The Doors in a din of smoke, drugs, celebrity, and alcohol, deliver seduction, "Come on baby light my fire." Sending smoke signals or using a smoke screen, playing with fire gets one burnt. One would think, burning off pubic hair in a camp fire caused by one's own breaking wind was enough of a lesson. Lessons from the wickedness playbook continue.

President Putin, monkeys are known to play with their shit. Accounts of baboons flinging excrement at the gawkers amuse those that did not receive dung in the kisser. When a human goes after bestial entertainment they are hardly demonstrating that they have evolved! The question on evolution is not, "What did humans evolve from; but, when will humans finally evolve?" From the Divine the question is, "Why would Allness want to take ownership of humanity?"

Now that you understand why the debate over creation exists, let us continue with your situation. Your military is now under Heaven's command. This is independent of Me, to a point. You want to hold onto Russia preventing marital law with anarchy? You have until July 1, 2023, to bring an escort and the total and complete keys to the Russian kingdom, all of it, to My hand.

In, fairness, on My arrival in Russia -- assuming you follow though in keeping your promises -- things I will fight for include annihilating the JW's, Jews, the Russian Orthodoxy, unifying religion and building a new economy off of the plunder.

You hand over to Me with the arrival of your escort, with the Kremlin's seal, blessing, is the total freedom and right to perform this military action. This is what deposing your Tzar left on the table. I will be maintaining civil law and obedience, on the whole, with the military under My command. Otherwise, after July 1, 2023, Heaven no longer is helping you. Enjoy your winnings, Putin.

Mahalo,
