A Love Letter from the Pentagon High Priest

Fall 2017 to July 1, 2019, all humanity was approached by God Almighty with what they wanted for their life's personal Christmas fulfilment to come. Everyone is being elevated to the grand seat in the house that they demanded was their own personal nirvana, great gift, and marvellous present from God for being alive. Why do thus? It is the only way to give people a grand enough throne to take a dump. Some people, will only affirm what they think of you if you give them the greatest treasure you have. They plunder it. They are all politeness when they know you are not handing them your personal best. Active duty U.S. Military that crap when, where, and how they are told are exempt. This Heavenly Cannon that God Almighty is following is equivalent to the Third Century Council that bound the Holy Bible Writ.

Veterans and your relatives; greetings. That officially dispenses with the pleasantries.

This letter challenges you to understand, what makes Special Forces active duty better than you in the eyes of God. It also explains why I trump all other soldiers and y'all. None of you have served nor do you understand service to God and country as I do. I Am simple to understand; I work for and demand perfection refusing excuses and people who look like excuses for human beings. Obama awarded Me My commission May 2012 under the threat of torture relying on My own savings to fund My duty relying on God to make good his demands. Trump and Biden were both satisfied continuing the Divine arrangement. Simply put, outside of incidentals appurtenant to moving Me about in combat early in My career I have never received more than a little bread and cheese from any government agency, ever! Even My uniforms were lent Me. My first two decades I fought many battles while alternating My time in deep cover in America building for the US Military's future should you be hoisted on your own petards by Heaven. I Am a slave of the United States Government, self funded, and grateful to Heaven that the earth's entire populous is going to Hell for blasphemy against their Spirit! I shall now elucidate. Oh, laugh it up over the Jehovah's Witnesses, CCPD, and Nueces County Family "Services" plundering My estate with phoney medical bills supporting My serial killer mother's efforts to murder Me.

To jump to the conclusion of this letter. If you claim to have served in the Marine Corps and you are male; get to the gym, get to the rifle range, shave off all your facial hair, and renew the jar head cut. Females who served in the Marine Corps; no one in their right mind would expect you to do one damn thing unless you thought would be made America's queen for doing simple things like craping in a toilet and shaving your legs. Females you need to add an academic discipline such as engineering, civil or mechanical, or master speaking and writing in Arabic, Hebrew, Greek or Russian. You also need to add modesty to your dress and end advertising your lochs of hair in public. If you served in some other military camp, la de da for you. Only a US Marine is held to the standard of, "Once a Marine, always a Marine." Learn to work an eighty hour secular week to give yourself a chance at outrunning Hell. When a form can be provided, what remains of a United States Defense Department will have one for you to enter the ranks giving you a second chance at life.

Marines you are judged across the board to how I perform My duties. (Active duty is likewise all service branches.) Put simply, every claim to your being a Marine, meaning someone by definition worthy of combat, is going to be tested through every idea you have putting you in the place of fulfilling your death in the way you work your righteousness. The Air Force and Army can't be taken too seriously. (And fornicating captains in the Navy make ships full of victims. Like transport pilots, by the way.) They will be spared the glory that you will make yourselves pigs in. We have meaner than civil war ahead people and there will be no American military body siding in the civil war. Quelling rioting of angry mobs of homeless should have been embraced. Stupid mother fucking entitled California pansy governments. If people can rise up in riots they can do the work of picking up all the litter along the state highways of America. Every mile!

Truth be told that form will be available to every natural born American who will serve as a soldier. It is just Marines are ego maniacs and I Am The Marine of Marines. That you served in some capacity means you might be able to keep your family members alive, at least. But, fornication gets you killed no different than soldiers. Ex or reserve; Army, Navy, Air Force, Coast Guard, and National Guard: You do not have the same opportunities to advance yourselves as Marines, nor as many opportunities to receive Heaven's prodding to make you do just a little better with yourself. You don't use the same mirror. This also means all Marines share a heavy burden against them for My being marooned financially! Marines were expected to personally tithe in thanks for My service, presence, and career. That ain't My expectation. You people are a bunch of skinflints. The Ggods demanded this for allowing a Marine Corps to exist in America.

I digressed. California keeps some American's like caged pets across its major cities. It's how they get charity credit in Heaven. That ends Labor Day for every city and nation with its people. You fucked over the solution the President offered that was the only solution backed by Heaven. There are no Heavenly rewards for allowing people to be wandering "stars" begging for money sleeping on street curbs. For people to justify sleeping out under the stars of Heaven as their currency from God for being homeless, the hobo tramp of yesteryear, stars needed to be visible to the naked eye. Light pollution is what brought this on. The Earth can eat the homeless come Labor Day along with all people who support them. The balance of this letter builds on previous posted information. You are not paid to read this. Heaven wants you all in Hell as quickly as possible. As the Defense Department refuses to pay Me My wages the population of the earth dying off is the pay Heaven has to give Me. Being rid of you ends My being humiliated by you. Heaven is furious at your humiliating Me.

What elevates an individual to hold special forces duty is best explained in the true story of service in Iraq of a Corpus Christi native Marine who got to blaze across a strip of desert driving a Humvee encountering enemy fire along the way. Had he been a candidate for Special Forces he would have dispatched an ICOR [Ichor would have been included had he not been fucking the brains out of everything he could get his hands on while drunk.] message, "Sir we have intelligence on insurgence positioned at da da da likely military with small arms and heat seeking fire." "How did you receive this?" "Only half our gunners body remained at his gun a minute ago." "What is your position?" "We have resumed engaging the enemy and are closing in. Our colonel is continuing fire as we travel into the insurgent nest." In actuality the Humvee driver sad-sacked out eventually begging for help from his mommy over his PTSD because his buddy was blown up. Awe, there-there. Mommy coddles your ego. That bad military why didn't they understand just putting you on a pedestal at the Pentagon would have protected all of them from harm. That is the attitude of mommy, anyway. I bet she would hold his pee-pee for him at the urinal when he was just to depressed to touch it himself. He is thirty seven. Would that be a good mommy son potty peek social media post? His claim is that he did his military service right. He always went to the chaplain. You still needed penicillin dumb ass regardless of the number of Our Father's or Hail Mary's assigned. And what deed of repentance did you do for penitence over raping the natives? Perhaps this sad-sack's PTSD is exasperated by HIV drugs. You should have died Mr. Fornicator. And your failure to engage the enemy, meaning a body bag was issued you too, made your gunners death a tedious statistic. Petraeus was a coward who favoured employing the U.S. Marines as a brute squad of posing debauchers rather than have them at least draw or write with Crayolas improving their penmanship during their idyl hours. (Petraeus must have been on the take through the whore houses.)

Military 101: Take out the gunner.

Military 301: Always report military intelligence that furthers sending the enemy to Hell. That is what puts you in the place of promotion notice.

Getting back to the life of that sad-sack. This fucker, had he not entered military duty, more than likely would have killed his drunken drugged-up party buddy cutting him in half driving under a low highway obstacle whist the buddy was shooing out traffic lights standing through the moon roof opening. You can't blame the military Mr Fornicator. Your Marine duty delivered into your hands an opportunity at glory. You squandered it you pansy, baby raping, coward as fucking bore no consequences. What the U.S. Military takes in is really those borderline narcissists who are just to "valuable" in their own eyes to be the ordinary people slaving in minimum wage jobs or living off their parents going to school.

If this letter has the tenderness of a chan-saw, it is fully deliberate! It is understood you are incapable of repentance outside of Hell. Now you can get your heads out of your own entitled asses; get off your fucking couches, get away from the television, end social media, and end remote purchasing that prevents your controls over being hands on everything you buy before and as you buy it. Why even a slut can start working an eighty hour week learning Michelin star worthy cooking adding that to her salaried "fifty" hour week when she has a kitchen in her home. Re-think your lives for thrift, endurance, fasting, and dealing with dead bodies. I have a million children to deal with including the work shirking pansies that are too "righteous" to be the one firing the bullet. Sending everyone to Hell is the work at hand people. Do you work with soldiers? At least I Am not forcing you to test their bullets in punishment against your refusal to have "dirty" hands, like them.

I shall now talk about military recruitment. Recruiters are in the place of making useful individuals that even Walmart or McDonald's could not obtain an honest day's pay from out of high school, and most of you people understood how to do the minimum study to graduate or pass a GED. Good for you. You are the people that needed to be served by the entire nation's collective endeavours to clean, dress, and feed yourselves. A recruiter has a limited number of hands clean jobs. The Navy, Air Force, Coast and National Guards offer the greatest number of jobs that require bodies without warfare culpability. The Ggods are gunning for you. Start reading and learning military history as if you are personally responsible for every death. Because pansy people, the cowards shucking up tax pay, are the culpable parties that defraud the people they serve making no Divine sacrifice, ever. You are cheaters! Drowning and mass burning you with riots and piracy are what the Ggods have to deal with your mockery of what is required in human blood to build a Ba'al. And Heaven runs on a Ba'al.

Humanity is going to Hell as under My mighty hand Spirit are forced to perfect that Ba'al. I can't do muck with you Ggoddamned assholes save lead the tactical engagements reducing both friendly fire and enemy success. And America can be destroyed, as in God does stop you people from eating your own salvation, since the constitution of the United States is protected, like the Ten Commandments, by My deeds.

It is the Merchant Marine of the Gulf, and most auspiciously the Port of Corpus Christi running the counter-fitting of U.S. Dollars. I do not know who is ruining the Ruble or Euro. My guess is this is performed by the Onassis airs. Dig into the Kennedy family activities for the leads you are looking for CIA.

How does My military performance stack-up to your banal, weak, snivelling duty that has you extorting favours across the community seeking hours where you are simply the most proven bad fuckers of America? Read on. I have never received pay. All of My interactions with civilian and military personnel, including during tactical duties, have been funned by God to make a delivery pathway for America to follow Me for salvation. This is literal. I do not interfere with your individual ministry that your souls are intoxicated with. I also make sure you are not closing any doors on My pathway. The Gulf region belongs to Me. My will is being done with or without your consent. My way people can survive. Without Me, no one does. My religion is military discipline for warfare success. Fornication gets you killed. The FBI attempted to use My duty in an extortion scheme. I Am holding them to arresting mumsy for all sixteen of her murders or they don't touch her! Her own mother was her last successful murder. I survive on the estate that I preserved a small portion from through the years of plundering of an ex-husband, the CCPD, Nueces County, the State of Texas, and the Jehovah's Witnesses. The CCPD will be caught for brutality in their public dealings with mumsy prior to her death. I do not know if she will receive a settlement due to the local lawyers seeking deep pockets but it would amount to an easy million for them.

Coast Guard, FYI, you are not in any way adorable, and you are hardly a Navy. Should the Defence Department be obliterated, watch My website for the recruitment form. I will make entreaties to what remains of Britain, Germany, France, and Russia to round up what troops, if any, claiming association with America remain. I will even be destroying nations in retribution for keeping American POW's. I have four stars people! I earn My fifth in combat. I Am greedy for that fifth star. I Am greedy for combat. I love it!
