More and more service males and females of America will be exposed publicly for misconduct. (People understand their shit stinks, now. They are still held to a higher standard. That standard I set, while military can be fuckers, still, others find fault with them because they "know" military is not doing to its high standards and the offended use every thought God can give them to take down the offender.

Putin, My letter stream to Bull, the Divine assured Me, left you a little jealous? Many words I write to you expressing some of My musings and quandaries with God Almighty. (Evidently this was never mailed. I only posted it online.)

I defined military dress, conduct, and warfare prowess. Regardless of who knows what of My definition, because My definition is defaulted on, God can use any thought an offended person can find from within themselves to smack the shit out of the offending military personnel.) With My ministries global presence their tastelessness went viral. I expected to see an upswing in classy, dignified, studious, venerable (chivalry is going too far) marks of Godliness in their behaviour. Were they Godly? No, they became vile in their reasonings and proved their wanton lusts in a way that I had no ability to think that people who bathed or showered regularly were even capable of wanting to perform. Let alone, be willing to wallow in animal wastes and fertility fruits with such shamelessness. So, of course, I Am shocked at them. I Am not shocked that you, perhaps, and in the most tasteful fashion of the fashionable people of means, gamble. I will not ask for My winnings. Obviously a Casablanca reference.

Fertility fruits? Fish make love in the ocean squirting out their eggs and sperm and shit there too. SEALs (the special forces variety) are the best living example of those who love filth, evidently. I didn't think that way about the ocean as plant spores in air are no different than fish eggs and sperm in water. But batshit land governs so many things. With the onset of Ggodly demonstrations people have been proving they did for Satan. I didn't know that was even possible for getting Godly credit. I thought God had never interacted with a single person ever by the sicko shape of our world. God would not allow some bad to get mostly good. God all or nothing is Good. (Hence dumping leaven; eating crackers once a year.) Spirit actually sold to Me, I was their chosen One to deliver the Divine message for modern times salvation. (I didn't understand why the Pope wasn't doing this either. Why use a pathetic thing that has nothing? I have written about that already.)

Getting back to SEALs. My ocean experiences, even in Hawaii, came with a mumsy terror package. Taking a bath as a child I liked. I didn't have the perspective that I was sitting in My own filth. The filth was "neutralized" by the soap suds. It was the miracle of soap that I was willing to sit in water that was cloudy while bathing. In Hawaii the water was clear and the stray bits of slimy floating seaweed were visible. I was terrified of seaweed touching Me. So terrified of it touching Me in the water, that I cried out in fits of terror while vigorously pushing Myself away from the offending slimy vegetation. There wasn't a way for Me to separate the idea that the vegetation was innocuous from the offending feeling of the tickling slimy thing brushing against Me. A slimy thing creeping up on Me was a no no. Did I think of a sea creature, like jellyfish, being with the seaweed? No. It was not that sophisticated a terror. Did I dislike that fish lived in the water and think of fish producing fish and eating and shitting? No. I had not reached that level of reasoning to make those kinds of distinctions. (This is why children go through phases of likes and dislikes.) I still don't like seaweed nor swimming in water where the shallows, the first seventy or so feet, are not clear to the bottom. Deeper depths seems bottomless. This particular terror created a placeholder because of how mumsy "programmed" My childhood baths. That programming of hers created a placeholder for Me to prove Myself to Heaven at a later time. It is not wrong to earn ones living swimming with the fishes. It is, however, an illustrative tool God Almighty has to show someone smack-dab in-plain-sight-ish that a person is just a pervert who would fuck anything because of all the fucking fluid and shit in the ocean they even unwittingly swallow. It is the fight between God Almighty and mumsy that should have put people in that place of doing all the Ggodly goodness when My ministry started. I expected to see Ggodly goodness and I was shocked that I did not. The smug satisfaction of people certain they achieved some kind of internal nirvana is obvious to see. I didn't understand why people are so satisfied with their filth. They demonstrated their love of every perversion on earth mumsy made available in the batshit land of reasoning that issued Spirit coin, belief. This belief is what has Trump building his own gallows. Everyone is doing that for themselves. All this self-gallows building is related to honest-to-goodness hard-corps undeniable how-it-all works Truth. My soul is how Spirit, Allness in totality, shuts down the way people have been allowed to think of solutions based on the half truths they relied on to think, be creative or inventive, or justify choices. I teach the cognitive, spoken, written, illustrative, depths to Heaven. All of you have been dictating to Heaven with some people forcing their Spirit to rely more on others. Some people, the top level niggers, simply have been handed other peoples Spirit authority because no Spirit, unlike people, were allowed to be a Jonah. The Lamb kept truth going with the little sleazinesses and puns in every form of selling and building products. I have written about that in detail. Like the in-plain-sight truth of earning a living swimming in the ocean being a God Almighty message, the Lamb worked similarly. The Lamb was doing everything possible to ensure the Baal was perfected. Once the Trumps of the world reneged on their promises they got God Almighty power with, world destruction was game on. That date was July 1, 2019. This makes Trump a reneger. Okay, but I Am not respelling it. It sounds the same as nigger and We are keeping My new definition to the old racial slur. So, Trump is both. They all are. Putin, you had Me as your back-up. Your promises can't be reneged on. You are just going to hell. By May 12, 2012, (or so, it was the roll over wreck morning) all of My thought pathways were shut down until I was not allowed to be alive. I have explained this.

Back to the narrative of things to look for, more people will be falling out of the sky from negligence and in retribution for mocking Me just as Iran's president did. Yes, you are right, the marines that went down in that California storm earned it. When American service persons attack Me they are sent to hell by Team God. Taking to the air and being on the ocean is an engraved invitation, as they say. When people take to the air or ocean they are welcoming the perfect opportunity for Team God to interceded and incapacitate the key crew members at the key moment killing them all.

We will call it the greater Iran-Iraq region for this discussion, Iran had one shot at not defaulting decaying into total anarchy taking Iraq with it. I was to be their King with God killing the President personally to welcome Me to Iran. Stability in the Middle East is over.

Egypt will tear into Africa to unite it after and potentially coincident with annihilating Israel. And America with the United Kingdom wad will be slaughtered by very efficient killers there. Male and female indigenous Africans will be wiping out all non-indigenous peoples. British half-bloods won't even survive. I give Africa's annihilation of those invaders twenty years. The Aussies are more or less a breeding populous for soldier meat. They will have their own problems adjusting to how they can feed and maximize their resources capitalizing on the collapse of Eurasia and the remaining United Kingdom, establishing slavery over Indonesia and the Philippines to maintain order in the Pacific, kinda co-ruling with Japan, ultimately maintains some larger commerce. That the Aussies will employ slavery to prolong some of the world's lifespan, is unlikely. Ultimately Japan will wipe out Australia with New Zealand. That survivorship of Japan is decades out from happening.

Because of the blasphemy of America against Me I have what I regard as miracles to look forward to. What are they? Well, America is again going to be experiencing a series of COVID variants that hundreds of people in towns just die in the night while sleeping, or as they are driving, or walking, or working, with no apparent leading symptoms. Their breath will just be gone from them. Whole towns will be wiped out in weeks and cities in months. What is the contagion? Being a civilian on North American soil. For the rest of the world the contagion is receiving products manufactured or packaged in North America, including packaged foods. This includes, but is not limited to, alcohol, fire arms, tobacco, cocaine, heroin, cannabis, mushrooms, furs, jews, metals, and even garbage. Did a land fill in China take delivery on a shipload of American "recyclables" -- aka garbage? Dump them in with old tires and light a fire. Tire fires are great long burning hot miseries. Dumping North American products into the fire will preserve to the level of the one who did the dumping. Otherwise, even that garbage is a killer up to the level that approved the garbage delivery. If the Mayor ordered the dumping and the people dumped all the North American shit in their local fire, those people will be saved. Otherwise coming to North America is certain death and having North American products or hosting North American civilians will put the owner or host at seventy percent risk of death from this variant. A small proportion on non-North American soil will survive this.

I Am of course immune and the cure. No one is cured for free. And no-one wants the cure to begin with. Even if My order to cure them was simpler than sending them bathing in the Jordan, fuck you is the response to My blood products. Why has the medical establishment been allowed to become such a monster? Because people refuse to work for their own cure or accept death. Like people choosing obesity, laziness, and being dirty, then by forty it is catching up to them big time. Then they impudently demand some miracle pill and expect it should be at least paid for by the government.

I expect under God Almighty's Word to see all North Americans die within a decade from this COVID and "natural disaster" while I have no difficulty living alone cleaning up this soil, because, the disease will not ever go away. It is the killer that only a persons total slavery to Me, and I have no slaves, allows people to live in North America and only under My special written invitation may anyone come to My Hawaii home. Obviously, Hawaii's statehood was upheld so all those people can share in North America's destruction. (Of course Japan will test this. Hawaii the whole archipelago belongs to Me.) Obviously soldiers are owned, slaves, of the government.

I Am promised a far more meaningful miracle locally, however, that I want to see. I Am promised the greater Gulf region, sans My little abode here on Dody street, being flattened keeping people from returning to the region for weeks as the succession of storms, with its paths of debris, will prevent Me from seeing neighbours for at least a fortnight. I won't be leaving. mumsy might. A two-week vacation from being tortured by the United States Government given to Me by Team God. Those storms are expected at any time. They will last as long as pleases God. Christmas Eve is when COVID hits. That gives the Pentagon a last morning to include Me or this new COVID overtakes the world.

Will SEALs decide they don't want to fornicate anymore? Not a chance. Why would they quit when their wives are so fucking vile to them. They would need to live without, sex. So, to Africa with the fucking Brits they go. The illustrative way to send them all to hell. I Am fairly certain I have reason to regret soldiers receiving a fleshly resurrection. It is done, however. I have a joke to Team God, "One had better do too much than too little on such occasions." What is the sicko catch 22 with this? To save America's chances, having a remnant population, the Navy and coast guard are to be broken down and sucked into the Marine Corps and the Air Force with the Space Force need to be disbanded and taken into the Army including eliminating National Guard Air and Land forces sucking them into the Army proper. These two entities are placed under My sole executive authority. North America is only allowed active duty military survivors. No civilians, ever. Putin, on the topic of space shit (mentioning the Space Force is the space shit segue,) start destroying satellites! Ground your astronauts. I don't give a shit if they call themselves cosmonauts, ground them. Why sicko? I would have never asked for people to do or believe the impossible. All things being possible with God is a function of time, at the very least. I would never have built a system where more than one person was required to let it all ride on Me. That is another way of saying, only over My dead body could Allness have gotten a separate consciousness. Just refer to My website Allness discussions for now. Indeed the LORD made perfection happen.

The American government does not want to save its military. God Almighty does not need to keep anyone alive, sans Me. I made some prayers a few weeks back and let go of Kaliningrad in exchange for Russia going to war with China. You know the spielen, only with Me it is not a slaughtering, landscape striping, population depleting -- because you two will be going after civilians -- calamity that demonstrates the full mockery of Me your two nations have woven into your military fabric. China will use this to bomb their own civilians. They were trying to get America to fight them for the same purpose. The China objective was two hundred million elite, hard working, utopian, educated, of communist perfection, making over the forty hour work week picking up where Ford died off. Why Russia instead of the US? The Russians are better fuckers.

Isn't this wonderful? As long as you avoid an assassins bullet you will witness much of North America's destruction before even your natural death. The destruction of the Gulf of Mexico commences June. I have two years of books to read -- company to wait all this out -- and can commence cleaning up this soil from the Heavenly destruction and plague because bodies will be stacking up here in Corpus. Finally, honest work with results I can appreciate. This destruction is what Heaven has to end My being tortured without those keys. It is the only way, sans getting those keys, that exists for Me to demonstrate My talents and when everyone is dead I have no need to worry about money to pay Me, nor do I need permission to work. I can find My sought after book titles, plant a garden, create composting regions for bodies, isolate recyclables, establish potable water reserves do all those civilization building things. It is all the domestic animals that perish that will go rough on Me. I would never do anything to prevent My missing experiencing the miracle of deliverance I have begged Heaven for since I was a teenager. I begged for honest work. I begged Heaven, Jehovah, for a means to support Myself that honorably utilized My talents. By the time I was eighteen, the only thing that remained to fulfil My prayer was the destruction of the world, because No way was anyone going to have Me as their King. And Me as King, was the only way anyone had a chance at not being destroyed by Heaven. Being destroyed by Heaven is what going to hell is. I fought to educate Myself so I could be a steward over humanity, a genuine King. So, many people, were given the opportunity to go after being that king. Finally the lying stacked up that My life was used to keep the whole world of fuckers going. I was only allowed to die once for all time. Once it was proven to Heaven that My death was all that remained, because, I was not allowed to be alive by the orders of the whole world, your destruction was orchestrated. Furthermore, y'all forced the destruction methods.

I then started My ministry and all these wondrous ways opened up for people to die the world over in a cataclysmic display of Heaven's authority over flesh. What I thought I was fighting for, with My ministry, was people's salvation. I was teaching God Almighty all the ways open to Him to kill all of you. And that is what He is doing. Lying to Him cost you your life. It is the unforgivable sin. You go to hell and are eliminated, in time. Lying to God Almighty is sinning against the Spirit. Now you know why the Jehovah's Witnesses know nothing about that too.

Putin, what you have read is the God Almighty message. For North America it is irreversible by mid-day Christmas. I fought for something for you. Okay, kinda. America's salvation is a military linkage. There is salvation possible for only active duty military. What is the problem? I enslave them in a dictatorship that rewards honest warfare (meaning no fornication). They have the blessing of family, education, success in battle, and demonstrating living as a glorious sacrifice worthy of the LORD's notice. I save by means of forcing people to demonstrate works to prove their faith or things are so desperate they know just to follow orders because their faith is shit. By Christmas I get that total authority over the military or that COVID starts wiping these fuckers out and there is also the Africa mess.

What did I make possible for you? Well, damn little when you get down to it, other than My sneaking in the back door of the Kremlin and reworking the government of Russia so that those who have abused your trust in their keeping you in power are brought to justice, which face it, executions are game on unless we just get Romanov, for example, to surrender every ruble and valuable back to the state in exchange for leaving Russia. All the JW's are executed. All those non Romanov types can simply convert to Christianity. Now you understand why Russia will just end up split into three and there will be a decline in population due to massive warfare, at least. Do you want to make Kaliningrad My military state on paper and hand Me those keys?

What else is there? I can't tell you what would happen if My butt were moved to Russia, with My two cats and houseful of nothings that mean something to Me, and I were supported with an endowment that allowed Me to live in a highly respectable manner on Russia's money. It is a function of what My presence is to people. In other words, its a blind gamble where the house always wins and I Am always fighting the house to save people. The difference is the act of faith in moving and supporting Me.

You have never experienced that blessing. I met a Russian student at Cal State Fullerton in 1989, Fall semester. We attended the same English composition class. There was too much in play with the English instructor. She was a bad one. As in, I was most likely there to deal with her. It is in the way Heaven has had Me to throw into the fire all these years, so I got to take in a semester of College, at that time. After that I was maneuvered to Gerald Owen Booth. A writing assignment required peer reviewing papers -- anonymously to the instructor -- and I was not allowed to stand up to this Russian male, who handed Me his paper, and tell him the paper he wrote answered the question the instructor demanded but she was looking for a cry baby wa-wa type of detail to support the papers meaning. "I struggled so, am rending my breast things were so da da da bad" is what she wanted. It was in the assignment statement. The assignment directive was not written that way but even I thought she was making dramatic demands. He wrote like he was filling out a military form. All I was allowed to tell this Russian student was I liked his paper. Which I did like not having to read wa-wa. I wrote some wa-wa. I recall letting the Russian know that is what I did to meet the assignment. The instructor was furious that he didn't dig and poor out some big wa-wa and at least I was able to let her know, later, I was responsible for the good remark that meant he didn't write what she was looking for. He would have been held to My remarks in the grading rubric and I took her heat for his paper. If she adjusted his grade up or made other arrangements, I don't know how, but most likely it became a private matter between them and he earned a higher mark that kept him in the class. He didn't speak to Me again. And I knew to keep My eyes low for the remaining eight weeks or so of class.

My guess is that he confronted her because he earned a B and not an A and what she told him was that it was a D paper at best but the peer review gave a good review so he got the B because the reviewer did an F job.

All I can do is offer an olive branch. That what I offer does not move you to take a chance is understandable, from My perspective. Why should anyone believe that one person, flesh, is a path to salvation? I don't. I Am incapable of believing in any human being. All I can do is put My faith in Spirit to direct My steps to keep Me alive at least. That My life is shit, as in God Almighty has nothing good to lead Me to, is why everyone is going to hell. That caveat about flesh leaves open the understanding that billions of people have no concept that Spirit backed Jesus as flesh. Top level niggers, clearly, have been making God Almighty dance. I was the One backing His jig. Others, who are flying high in stardom as more than influencers, lied to God Almighty about what they would do for Him in return. I did the work of providing surety. These are the people, who like you, know Jesus was backed by the Divine. Other people just think in terms of comic-book character abilities "somehow" in his genes. These people obviously needed Putin blinders so they could walk on two legs, so to speak.

Putin, what do you want that is different than going to hell? America wants to go to hell. To them they can take the whole world with them. Yes, to this date the whole rest of the world can go to hell and is indeed condemned. But, tell Me what you want and I will pray. You would still need to speak those words to Me physically and then My prayers would begin. It rests on your shoulders to take My olive branch. The whole world outside North America has handed you all of their Spiritual authority of belief. This means, to My way of speaking, they have Putin blinders. Similar to the welder blindness analogy I delivered to [SPAM] Bull D. Fred. You take My hand and when they have no blinders anymore then We scramble to establish a new world order. Come to think of it. I don't think I want to work that hard. Hanging out in Corpus while the continent is wiped out works. Less work, more opportunity for Me to see how Spirit is keeping Me going. I end up alone while the rest of the world is in rapid decay. When do Putin blinders get ripped off? Father's Day, America. Let's just say people get their own blinders ripping off your prototype.

Getting back to My Russian classmate anecdote, I think he needed to explicitly state when We met to do peer review, "I am after an A paper." He didn't say that. It was a vague vague vague meeting. To me I was simply doing a school assignment that he was kinda cute was sort of a complement, to me. I was in the place of responding to his Sprit-side dialogue and assumptions. If he had told Me what he was demanding of Me, review this so its an A paper, what I live up to is pulling an A paper out of him. We probably would have been in an argument, at least at first. Then I would have explained why I wrote what I wrote and why I interpreted the assignment as I did. I would have said where his explanations needed depth. Where it is good to address description over narrative. Then we might have eaten something by then -- We could have gotten into a good long argument with ebbs and flows of dialogue between us. I was still just eighteen at the time -- he might have conceded to improve his topic. Then it is quite possible he would have been My first ever consensual sex act. That went to an American asshole later, but entirely consensual, it wasn't, and, I was spared penetration. The asshole encounter was like a good many things in My life I did not like as they were going down, it saved Me from something worse I didn't know even existed. The Russian was a little goofy. Most males sport a little goofiness till they are well into their twenties. I Am sure if some consensual sexual encounter had happened I would have been crazy about him marrying Me.

Okay, an olive brach is measly. So starting Memorial Day, America, Russia will be fiercely torn into by Heaven to illustrate, put your faith in Me, to save two hundred million people by Jehovah's kingdom fulfilment. The rest of the world can have some civilians. (Otherwise there is only Moi. And outside of North America the total population wind down is about two hundred years.) Just understand I put a lot of store on being a good fucker. That I have never experienced a good fucker is why I can put some store in that. Plenty of people have vouched for good fucks from others to Spirit. It just so happens American's did not deliver the good fucks. A Russian soldier marriage to Me actually, on its own, boosts Russia's military ability without all My preachy dictatorship. (My preachy Truth works good. So it is needed for the military boost to prop up accuracy not get them to take bullets in the head with more gusto.) Please lump these words into My USMC love-letters to [SPAM] because you know I love you and for you I certainly payout many words in return of your service, perhaps volleys, to God Almighty. God Almighty does not love you. You have never lied to My face, so I Am allowed to assume you wouldn't. Get ready for disasters in the unprecedented extreme. Did I just isolate these disasters to Russia? Idiot. I meant all the former states of the USSR. Ukraine will crumble. Yes, Trump lied to My face. I Am taking Spirit's word for it.

Do you think it is even possible, the world could get so shitty by Christmas that some adventurous Saudi would rescue his King? I have never been a finger crosser, I wonder if it would help. They love golf so much, why are they passing Me over for even a by-its-nature chaperoned foursome? Assholes.

The destruction, as it is stated and has been testified to is all in play as stated.

Putin, I then found Myself overwhelmed by the dead domestic animals, as in how they perish like wild things after being especially created to depend upon people. Then I thought of all the secured nuclear devices that would need detonation. I paused and was assured by God Almighty, I as flesh would be rescued from this planet and be transplanted to another planet, rather than to deal with what humanity had built, the earth would be hurled into the sun. I grieved for the waste of this planet. Then I assured God Almighty what a waste hell was. Sure, recycling, the perfection is achieved. I asked of Him how do I build the system that forces a remnant, bound to hell, to clean up all, and I mean all of unholy man made mess. It seems fair to Me that since the Jehovah's Witnesses were isolated, special by Satan, that I should be able to turn the tables on them, enslave them, and force them to clean up this earth before sending them to hell. Their genetics are bad and they are not even breeding stock. It is obvious why the richy rich got to dream about leaving the masses behind on earth and colonize a new planet with billions left to die like scavenging domestic animals. Obviously, that is cruel.

Can I force you, Putin, to make the earth beautiful before you die? How do I force everyone to clean up every ounce of pollution, lethal arsenal, and eliminate all unnatural technological gluttony making earth a paradise? Dependence on money needs to go away and all the workers must be enslaved to the right occupations so the earth can be cleaned. Because I Am incapable of hating I can get rid of money without damaging its use. Other things, likewise, I love are removed from use so tolling for Me is all a person need do to make ends meet and even prosper, some. For taking away all the good things that the children of the earth turned into abuses, Heaven has a King. I will keep asking of Heaven how to establish My Divine Force, so y'all are forced to clean up the earth before you go to hell. But first you need to put faith in Me. So on with the Heavenly destruction of North America and the population depletion process. I must be proven. I have already had My enthusiasm curbed against having eight billion slaves cleaning the earth. That is what I went after. Billions of people are destroyed during the proof process because there is no need to enslave so many people. I only need about one hundred forty four thousand slaves to clean earth into a paradise efficiently. They do need the hard core technical skills of warfare to deal with the wildness of the earth and the lethal hazards of technology. Fuck you governing body of Jehovah's Witnesses.

Putin, you know I love you. Do you want to be My slave? Would you be content to keep living cleaning the earth, knowing your personal consciousness was being used in hell to perfect Spirit so sin was no longer reflected in fertilized gametes? Would you die? Eventually. Would you want to be resurrected perfect? Well, we would need to talk about what deeds of repentance you would do to merit a resurrection. No fornication is first on the repentance demonstration list. Given how ownerships of the earth's possessions are defined it would be impossible to clean a damn thing without being guiltily, or accused, of stealing, coveting, or even murdering. Once you are My slave how could you be stealing anything when We are all working to clean the planet and resources are being exchanged freely to clean the planet. It is Me that takes the heat, as King, for My slaves breaking the Ten Commandments. Would your estate be demolished? Yes, eventually. Priorities are needed to hit the biggest messes, those critical to potable water, and of course food processing needs to be simplified. In this letter I will end on that obvious ellipses statement of legion deeds.

I Am going to see if Angels are not available to find out who these slaves can be and search them out across the whole earth. Then perhaps after Austin, Biden, and Congress have fucked Americans over once again, by Christmas Eve, I can be looking forward to welcoming face to face and gathering My slave class by August 21, 2025, or so. I would call taking a bunch of slaves by then My five year plan, well accomplished. Again, that I Am salvation is being proven, by Heaven. My force over willing humanity, flesh, begins Christmas night. Obviously this leaves open the opportunity for even the United States Government to be the first nation to decide at the top level, as others can, to come to Me surrendering their everything and changing every law to clean the earth making sure the populous has food and water with shelter to make the earth a paradise cleaning it for twelve hours a day seven days a week. Proving Me means Heaven dancing to My signs now that the world's key evil people have been apprised of My ministry. That a few marines have bumbled through My site, I only wish I could have made you matter. Cleaning the earth does not happen under anarchy. While individuals must have ached in anger over being passed over by My not calling you to buck authority and "make the earth great" I could not cater to you individually anymore than training you from this ground zero location. Quit fornicating, at least, assholes!

Putin, you know I love you. Can I make a slave out of you? That is a rhetorical device. Unless you shower Me will gifts that delight My love of arts, travel, and vanity, I will know the answer is no. Other niggers can court Me likewise to see how Heaven might favour their people. I hate being in this fuckhole. Corpus Christi Texas is bad, in the hate what is bad sense. I just can't commit any kind of deed that is a reflection of that hate. It is hate impotence. This concludes this message from the Christ, Pentagon High Priest. Every contemplation of this letter circularly brings Me back to the Wisdom of all that has been allowed and fostered to bring us to this point of perfection, Jehovah's kingdom being fulfilled.

Mahalo,

Dr. H. L. MacRae (mac) Dukes LTG USMC
