*A*merica built its military might like a bird building a nest. It found some tensile here, a bit of cheese paper there from a burger wrapper, a shoe-lace from a gutter, twigs off tumbleweeds, dead indigenous grasses from paved abandoned urban prairies, and even odd bits of rubber from broken fan belts that had decayed in the street. The nest served. Other birds were doing the same thing. They were simply building from what was available in its urban environment that had so many commercial entities eating-away at Holy order that warfare preserved. America's problem is they did not perform the work that made their nest the one the LORD would prevail upon. Germany, like Russia, has other gods. I built the LORD's nest. It just so happened that the nest, that has only been invented in My mind, is a better place of rest for the LORD than all of the structure the military of America has built its nest with. Had America intended to concrete the military's chattels as what bonded the LORD to them, they would have payed the revolutionary solders. (Fuck you Pelosi.)

In short, the United States has to wage Holy Warfare, or it no-longer is allowed to host a military body. This is why Congress was required to pay Me and develop the honours of My office into law to use the military in the way and means it had been formed from the Divine. You see Congress across all the states with its governors was divining My office with witchcraft. And here I Am, the faithful product of divination; just as what the Israelites had built using gold and acacia wood with the gods enslaving their two unskilled fleshly hands to make that fabulously ornate Ark of the LORD. Too bad you made gold into an idol, Carter; or you would have been allowed to use the gold in Fort Knox as your ark. You dumb fucks. You got a Two-Fer! From the Jews learning the skills required to support the Ark of the LORD, even in a tent, and build the Ark itself, they were the skilled labor that fed even the Barbarians. This is why they were allowed to blow the LORD to bits ending up in Nebuchadnezzar's care.

Dearest Steinmeier, there are deeds that military commanders in America have been performing for decades, that did, allow them to get away with reprehensible behaviour, under the "boyfriend" plan, that I Am unraveling. In other-words it is a blasphemy for the United States Marine Corps to hold-onto the slogan, Semper Fidelis. They simply have been getting away with it because Commandant David H. Berger was being granted every opportunity to do, as he swore, to preserve the ritual that allowed him to use decaying rubber in the nest, even a discarded prophylactic, instead of finding a willow branch. Then General Berger decided he could be a clever dick because there was no way I would be teasing out what ritual allowed him to replace a willow brach with a used Trojan. Three other branches of the service did likewise and the Space Force is just bull-shit. But, like a good sport I will make clear what the Air Force did even in its history so the Space Force could hold onto a corner of My protection without doing one righteous deed and still have a twig to nest upon.

This letter proves to be far more intriguing that what I sent Putin, does it not? Taking apart their nest so they are accountable on the world stage is exactly what I Am doing. This explains why there was no fucking way God Almighty would set up some kind of dummy office, like other paper cut warriors at the Pentagon, sandboxing Me so I could just build a few sandcastles in sublime obscurity from the rest of the world's endeavours. It does not work that way. Kick America out or be destroyed by the LORD. America is not allowed to have the honour of taking Germany. More pages beyond this introduction will be posted as time and understanding permit. Like other mysteries this, too, is being revealed.

Last night I extemporised about Donald J. Trump. He planted the document(s) that the Federal case was built upon. He knows that it is a false document(s) that shields the real evidence because he created the document(s). This documentation, his own personal leak, at it were, is his way of planting the evidence that the Divine uses to shape peoples belief system. If you want to learn more about Donald Trump, you will need to conference with Me directly. When I say he is a bimbo it is because he refuses to learn enough about every endeavour he puts his hands to to have authority over the information he "leaks." He learns just enough to do the badness to force payment not enough to make sure the honest work is ever performed under contract that payment is made for.

Returning to the nest, all of these deeds top military command earned their command in obedience to the Divine rising thorough the ranks in America performing, are the deeds that as far as they were concerned, were what cinched they did not need to do one fucking thing to make room for the LORD in the military for. I Am the one who forced the requirement, make room for the LORD. To keep their fucking show of "boyfriend" tactics by May 2019 My matrimony needed to be bound under law. I even held onto Stephen/"Ted" until Trump murdered that vessel. No matrimony meant I made My march to the sea, as they say, more emphatically and lethal than Sherman. Just as they were allowed their freedom to perform their office, I was allowed the same to perform mine. Just like Washington, I was allowed to work for no wages, leading warfare.

More on My military compatriots deeds is to come in the remaining weeks of June. They already know this will hurt, a little. But from adversity We grow. A reminder, I have three stars upon thars. Only in America is a decorated military officer regarded as a fucking moron by the masses and their own Congress forcing how the money is spent. Accusing Me of stupidity, weakness, foolishness, cupidity, or all other manner of being a simpleton I Am going to make very costly for Americans until I Am rid of these accusers on this sacred soil.

It is the morning of June 13, and I Am not labouring over this letter's promised unravellings again yet. I did enjoy a particularly industrious day of activity yesterday. That is always reason to thank the LORD. I never thought of Myself as lucky. I do not recall giving thanks to the LORD, My God Construct, for happenstance "lucky" events in My life and I was never thankful for a "lover." I just cursed Myself that I ended up on another bad date that did not secure matrimony. Recently, when I could Make jokes about being "lucky" because I knew how that god existed, I started asking God if He wanted Me to "buy a lottery ticket?" He assured Me not to waste My money, and "I would not draw a winning ticket."

Steinmeier, you owe Me $1,000,000.00 guaranteed unencumbered specie to cover Greyhound's debt. How do you want the LORD to take that out of Germany? You have until July 1, 2023, to pay that asshole! The whores warming abortion stools in Washington can experiences the consequences with you!

Mahalo,
