The Price for the Desert

In My opinion the reason why, desert has one s and dessert has two is if you go after too much extra, the dessert after the main meal, you make desert. The right way to enjoy a dessert is as a course with a beverage all its own. Have the main meal in the late afternoon then have a civilised cordial with cake at nine when leaving the movies and visiting with friends late into the hours. (That sort of thing.) Include a walk home along the river -- a few miles. My preference in attire -- especially shoes -- is athleisure. The better brands Patagonia, Smartwool, some North Face are go to labels with room for UVB/UVA protection fabrics of boutique sportswear. Long sleeves and long pants. My preference is short skirts with a long stocking short under. I understand the Russian language has 200,000 or so words to English 600,000. That many extra words make room for many ways to convey the same message with one person understanding, "I'm going to a party in my honour" another hears, "That jerk can't cut me out. I will be there to spite his ass." Mumsy has spent her life making herself into a living Picasso. I Am certain she is not done. And, while horrible, a Picasso has a great price on it. She used injuries to make wounds grizzly scars. I don't own any high healed shoes. I would need to be taught table manners. And I have no means, unless demanded by God, to follow the example of someone else. Your kingly privilege in the MEGA God cloud is all must follow the king, you. They are all individually compared to you. These are the bits. From all those bits a perfect human is fashioned to populate Heaven. Adam was not allowed to be that human. That was tasting sin. Personally, I think Adam wanted to spend his life growing thistles. Roses are thistles. Roses, gardenias, and plumerias are My favourite flowers. Roses are wonderful hedges and the hips that form are concentrated with vitamin-c. I enjoy gardening concentrating on perennials with fragrance forming intimate conversation and private seating areas. Satan must have needed sin because who Adam was without meant Satan learned the lesson not the LORD.

Ziczac, you know I love you.

Exalted Excellency the Honourable Mr. Putin President of Russia:

We got sin, and a perfect human from that Satan was going to get. To get that perfect human in Heaven meant having immortal flesh preserving all that sin. Because the LORD couldn't have no sin. So everything that was vile about the LORD to Satan, I preserve. Those were the terms for the LORD's genetics to come into existence with Noah. Sin is framed by godly view-point, and like a two edged sword either edge kills. It is not wrong to have a language that limits view-point. My guess is, it is far more challenging to send a double message in Russian as opposed to the ease of double meanings in English.

I will sell you mumsy, and you can take the Middle East. Evidently you have your own plums in mind. She will be cared for beautifully with two matrons to tend to her person, and a scholarly male bodyguard/chauffeur to tend to educating her in Russian and Arabic, and escorting her with her matrons to events, museums, and generally steward her house. Set her up in Saint Petersburg in the summer and winter her in Dubai. I will accept one million US dollars for her and her signing the quit claims to My two properties. She is never to return to North America. Nothing is to interrupt her natural life course.

What happens at Christmas as a result of Heaven holding the OWG's fulfilment will mean 50,000 or so at wipe down of the human populous scattered on earth. America closes quickly, and I have no reason not to prefer working with the Divine over all the struggles of My getting people to do anything. I need authority to take their life to get anything from them on the kind of scale that gets them to clean even their own messes. Right now that authority would come from a constitutional amendment upheld by the supreme court. People don't do anything for Me unless they are proving, somehow, it is because I Am just too lame to figure it out or if I do it, it is only to hurt their immortal soul. Then what they do is usually some kind of treachery against Heaven because I was spared doing anything.

Perhaps My irritation to Heaven yesterday will put that weirdness in perspective. If I came into the world and were just put in a box, off to itself, for God to deal with, perhaps all could be well. But you see, mumsy had to do something with Me. I was her baby. People would ask her about her baby. I uphold Heaven being perfected by upholding the physical. That is how the perfect human in Heaven gets built. If I were in the Middle East God would be able to channel His anger at America through the region dealing America a double blow. The chaos, that eventually settled in the region Russia could capitalise on, but it would be as a result of how I was funded in the Middle East. I actually applied for engineering jobs in Saudi years ago. I was a hell of a CAD operator once. I'm rusty now though.

Spelling is a challenge for Me because mnemonics in existence suck. Because I delivered the Proverb I did about the spelling of desert and dessert; I will be allowed to remember. Not only that, but whatever cockamamie shit Humanity was leveraging Spirit with over the spelling mnemonic involving desserts, that shit be invalid -- except in the MEGA God cloud. So people must repent to be Fate Masters as Spirit have repented. Spirit repented by obedience to Me.

Mumsy and Gerald Owen Booth (the former frogman turned SEAL of Korea/Viet Nam fame), I reference him as Boothy -- everyone called him Boothy -- formed that human baby placeholder in Heaven from his witchcraft and her natural greed. That baby they made opened the door, forced open the need, for Me to come into existence. Boothy hosted Mr Twinkles.

The SDL is within a day of release. That is the same as saying twelve hours of work. Putin, it finally came down to only God would make room for Me, and I was his personal shit eater so He could deal America all their blows due. He accepted My application March 31, 2018. Spirit beings are real life forms like amoeba, wheat, lava, and bears all rolled into one. I Am their voice crying out among humanity. (The birds already got the message. That happened in late March, as I recall.) Someone would need to biography Me daily for you to gather the intel you are looking for. I have an extra sleeping quarters here at the house. Why not go for the gusto; buy mumsy, and send a biographer with a little paperwork and decent expense account for the America plan too. God Almighty ain't exactly liked in Heaven. He's just a necessary evil, like Me -- and We love each other.

Mahalo,

the Christ
