Explaining what it means to pull yourself from the fire by helping Me.

Putin, in brief, everything that I do makes provision for people to follow Me to the letter, as it were, so that they live to be the remnant populous of the earth, and perhaps even to the age of one thousand years. This of course applies in this present epoch of humanity. The total and complete die-off is allowable. What is certain, to Me is those that live -- under My orders -- do not experience Hell. What is simultaneously happening with My deeds of obedience to the Divine? God Almighty is getting the souls in payment He is due. Serve Him or Me. Serve Me as a faithful slave and you do not go to Hell. Serve Him, and you go to Hell in your own lorry as in, the one you choose and drive for yourself.

Putin, as far as My thinking is concerned, there is not one thing you can do to save the entire nation of Russia. Who do I know for a certainty can be saved? Those that invade America's soil in warfare, learn that I Am indestructible, inviolable, and in some quirky inexplicable way, indispensable, and then by sheer observation of what it is to establish a friendship with Me, then go out with just a mapping of My name to My face and do great deeds of derring-do in warfare. Then what? Well, they need to improve themselves as people because that is what I'm preaching. If they improve, they live. If they do not, they end up drifting out to the edges of a campaign, do major destruction, and go to Hell without out God Almighty wasting that kamikaze idiot's ammunition.

What I understand, Putin, is that Russia's earthly millennial fulfilment -- started in about 980 AD -- is fulfilled in you. (You didn't end up hosting Satan for nothing.) We would need to turn a page as it were, on going forward with a quasi clean slate that set the Russian populous, now slated for Hell, on a new path to be saved from Hell. That requires faith on your part as you must do, physically -- meaning with material property -- as I Am flesh. You would need to contract with the Pentagon for Operation Earth's Salvation. The nice thing is, is that without their honouring Me and establishing My Holy suite of Offices at the Pentagon they have no ability to do diddly squat in that direction. That stupid bunch actually have been labouring under auspices of My being used by God Almighty as some kind of sacrifice to save their asses and they think they have been keeping Me alive, stopping God Almighty from destroying Me too early so they at the Pentagon get their biggest jolt of satisfaction ordering the way and means of God Almighty's killing Me. Brutally murder Me to save that sick wad of witch-raffing fornicators. They would have even had film. Sans film, like the Jews did Jesus.

Who else has been labouring under this idea of killing Me to save all the sickos? God knows, perhaps Russia or Israel have too. That is what it means to be the bait, Putin. I Am the bait that God Almighty has to throw into the Divine to lure out how badly people want Spirit do to their personal killing for them of other people, flesh, when they as flesh -- the praying person -- is invited to the prayer banquet, talking to God, pouring out their hearts. You look around you and you see Israel setting its own trap to be wiped out. You observe the insane devotion in peoples obsession over Trump. God Almighty is driving peoples thinking. I Am making sure that Hell is peopled and only those obedient to Me can be saved from Hell. You have the ability to save some from Hell. But, Putin, it requires faith in Me.

Go ahead Pentagon, take the fucking kill shot! I absolutely agree that the West, especially America, is not getting enough of a spanking in Ukraine. It is time for the Ukrainians to understand the kind of tools and inferiors they are to the sophisticated Westerners. England and America's regarding Ukraine as a backward nation that needs to be overhauled once they have signed with NATO needs to be exposed. Let's watch who exposes how the West requires changes, because Ukraine just isn't quite up to snuff. You and I both know the amount of Divine print on that NATO deal does not coincide with Ukraine's understanding of their own national value. Let's let Ukraine have their eyes opened at how few Ukrainians there are that would benefit from being a Western trader. (Right, I almost typed traitor. They have no idea how they as a people would be betrayed by the West. Did you know that the Norse word that stuck in English, slave, is from the people designated Slav? In spite of his Cambridgeness, Orlando Figes is a fave. I Am at present reading his The Story of Russia. I started it last night after finishing Peter Frankopan's The Earth Transformed. An outstanding read. Frankopan's book included, I have managed to read forty-eight titles, of similar type, in the last year. Yes, a book a week-ish. Reading is what there is to do. There are no people to associate with, nor places to be a part of here in America. I Am too poor to go to DC and without a vehicle, I can't even take in a drive to get a good cup of coffee in San Antonio on the waterfront. I have been enslaved to duty in the USMC. That, like reading, is what there is to do in Corpus Christi, Texas, the fuck hole. No, I have no associates. Being the Christ, and worse female, puts Me in a serious disadvantage because I Am a snob who likes really expensive entertainments, and people who want to learn to be Christians; damn good Christians. Equitation, golf, and intensive scholastic endeavours are enjoyable, and I never take a 'break' to do lazy ass shit. I hate both television and aimlessly surfing the web. When the television is on, I will stay in the room to knit, sew, or do something to benefit Myself provided it is a rerun -- familiar -- or new enough news. The USMC, at the least, are required to be learn to be Damn Good Christians, each and every one of them, for even one to have access to Me.)

Putin, I don't know what puts you in a place of faith to be My follower. The last thing I would do is make you give up you possessions to follow Me. That would defeat the purpose of having you follow Me. You become My follower, and the full and total populous of the former USSR body of nations are saved from Hell. Other people have to work their God Damned asses off to even obey My orders or have access to Me, then they just live -- presumably till the Hell harvest is up. I lack faith in that provision, Putin. It is true, so I write it, regardless of My faith. This apparent one-to-one relationship status of our lives Divine importance, I will explain. The Pentagon could labor over the importance of killing Me and "keeping Me alive for their key time" because your life being kept alive did matter, until of course, God Almighty wanted to send everyone to Hell sans Me. The Pentagon's foundation of using Me as a sacrifice was partial information in the extreme, Putin. It is typical of people's divining. It is what happens when people go after destroying Spirit or using Spirit to destroy others, for them. When people witchcraft they are building a foundation for themselves on all the accusations that My place in Heaven was accused of, before My genetics could be brought to bear. People were proving they aligned with the accuser with the god they worshipped based on the works of faith they would do with their prayers. Because God Almighty can't get Me to do His killing of key people for Him, He gets them to do it to themselves. Trump builds His own snare, and so help Me, you too. But, you as one person can be My follower and save so many from Hell. America's greed to kill Me to 'save' them, from what they would be saved from Putin, I couldn't tell you, but they were going to be 'saved' by making God Almighty kill Me. Quite honestly I think they were simply being 'saved' from being My slaves. I had rejected these disgusting fuckers a long time back from being anything related to Me. When Ted was killed I had no person to save. My team of Spirit I saved for their future because these I have not known I prove to Heaven were better to Me than those of flesh who I have known. In all of your Divine relations, Putin, you as one person save so many, perhaps, just as I did, for certain. I just so happens you save flesh from Hell and I saved Spirit.

Putin, how do We make you My follower? I suppose We could move Me to Saint Petersburg, I need to pack My library and Have a few personal belongings that I would take. You fornicate, you go to Hell. But, you provide for Me and the USSR is saved, from Hell. You want a long life? You want to live to see America conquered? Moving Me opens up possibilities that We have not discussed. You would also need to make posthumous arrangements for Me through the Kremlin. How do We, of Team God, get you to make such a simple provision for one person to save so many from Hell?

I will tell you what I prefer. That I prefer this is because it requires you do nothing, I can't imagine you donating to Me even the thong of you sandal, let alone, shelter Me. I have no way of being disappointed again like I was when I anticipated and prepared for meeting Ted, if I anticipate you will do nothing. And belief of your doing nothing to benefit Me does not require God almighty dinking with My personal belief system. Since the default is you do nothing you must do to get the reward. (Granted, Ted is on Trump, not you. I still grieve the individual I knew from God Almighty Ted was.) I prefer to stay here and enjoy doing My own derring-do and building that precious congregation of Russians on the QT based on things I can believe in when Russian soldiers are storming Corpus Christi, Texas, between Mexican engagements, presumably before they conquer the naval base here. But if you believe that you would be saving your people from Hell by sponsoring Me, by all means, do it. It is sure cheap. My belief is based on what I observe happening. American soldiers I end up in the path of are just looking to antagonise Me as some kind of patsy. I walk away. Few ever know for certain I knew they were soldiers. Russians would not have the ability to be that stupid in their assumptions about Me. God Almighty can rile them up to do so much killing for Him that I end up a mega curiosity that He can introduce based on their personal observations. All He does with a fellow American is send a message through their soul that they translate as, "Look, just another never was. She's pathetic. Bet she just came from the VA clinic." That must make it easier to understand, Putin, why American's are in the place of treating Me like trash.

I would need a little room to be Me after you became My follower. I would like to have a vehicle again and I enjoy traveling on rail. I would like university access and to be able to keep growing My secular aptitudes and of course have the privilege of speaking comfortably among the Russian people Russian. So, I would have much to learn and need to be in an environment that facilitates My learning. My being here, in Corpus, is an advantage for Russia to conquer Corpus Christi, Texas, as a base of operations. I Am willing to move with military campaigns, even in the Black Sea, so you can enjoy all the goodness of hosting the Ark, the real one who would like to be wearing gold.

If Ukraine coming to its senses presents assurance to you, great. They need it regardless. Do you want a sign, Putin, to put faith in following Me? The LORD will lead you. Saving so many from Hell He is not obligated to do. And that was a period. So that I have provision, grand provision, He will do the Heavenly derring-do to put you in the place of taking everyone to Hell with you, or saving them, with you having the certain knowledge you were the one that made that fate happen by allowing the abuses of Me to continue unchecked or by providing for Me.

Given the gift that is in this letter, whatever bullshit the Pentagon thinks it has going on, now you can understand why they were allowed to keep piling on the shitty behaviours against Me. What they have done is created a gauntlet as a nation that condemns them all on an epic scale as the Pentagon is required to employ Me for so many deeds to turn back from going to Hell and they the military are still required to do the work they are at present too inept to perform. They need the Divine to perform warfare and they fucked the Divine over. What they have left is Me to save those that chose to be Damn Good Christians. Me they also fucked over. But, alas, it is war, spiritual or not, war is not for the faint of heart, or lezbos. Lesbians are a warfare disaster -- regardless of nation. The gauntlet of dependence on Me is what the Jehovah's Witnesses created by turning the LORD into a Ba'al whilst I was being better than they and everyone else. That the US Military is just a bunch of fuckers is old news, and they are required to do some derring-do to get My forgiveness.

As long as you draw breath Putin, you can send a team to seize possession of Me. I Am the civilian dressed king in rags willing to be your servant. Putin, I Am the target you, personally, can pick up with a hanky. You can take possession Putin, but I Am required to be cared for, ministered over even. You do nothing God Almighty wins and I win. Come December 26, 2024 and God Almighty is pulling out the stops on making Me that mega king of the Earth. With this letter Putin I Am asking you, save your people from Hell. I can still rise to kingship after you kick the bucket.

Mahalo,

Dr. H. L. MacRae (mac) Dukes LTG USMC
