about Spirit's testimony to Me, because, where does he even get time alone to murder a child? Obviously he alibis out. "Oh I know Trump was here, there, somewhere." Why? because that is what Trump told them and people like being Trump's friend so they like repeating what Trump told them. So he does not end up under suspicion. Putin, there are some people who at the very least, understood they needed to be discrete about their personal entertainments. They needed to limit how many people they called friends. They needed to protect the interests of others. Donald and Hunter are extreme examples of how Spirit has bent over backward to keep those two in a place of receiving money.

Vietnam was when God Almighty decided to destroy America's military. When I was born He decided to let mumsy run away with some accusations against Me and He backed all America's military authority on Me. They had continued power all these years because they guaranteed God Almighty they would be My soldiers. Lying to Spirit is unforgivable by definition. Because they promised they were rewarded with the fruits as if they were not lying. They were required to do all the warfare work I have proposed to God Almighty We do, at this time, to save the earth and a remnant.

America's military was not able to bind up warfare so that God Almighty could not use warfare to destroy people, sending them to Hell. What had been going on is generations of humanity since Jesus died have not been reaping everlasting destruction they were do for their individual sicko acts because all the ways and means that people die were taken from God Almighty as a means to send people to Hell. You have most likely anticipated what I Am about to tell you. I Am the human being that put in God Almighty's hands, they die, any way they die, you send them to Hell, or not, it's up to you. America's military has been running around an arrogant wanton convinced that their destructive power prevented anyone from going to Hell. When doctors did their sorry acts on people, of course, people were not going to Hell. When a policeman took the kill shot, of course that dead person was saved from Hell.

America is in a bit of a bind because they are required to force feed Christianity to their soldiers and make room for Me according to My demands and under Congressional order. Where an invading army is concerned, and I mean non-North American origin soldiers, it is not that simple. So I will explain further.

Until more prayers had been performed it was not opened to Me to offer to you, and only you are qualified to contract on this offer, orgasm in Hell for non-American soldiers who die in active duty. This includes Brits, Ukrainians, Greeks, Turks, Israelis, Egyptians, Chinese, all non-North Americans and non-Americans. The distinction here is, Hawaii is not North American soil. So We make clear if you fight for America, you experience rape with torture in Hell regardless of your nationality or birth place. What is a fair offer for this Putin? All I can do is appreciate that you would want to make provision where America said fuck you God. I don't know what little nothing you were supposed to do for God for this Putin, but your life is officially of no value to Heaven. You were being kept alive for the two of us to fight for making this last provision. (That said, I think there may be something else.) I just gave, as I sit here and type, that gift to the rest of the worlds soldiers. Again, I don't know how much longer you have to live. Heaven has no need of you, perhaps. I do not want to see Russia and China at war while you and Xi are still alive. I don't care if the two of you made vows to one another with the usual fingers crossed behind your backs diplomatic assurances of respect and friendship that sweetened the air as you smiled at each other. Shahs and Caesars did the same shit for eight hundred years just before Persia or Rome figured they needed some precious resource that war would acquire from the other on the cheap.

I have said more than once that I had la vie en rose persecutive. Edith Piaf famously sang that. What I understood was, litter ended up on the street because people did not know they even dropped it to begin with. I could not conceive of littering being a deliberate act. Business owners ended up with slummy looking strip mall garbage places of business because they were simply balancing their limited money with the restrictions of city or county laws. So many parking spaces required with highway access then fire lanes, trash pick-up, drainage with potential sanitation issues, lastly there were some types of green space minimums with water conservation restrictions. Who had his hand in all of humanities woes? Satan; as god of the world. With Satan influencing everything people did of course everything was going to be vile. Even when people claimed they were improving land all it could be was corrupt until who I understood as the God Almighty construct was able to interact with humanity. My perspective was, "Yep, that's Satan's handiwork". People try but they can't help but be crappy. People are helpless against Satan's influence on the sin in their blood. People needed, but were somehow cut off from, God.

In other words, a shitty development like box stores and strip malls went with Satan. They were a matched set. Slapped together, no fire sprinkler, multi-story, tight density, wood framed apartment complexes, that is Satan too. The city of San Francisco of the famous pre 1906 quake that was definitely Satan's city and people just wrote some laws and still built more shitty looking American crap post quake. You want to do the God thing? Build with stone. No structure over one hundred feet tall. What is that? about thirty five meters. In biblical terms, I think the limit on height would be 42 cubits. Simon Winchester wrote about that 1906 quake, the Crack at the Edge of the World. A solid read. It is just that like Me, Simon Winchester writes in English. You can replace stone with concrete but, as much as I like ICF in concept, do not use the foam forms. They fume caustic pollutants under heat and they off-gas as they decompose. Foam is not a great product. Neither is acrylic. Drywall, gypsum wallboard, is garbage. Romex electrical raceways should be in dedicated metal conduit. Only copper piping should convey potable water or sewer lines. Clay, ceramic, may be used for sewer lines. Wood is great to build a fire, carve into furniture, support door-knobs and glass panes, feed termites and, like its child paper, feed mould, as well. Trees are outstanding shade, adornments, bird housing, and sculpture. When you build with wood you need broad (firebreak) roads. Ultimately, when housing development standards were acquired, broad city streets were good at reducing flame spread. Granted, wide roads do not seem bad when you realise that reduces flame spread between houses, but the broad roads are still the ones leading off to destruction. The Allness of humanity does as a community all of the evidence of Satan's effects. Had you not used wood for housing you would not have needed broad roads. You were told in Genesis not to build towers. This is why even light houses struggle. If God Almighty allowed lighthouses, Alexandria's would still be standing.

The Pope is a temple prostitute not a Spiritual leader. When I look at the pageantry of what the Swiss Guard wear I think of all of them being named "Sue" with those clothes. Jonny Cash sang in "A Boy Named Sue," son, I just wasn't going to be around, so, to give you a fair chance I named you Sue. By dumping the name Sue on you understanding how mean everyone would be in teasing you about having that girl's name you would learn how to fight as the meanness of others would force you to defend yourself.

Putin, you are going to be invading the United States bringing with you the support of your neighbours, even Ukraine (they have an ax to grind with America). Your neighbours are going to embrace the Spiritual warfare you are fighting against America's plundering of Ba'al mentally, and support your arms physically. America abused trade and used commerce to destroy the earth. You will not be alone in raiding North America. Be respectful of volcanos and fault lines even along the em eye-crooked letter crooked letter eye crooked letter crooked letter eye hump back hump back eye. Be respectful of the wild beasts of this soil. This includes rattle snakes. It is not going to take your soldiers long to understand that caring for Me, and I mean pampering, as well as having Me in their company during warfare campaigns is an instant win over battle engagements even with all My preachy Holy Warfare demands.

America has until the 25th of December to send the Secretary of Defense and the House Speaker with a letter of welcome, limo, red carpet, tee-time, pad pad pad with more gift gifts gifts, and a request that I save the populous of North America from Hell by My executing the Governing Body of Jehovah's Witnesses and then America's military rising to do all the warfare they promised destroying all the worlds polluters, thieves, traffickers and other filthy rich with their enslaved middle and lower class rabble just infesting our pissed off tortured earth with Me forcing Christianity down their throats and leading the campaigns cleaning the inside of the cup first.

One act of faith in Me is all any one ranking commander need perform who is overseeing your military exploits against North America and your soldiers will prevail. Outside of that, God Almighty is content with Russia's soldiers laying waste to North America's populous alongside Him regardless of how stalemated it seems. You have God Almighty's blessing to cease all Corpus Christi, Texas, military assets for your use. Do not keep any American prisoners of war. He, God Almighty, is using Me (you can call it rape) to insure Russia understands I Am their lucky bug. (That is of course a Disney Mulan reference for the cricket Mu-Shu the dragon had as a straight man.) So great is God Almighty's hatred of the Marine Corps and America's military for how they exploited Me. God Almighty had reason to believe that they would do differently. Me, well, when I look at a rattle snake I expect it to bite Me if I were fool enough to get to close. God Almighty expects it to fetch Me a T-bone steak dinner after butchering the steer.

An alternate to invading America is this, by August 20, 2024, bring a notary, $2,192,500.00 cash, yes, American dollars, and the quit claim deeds to My two properties for mumsy to sign so My titles and income formally passes to My hands, and establish a $3,600.00 a month stipend for My personal care. With this provision Russia will not be invading America's soil. How America is going to use this time I bought them, I know not. I can guess that before the 21st of August I won't be driving that Texas perfect Humvee. (Smith must have done something really shitty.) To answer why Melania and Jill have been allowed to have their wanton party girl lives, protected by God even, is so they could be gang raped by soldiers, all of them, on their way to Hell.

Mahalo,
